OUR MISSION
Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

August 8, 2021 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time
FORMED.ORG; sjvparish.formed.formed.org

Video overview: Have you ever heard someone say something completely outlandish?

The Jews in today's Gospel are not just shocked by Jesus' teaching, they are also likely disgusted and offended. Is Jesus of Nazareth really telling them that He is the Bread of Life and the fulfillment of all the Scriptures? Is he truly the new Passover Lamb? These possibilities are scandalous to them. Oftentimes, living our faith can cause scandal, at least in the eyes of the world. It's radical for us to cling to the truths of the faith and to Christ in today's culture. Let's take some time today to learn more about the Eucharist, the source and summit of our faith. Jesus knew we need physical signs, which is why he gave us his very self, hidden under the appearances of bread and wine, to nourish us on our journey in this life.

Featured study: Presence: The mystery of the Eucharist.

Topic of Interest: It can be hard to see the connection between the spiritual realm and our everyday activities. God can seem distant; prayer can feel dry; and the invisible battle of angels and demons raging all around us can slip our minds like a distant memory. Yet Saint Paul clearly teaches that our sins "leave room for the devil" (Ephesians 4:26) and "grieve the holy Spirit of God" (v. 30). Jesus warns us against becoming outwardly pious while being inwardly corrupt (see Matthew 6:5). In fact, a great deal of our personal spiritual battle is not just about changing our external conduct, but getting our internal attitudes to line up with our upright behavior. In particular, Paul targets our speech—"fury, anger, shouting"—for change since "from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks" (Luke 6:45; NAB). Our speaking to one another reveals our interior spiritual condition. Instead of shouting at each other, we should forgive each other like God forgives us and thus be "imitators of God" (Ephesians 5:1). By imitating his pattern of generous love and forgiveness, we slowly begin to become like him. The Holy Spirit gives us grace, not just to escape from Hell, but actually to become holy like God. Our everyday life, our habits, our relationships, and our work can be transformed from a merely human set of tasks into a Spirit-empowered, God-imitating reality. The invisible realm thus invades the visible. It is through our actions that the life of God becomes observable in the world.

Protocol for Indoor Masses Effective July 31, 2021

- Face coverings shall be worn, regardless of vaccination status, over the mouth and nose, in all indoor public settings, venues, gatherings and workplaces. Hand sanitizer is available.
- The celebration of the Mass at church will be at 100% seating capacity.
- All the Catholic Faithful in the Diocese of Sacramento are obliged to personally attend and actively participate in the Sunday celebration of the Sacrifice of the Mass (Canon 1247).
- Individuals who are sick or have a vulnerable health condition or are caring for someone with a vulnerable health condition are not obligated to attend the Eucharist on Sunday or other obligatory solemnities.
- The distribution of the cup is still suspended until further notice.
- All the faithful are encouraged to receive the COVID-19 vaccination when available. Please consult your doctor regarding any personal health concerns.

School

St. John Vianney School www.sjvschool.org

Recently, we asked the Bollinger Family why they send their kids who are in 4th and 1st grade to SJV School.

They responded with:

"Our family has been truly blessed in our time at St. John Vianney School. As parents, we sought an education for our children that incorporated a challenging and diverse academic curriculum along with a strong faith formation program. We have been so impressed by the extremely welcoming and dedicated staff and the wonderfully committed and involved family community. We appreciate the school's culture that encourages and fosters an amazing student comradery that spans across the grade levels. We have been beyond pleased with the measures the faculty takes to ensure that all students are acknowledged, appreciated, challenged, safe, and growing into individuals of character. We have truly had every one of our expectations exceeded by this school and its staff!"

School starts August 16. Interested in learning more? Schedule a tour with Mrs. Amy Hale, Principal at principal@sjvschool.org or (916) 363-4610.

CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA

This week, we are taking up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS (KofC)

Meets 2nd Wednesday, 7:00pm, Fireside Room

The Knights are a Catholic fraternal family service organization which has been active at SJV since 1962. We are proud to include Father Gamas, Father Moroney, and Deacons Little and Rangel as Brother Knights. The Knights sponsor the monthly Parish Family Breakfast, the Easter Egg Hunt, the annual SJV Parish Beer & Brats Dinner, and other programs to benefit youth, Veterans, and Pro-Life causes. Knights regularly participate as Lectors or Ushers at SJV Church and are sponsoring a seminarian studying for the priesthood. By serving their Church and community, Knights strive to become better Catholics.

If you are a Catholic man over 18 and want to get involved to improve our Parish Community, please visit our website at: www.ranchoknights.com

SJV MR. and MRS. CLUB INVITATION to MARRIED COUPLES

The primary objective of Mr. and Mrs. Club is the social enjoyment of it's members. Any married couple is eligible for membership, provided one is Catholic and is a member of our SJV Parish. The true ministry comes from Christ's biblical words: "To love one another," our spouse, our family, our Parish family and community, "As I love you." Spouses find joy in each other, along with like-minded Parish friends. Members can choose to attend the monthly meeting and dessert social on the second Saturday at 7:30 pm in the Hall Fireside room and the monthly social usually on the fourth Saturday. The size of our ministry fluctuates at 45 couples. New couples, are always encouraged to check us out, by calling the Membership Couple, Connie and Lloyd Lagerstrom, their number 916-635-3865 in the bulletin or pamphlets found on the tables at the entrances of the church. The beautiful traditions continue in our highly blessed group during 62 continuous years. Consider joining in on all the support, fellowship and good fun that is offered for both of you, "All in His name".

The traditions continue with a 5th Sunday, 8 am "Communion" Mass. Monsignor Dwyer so enjoyed officiating at this Mass and the breakfast that followed. By the way, all of our SJV priests, are honorary members. The members have always been the pillars in so many parish activities. Member couples find satisfaction in all the different ministries, drawing closer to our Lord through each other, developing talents when called by God, with the encouragement of the group, for the needs of our parish and parish family.

Father Richard Dwyer founded Mr. and Mrs. Club out of the Blessed Sacrament Cathedral's Newman Center, after military personnel started coming back from WWII to their families. Saint John Vianney Parish initiated Mr. & Mrs. Club in 1959, with Fr. Dwyer's inspiration, complete with a charter, 36 married couples, including Mrs. Joeseph (Rosemary) Ferriera, who is still remembered in SJV Parish. We thank you for your interest – Bob and Terri McGarvey, President Couple
