Video overview: When was the last time you experienced a situation in which you thought there was no solution? Often, we feel cornered by circumstances in life and think that there is no possible way out. And yet, miraculously, things end up working out for our good. This week’s Gospel Reading highlights Jesus’s love for his people as he transforms five barley loaves and two fish into a feast for five thousand people. This week, let’s focus on the miracles that can happen when we place our trust in God.

Featured study: Grieving with Great Hope. Powerful.

Topic of Interest: St. John’s account of this familiar miracle contains many significant fulfillments of Old Testament events. In this scene, we see elements of this week’s First Reading about Elisha, where he feeds many from a small amount of food. Another significant moment from the Old Testament that Jesus fulfills in this week’s Gospel is when Moses and the elders meet with God at the mountain to establish the Old Covenant. Here, on the mountain, Jesus is preparing to teach about the New Covenant—which will culminate in the Eucharist. John provides a hint of this when he specifically mentions that there is a lot of grass. The Gospels are so brief that they often leave us begging for more details. So why would John bother to mention the grass? This short reference relates to Psalm 23: “He makes me lie down in green pastures.” John is hinting that the Good Shepherd is about to feed the sheep.

From the Pastor

Protocol for Indoor Masses

- The celebration of the Mass at church will be at 100% seating capacity.
- All the Catholic Faithful in the Diocese of Sacramento are obliged to personally attend and actively participate in the Sunday celebration of the Sacrifice of the Mass (Canon 1247).
- Individuals who are sick or have a vulnerable health condition or are caring for someone with a vulnerable health condition are not obligated to attend the Eucharist on Sunday or other obligatory solemnities.
- The distribution of the cup is still suspended until further notice.
- Priests, deacons, and extraordinary ministers should continue to use facial masks for the distribution of communion. All parishioners are still encouraged to wear face masks. Hand sanitizer is available.
- All the faithful are encouraged to receive the COVID-19 vaccination when available. Please consult your doctor regarding any personal health concerns.

School

St. John Vianney School

We are very excited to introduce our brand new, redesigned St. John Vianney School website! Take a few minutes to browse around and let us know what you think -

<https://sjvschool.org>.

We know you’ll love all of the great new photographs and the homepage video (a special thank you to SJV parent, Bryan Visitacion, for his incredible videography skills!). And another special thank you to one of our local Rancho Cordova businesses, Sublime, that helped bring our vision to life! Please spread the word and share it with your friends and family!

SPOTLIGHT: SJV PARISH MINISTRIES

PARISH VOCATION COMMITTEE

St. John Vianney Vocation Committee exists to foster vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Our purpose is to guide and encourage our parish community in prayer. We also assist in giving information about vocations, support and encourage promising candidates and re-direct them to our pastor or our Diocesan Office of Vocation.

If you are considering the religious life, or know anyone who is thinking about religious life, please contact: voc-comm@sjvparish.com.

FILIPINO-AMERICAN APOSTOLATE (FAA)

Meets every last Friday, 7:00pm-8:30pm, SW Room (Hall)

The FAA of St. John Vianney is a parish ethnic ministry that educates our young Filipinos about cultural awareness of our Catholic tradition, and Filipino heritage.

Our goal is to motivate our young ones to develop an active and dedicated community of Catholics, united in prayer and with Christ. As SJV community team members, we jointly walk the path with the Parish Vocation Committee through prayer, support and stewardship.

If you would like to join our ministry and get involved in our various events, please contact:
