NOVEMBER 13, 2022 | 33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

33rd Sunday

I N O R D I N A R Y T I M E

"You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed." - Lk 21:16-18

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

November 13, 2022, 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time — Formed.org.

Video overview : Jesus speaks of scary things—wars, famines, persecution, plagues, earthquakes, and signs falling from the skies. Yet in the midst of his warnings about the judgement coming on earth and the persecution his followers will face, Jesus exhorts his disciples, “By your perseverance you will secure your lives.” Perseverance is the key. Will the disciples remain faithful to Jesus when their faith is tested most—when they face trials, sufferings, and even persecution? For first-century Christians who might be hated for the sake of their faith in Christ, the words of Jesus would provide reassurance and hope. Jesus will always strengthen and comfort those who persevere in faith. We can rest in this same hope today. Just as the early Christians persevered in times of trial, so too are we called to persevere in the daily crosses the world might inflict upon Christ’s followers today. While not all of us are called to literally die for the faith like the early Christian martyrs did, we all are called to die to ourselves in many little ways each day through the sacrifices we make for our faith and by persevering through the misunderstanding, ridicule, and even hostility we might face for remaining faithful to Christ in our secular world today.

Featured study: The Power of Perseverance with Paul Kapsalis 16 min

Reflection: Jesus’ warning in outline form that elaborates on the prophecy He uttered in Luke 19:41-44 about the fall of the Temple. The importance of that event owes much to the symbolism represented in the construction of the Temple and its significance to the Jewish people. The Jews believed that God had designated the Temple Mount in Jerusalem as the place where he had specifically directed that his name would be hallowed. Jewish lore held that the Temple rested at the center of the universe and at a place where heaven, earth, and the underworld intersected. The Temple was constructed in three parts (Outer Court, Holy Place, and Holy of Holies) which corresponded to the three great divisions of creation (water above the heavens, land, and the water around the land). The Temple was a kind of microcosm, a universe miniature. When Jesus foretells its destruction, he’s in effect saying that the old world is passing away and that time is pregnant with a new age which is about to come to birth. That new age is the kingdom of God, the New Covenant in Christ. That’s the world we inhabit as Catholics, citizens of that kingdom, and heirs of that covenant.

Table Decorating Contest!!!

The virtue of Humility is one that resonates with our school as we approach the Thanksgiving holiday. We give thanks to the many supporters of St. John Vianney Catholic School. Students continue to learn and grow with the support and love from our SJV community. Please accept our thanks for the big and small, for the loud and quiet, for the noticeable and not; WE APPRECIATE YOU! Dear Jesus, You said, “Learn from Me, for I am meek and humble of heart” (Matthew 11:29). You are God, yet You became little out of love for me. I desire to become little for love of You. Help me to be honest about my strengths and weaknesses.

THANKSGIVING MASS (Bilingual) Thursday, November 24 10:00AM

Join us on Thanksgiving Day for a special bilingual Mass at 10:00am to give thanks to Almighty God. All families are invited to bring one item that they will share at their own thanksgiving meal (a bread, a cake, a fruit basket, bottle of wine or cider, etc.). Father will bless this item so that you might bring it to your families and share it with them.

Please note: There will be no 8:00 am Mass this day.

Book of Blessings, #1756: [On Thanksgiving day] Individuals or families may bring food to be blessed for their Thanksgiving dinner. Food may also be blessed that will be distributed to the poor.

ALTAR OF THE DEAD

Remembering the Souls of our Loved Ones

Parishioners are invited to share a photograph (copy) of their loved ones who have passed away—especially those who have passed in the last year—to be placed at the Altar of the Dead. The Altar is located in the Niche where the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary normally resides. We will remember all of our beloved dead for the entirety of the Month for All Souls. Please bring copies of photos (no bigger than 4" x 6") so that we might have room for all of our community's photos.

Note: Please remember to collect your photos at the end of November from the parish office —photos not claimed by December 31 may not be retrievable.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)

The Good Shepherd Atrium at Saint John Vianney does not have a dedicated room for atrium sessions and for that reason we are in dire need of volunteers who can help us transform the Unity Room into a little chapel every Thursday of the week. The commitment is of only 15 to 30 minutes per Thursday. You can volunteer before the atrium session or after the atrium session. The times are 2:30pm before the session and 5:30pm after the session.

You will not be alone, we will be here to guide you and help you.

The job is not too difficult, the most important task is folding 3 big tables to make room for setting up the atrium furniture and provide a special environment for the children to learn, work and meet Jesus on a weekly basis.

We invite at this time all our Parish Ministries and parishioners to come and observe first hand what the children do in the atrium and decide if this will be a ministry of which you will love to be part of.

Please just let us know by sending an email to CGS@sjvparish.com and we will be ready for your visit. Thank you in advance for the attention given to our requests.

The Good Shepherd Team.

Vatican News

By Hannah Brockhaus, Vatican City, Oct 22, 2022

Pope Francis: 'It is good to adore in silence before the Most Blessed Sacrament'

It is good to "waste time adoring" Christ present in the Holy Eucharist, Pope Francis said on Saturday.

"I urge you to especially devote yourselves to the prayer of adoration – this is important," he told a group of religious sisters at the Vatican October 22.

"It is good to adore in silence before the Most Blessed Sacrament," he said, "to be in the consoling presence of Jesus and there to draw the apostolic impetus to be instruments of goodness, tenderness and welcome in the community, the Church, and the world."

Francis said the world today has lost the sense of what it means to engage in the form of prayer known as adoration or worship; "to waste time adoring." "This prayer is not often done: I ask you to do it. Adore, immerse yourself in divine love and give it with full hands to those you meet on your path," he urged.

Pope Francis met Saturday religious women belonging to two communities: The Comboni Missionary Sisters and the Order of the Most Holy Savior, also known as the Bridgettines.

He said the sisters' mission of hospitality is improved with time spent contemplating Christ.

"Welcoming, one of the characteristic aspects of your mission, will be more fruitful to the extent in which the prayer of contemplation will make you come out of yourself and focus your life on Jesus Christ, letting him do things in you, letting him act in you," he said.

"This inner movement," Francis added, "will make possible a service to others that is not philanthropy or welfarism, but openness to the other, closeness, sharing; in a word: charity."
