Formed

OUR MISSION
Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

July 18, 2021 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time
FORMED.ORG; sjvparish.formed.formed.org

Video overview: The great Italian poet Dante Alighieri begins the Inferno, the first part of his masterpiece the Divine Comedy, with the image of being lost in a dark wood. Somewhere along the way, he lost sight of his true destination. Like Dante, we are all travelers on a journey which will end in either Heaven or hell. We all long to see God in Heaven, but we encounter so many distractions, as well as legitimate needs and desires, along the way. If we aren't careful, these things can make us lose our way and forget the greatness of our calling. When that happens, we end up living an empty life that pales in comparison to the things we are made for. Our true hunger and loneliness can't be filled by this world. But God hasn't left us alone to wander in the dark wood—he sent us his only Son to lead us home to him. Jesus is our true compass. He is our Good Shepherd. He is the way, the truth, and the life.

Featured study: Jesus of Nazareth: Holy Week by Pope Benedict. You will love this book for a month reading of joy.

Topic of Interest: In this week's Gospel Reading, Jesus invites the Apostles to a time of retreat after they return from their first mission. But no sooner than they set off "in the boat by themselves to a deserted place," the crowds begin to arrive. Let's take a closer look at Jesus's response to them. Despite his desire for a time of rest and quiet both for himself and his closest companions, he does not chase the people away. Instead, "his heart was moved with pity for them." Why does Jesus take pity on this crowd? Mark tells us that "they were like sheep without a shepherd." Jesus loves these people and wants to share his own life with them, so he cannot abandon them to wander by themselves. Rather, he teaches them many things, addressing the heart of their need. If we continue reading the chapter, we also find Jesus feeding the entire group, and then sending the Apostles off by themselves again while he dismisses the crowd (see verses 35–45)

It's hard to believe that August is right around the corner . . . Can you smell the sharpened pencils? Can you hear the laughter on the playground? Can you see those happy SJV students walking along the breezeway outside their classrooms? The start of the 2021-2022 school year is just around the corner, and we are still accepting applications! If you or anyone you know may be interested in learning more about a Catholic education at St. John Vianney School, please have them reach out and schedule a tour with our principal,

MINISTRY DAYS – SAVE THE DATE! September 24—25, St. Francis High School

Join us for MINISTRY DAYS 2021, a day to reconnect with disciples from all around the Diocese, share our experiences in this uncertain time, equip ourselves for the road ahead and receive God's protection as we JOURNEY WITH JOSEPH. Pope Francis asks us to follow the example of St. Joseph in this uncertain time. St. Joseph didn't have much control over the situation he found himself in, but he humbly accepted God's plan. We, like St. Joseph, are called to accept our current situation as part of God's loving plan for us, to tenderly accompany and collaborate with those we encounter, and move forward creatively and courageously in our ministry efforts. For more information, go to www.ministrydays.com. For more Information contact Jennifer Campbell at jcampbell@scd.org or 916-733-0135 .
