OCTOBER 30, 2022 | 31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

31st Sunday

I N O R D I N A R Y T I M E

When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. - Lk 19:5-6

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

October 30, 2022, 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time — Formed.org.

Video overview: Zacchaeus was not a popular man. The short, wealthy chief tax collector was probably one of the most despised men in the community. The tax collectors in Israel were known for “taking a little off the top.” And they were working for the oppressive Romans who were taxing the Jewish people. Little wonder tax collectors were at the very bottom of the popularity list of the time. Unpopular as Zacchaeus would have been, this is precisely the person whom Jesus seeks in this week’s Gospel reading. The Gospel of Luke tells us that as Jesus was passing through the city of Jericho, Zacchaeus was anxious to see Jesus. He climbed up a sycamore tree to get a better look, and to his surprise, it was not just Zacchaeus who was seeking Jesus but actually Jesus who was seeking Zacchaeus! Jesus tells Zacchaeus that he will come to his home, much to the shock of Zacchaeus and the whole crowd. This story offers great insight into the nature of God. Jesus tells Zacchaeus that he wants to dine at his house. Imagine the expressions of the other people in the crowd that day. “What kind of a prophet is this?” Going to the chief tax collector’s house was not a recipe for Jesus’ popularity! But God isn’t after popularity; he’s after people’s souls. Zacchaeus’ encounter with Jesus changes his life. He comes down from the tree with joy. He confesses his sins of extortion and pledges to restore whatever he had stolen. Jesus says in the Gospel passage that he came to “seek and save what was lost.” In Zacchaeus’ case, he has great success!

Featured study: Run with Jesus after the one.

Reflection: Jesus again addresses himself to a covenant outsider, Zacchaeus, a tax collector in Jericho. Zacchaeus was a rich man, the chief tax collector in a wealthy region. Chief tax collectors often employed tax collecting agents to do the dirty work of extortion of the local people in collaboration with the Roman authorities, which made these men outcasts in Jewish society. Zacchaeus’ small stature would’ve made it a necessity to employ others to handle the rough stuff, which likely made him all the more hated by the local populace. When those who observed that Jesus had allowed himself to be invited to the house of a sinner began to murmur, Zacchaeus doesn’t dispute what they assert about him, but, by repenting, instantly turns himself into a righteous “descendant of Abraham,” as Jesus calls him. Zacchaeus wouldn’t have been required by the Mosaic Law to make a fourfold restitution for the evil he had done, still less to give half his wealth to the poor. He demonstrates for us that in the new regime which Jesus establishes as the kingdom of God, covenant outsiders such as Zacchaeus can, in an instant, become “descendants of Abraham.”

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)

The Good Shepherd Atrium at Saint John Vianney does not have a dedicated room for atrium sessions and for that reason we are in dire need of volunteers who can help us transform the Unity Room into a little chapel every Thursday of the week. The commitment is of only 15 to 30 minutes per Thursday. You can volunteer before the atrium session or after the atrium session. The times are 2:30pm before the session and 5:30pm after the session.

You will not be alone, we will be here to guide you and help you. The job is not too difficult, the most important task is folding 3 big tables to make room for setting up the atrium furniture and provide a special environment for the children to learn, work and meet Jesus in a weekly basis.

We invite at this time all our Parish Ministries and parishioners to come and observe first hand what the children do in the atrium and decide if this will be a ministry you will love to be part of. Please just let us know by sending an email to CGS@sjvparish.com and we will be ready for your visit. Thank you in advance for the attention given to our requests.

The Good Shepherd Team.

Vatican News

By Courtney Mares, Vatican City, Oct 18, 2022

Fatima's Sister Lucia is one step closer to being beatified

The cause for beatification of Sister Lucia dos Santos, the eldest child to witness the Fatima apparitions, has taken a step forward.

In a meeting at the Vatican, the postulators for Lucia's cause submitted the "positio" document containing testimonies and information detailing her heroic virtues to the Dicastery for the Causes of Saints.

Father Carlos Cabecinhas, the rector of the Fatima shrine, announced the update on the Oct. 13 anniversary of the Miracle of the Sun, the last Marian apparition in Fatima in 1917.

The "Positio on the Life, Virtues and Reputation for Holiness of Sister Lucia de Jesus dos Santos" will now be examined by nine theologians. If the evidence of her heroic virtue is confirmed by the Vatican's saints office and Pope Francis decides to promulgate a decree, Sister Lucia will be designated as Venerable in the Catholic Church.

Lucia, who was 10 years old at the time of the 1917 Marian apparitions, outlived the other visionaries by decades, surviving until age 97.

She spent the final 50 years of her life in a Carmelite convent in Coimbra, Portugal. As the only Fatima visionary who was able to hear the Virgin Mary speak during the series of apparitions at Fatima, her written memoirs have provided an important account of the Fatima message.

"At some point, there is no Fatima narrative without Lucia's account. I cannot imagine Fatima as it is without Lucia having provided an account for it, through her more and less known writings," José Rui Teixeira, Lucia's biographer, said at a virtual event on the Fatima anniversary this month.

Teixeira, who helped to compile documents for her sainthood cause, said that he had nearly 4,000 references in his bibliography.

Lucia's canonization cause opened in 2008, three years after her death, after Pope Benedict XVI granted a dispensation for the usually required five-year waiting period. More than 15,000 letters, testimonies, and other documents were collected during the diocesan phase of her cause, which concluded in 2017.

Highlights

ALTAR OF THE DEAD

Remembering the Souls of our Loved Ones

Parishioners are invited to share a photograph (copy) of their loved ones who have passed away—especially those who have passed in the last year—to be placed at the Altar of the Dead. The Altar is located in the Niche where the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary normally resides. We will remember all of our beloved dead for the entirety of the Month for All Souls. Please bring copies of photos (no bigger than 4”x 6”) so that we might have room for all of our community’s photos.

Note: Please remember to collect your photos at the end of November from the parish office —photos not claimed by December 31 may not be retrievable.

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR NOVEMBER Children Who Suffer

We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.
