JULY 31, 2022 | 18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

18th Sunday

I N O R D I N A R Y T I M E

[Jesus] said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." - Lk 12:15

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

July 31, 2022, 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time — Formed.org.

Video overview: Ecclesiastes tells us the pursuit of worldly riches is vanity because in the end we have to let them all go. We can spend our whole lives acquiring things, but at the end it goes to another who hasn't worked for it. Ecclesiastes sets us up for the Gospel reading from Luke, when a man comes to Jesus complaining that his brother hasn't divided the inheritance equally with him. Against this backdrop, Jesus gives us the divine perspective on wealth by telling the story of a wealthy man who has a crop so big it doesn't fit into his barns. His solution is to tear everything down and build bigger barns so he can store up this great abundance of wealth. But God comes to the rich man and tells him that he will die that very night—and not be able to enjoy this wealth that he has stored up for himself. Jesus ends the story by telling his listeners that this is how it will be for everyone who stores up treasures for himself rather than being rich in what matters to God. The message here is an emphasis on what really lasts. Acquiring wealth is vanity if we acquire it just for ourselves since nothing we build or save up in this world will last forever. Jesus tells us that there are things we can do in this life that will have eternal significance. If the man in the Gospel reading had distributed his extra wealth to the needy, he would have had treasure in heaven. So Jesus is asking us whether, in our saving and our success, we are focusing on earthly success or investing in that which will have an eternal reward.

Featured study: Why almsgiving? Dr Michael Barber gets right to the point, sharing is a sacrifice.

Reflection: One of the characteristic signs of a deep faith is the ability to embrace the poverty of spirit that Jesus enjoins in the Beatitudes and here in Luke. St. Paul says in Philippians 4:11-13 (RSV): "I have learned, in whatever state I am, to be content. I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound; in any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and want. I can do all things in him who strengthens me." There is nothing wrong in rejoicing in plenty. The real danger is the greed that the habit of plenty can so easily engender in us. (How, after all, can we know if we can be content without our goods, if we never actually are?) In the West, and especially in the United States, we are constantly tempted by the spirit of greed. As we saw in the second reading, greed is associated with idolatry, illegitimate worship. When anything—financial security, status, our sexual appetites, celebrity—begins to win our hearts and to become the focus of our desire and efforts, we have begun to turn toward false worship. Orthodoxy, which can mean "right worship" (orthos = straight and doxa = glory), requires not just right thinking about the things of the world but a proper ordering of our desires. We do well to have the doxology always on our lips to protect us from the spirit of greed: "[All] Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit..." and to keep us from hearing those frightening words, "You fool," from the mouth of Jesus.

From the Pastor

WHAT MAKES THIS SUCH A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE U.S.?

Everything about the National Eucharistic Revival is intended to "bear fruit that will last" (Jn 15:16). By building a consistent grassroots momentum beginning with dioceses and parishes, the intention is to bring together all facets of the Church – apostolates, movements, religious orders, universities, and ecclesial organizations – all rooted in a shared love for the Eucharist that will create impact in the Church for generations to come.

WHAT IS THE FINANCIAL INVESTMENT IN THE NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL AND 2024 NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS?

The three-year National Eucharistic Revival flows out of the USCCB's 2021-2024 strategic plan and, as such, is funded by the efforts of collaborating committees at the Conference as well as by grants and in-kind donations from partners and sponsors of the Revival.

Distinctly, for the 2024 National Eucharistic Congress, this worthy investment of promoting the source and summit of our Catholic faith will include several contributing factors to offset the cost of resources to bring this milestone event to life, similar to the financial structure of the World Meeting of Families held in Philadelphia in 2015. This includes committed donors who long to see eucharistic revival throughout our country, collaboration and resource sharing from Catholic entities throughout the Church in the US, and admission fees from those attending the National Eucharistic Congress.

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY, patron of priests, known as the "Curé of Ars".

Saint John Mary Vianney, born during the days of the French Revolution, was ordained a priest in 1815. Three year later he was made parish priest of Ars, a remote French hamlet, where his reputation as a confessor and director of souls made him known throughout the Christian world. His life was one of extreme mortification. Accustomed to the most severe austerities, beleaguered by swarms of penitents, and besieged by the devil, this great mystic manifested imperturbable patience. He was a wonderworker loved by the crowds but he remains to this day the living image of the priest after the heart of Christ. He heard confessions of people from all over the world for sixteen hours each day. His life was filled with works of charity and love. It is recorded that even the staunchest of sinners were converted at his mere word. He died August 14, 1859, and was canonized May 31, 1952.

Youth Ministry (Middle- and High-School)

Just a reminder that registration opens up in August. As in previous years, there is no cost to be a part of Youth Ministry, but this is so that I can get the relevant contact and emergency information from the parents prior to Youth Ministry beginning in September. There may be some costs for some materials, however. For instance, we will be starting our fall session off with the Venture Bible Timeline for Teens, which will require all youth to have a workbook. Please visit our page on the SJV parish site to get the link for the student workbook.

Young Adults (Ages 18-39)

Young Adults continues to meet on the 4th Thursday of the month, in which we have adoration followed by fellowship and a guest speaker. If you have ideas about topics for a speaker to address, feel free to email me your ideas. Also, keep an eye out for upcoming announcements for Young Adults because we will be starting our first Bible study program called Jesus: the Way, the Truth, and the Life, in which we'll be focusing on getting to know the person of Jesus as He has revealed Himself through scripture.

BEAUTY, TRUTH, AND UNITY: WHY POPE FRANCIS IS SO CONCERNED WITH THE LITURGY

Pope Francis, on the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, issued a letter to Catholics on the liturgy and the celebration of the Mass. The letter was published just before the July 16 anniversary of his controversial motu proprio Traditionis Custodes, which introduced new rules restricting the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass. In Desiderio Desideravi, Pope Francis did not change Church law, but said he wanted “to invite the whole Church to rediscover, to safeguard, and to live the truth and power of the Christian celebration.”

“I want,” he wrote, “the beauty of the Christian celebration and its necessary consequences for the life of the Church not to be spoiled by a superficial and foreshortened understanding of its value or, worse yet, by its being exploited in service of some ideological vision, no matter what the hue.”

Why is this topic so important to Pope Francis? In a word, because he is concerned about unity, a liturgy expert said. The pope is the guardian of unity in the Church, something which is threatened by liturgical in-fighting, Father Dominik Jurczak, a Dominican and expert in sacred liturgy, told CNA.

“Here is the reaction of Pope Francis,” the Polish priest explained. “We cannot use liturgy as a weapon. ... We can organize debates on the liturgy, we can discuss which part of the liturgical renewal was done better or not. But we cannot disobey and we cannot use the liturgy to show that somebody else in the Church is not a part of the Church actually.”

Jurczak noted that, in some places, the celebration of the liturgy is subject to abuses which keep the reality of the celebration far from what it could and should be.

THE REAL PRESENCE OF JESUS IN THE EUCHARIST INVITES US TO BE TRULY PRESENT TO HIM

THE PRIEST

is one to whom people come at those junctions of life
when they come face to face with the unsolvable.
Those moments when they meet with the limits of creaturely power, when they experience darkness or have intimations of mortality.

AT SUCH MOMENTS

people have need to draw near to one who,
while able like other men and women to swim in the waters of life and stay afloat in them, is not averse to drowning graciously in them, able to be overcome.
PEOPLE need one who has entered deeply into the paschal mystery of Jesus,
REJOICING IN LIFE BUT AT EASE WITH DEATH
(Msgr. James O'Reilly, 1977)

I never had the good fortune of taking a class from him. I was studying philosophy in the college – part of the same seminary campus – while Msgr. O'Reilly taught mostly theology students. I remember the many stories told about him; the most memorable tidbit was a paraphrased extraction from his definition of priesthood: "A priest should be able to drown with people."

I had heard this line many times in various forms. It was one of those insights that got me thinking. Another quote of Msgr. O'Reilly that I often recall was: "The Mass is intentionally boring, so that it can bore into your heart."
