JAN 1, 2023 | SOLEMNITY OF MARY, HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

SOLEMNITY OF MARY, MOTHER OF GOD

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

January 1, 2023, The Octave Day of Christmas; Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God— Formed.org.

Video overview: Today is a beautiful and important feast in the life of the Church. Our focus today isn't on starting the new year although that is certainly reason for celebration, and what better way is there to start out the new year than by going to Mass? Our focus today is on Mary and her motherhood. There is no Christmas without Christ, but there is no Christ without his mother. As we will hear in the video presentation today, very early on the Church gave Mary the title Theotokos, "God-bearer" or "Mother of God," in recognition of her unique role in God's plan. Some people objected (and many still object) to the title "Mother of God" because Mary is human just like us and the title seems to elevate her too far above our humanity. But Mary is undeniably the mother of Jesus, and if we believe that Jesus is God, then Mary is clearly the Mother of God. In declaring Mary to be the Holy Mother of God, we are recognizing the honor that God has already bestowed upon her by choosing her to be the mother of his Son. We are not elevating her any higher than God has already raised her. And in recognizing and proclaiming her privileged role as the Mother of God, we also recognize and claim her as our beloved Mother, entrusting ourselves to her loving care and allowing her to lead us ever closer to her Son.

Featured study: The Bible and the Virgin Mary: Episode 12: Always a Mother

Reflection: In giving us this solemnity, the Church presents us with many things to consider: the beginning of a new year, the birth of God into our human experience, as well as the important place that Mary plays in the divine plan. When we approach Mary, requesting her prayers, we approach someone who has a sublime and altogether unique relationship with God. Her role as Mediatrix for the Church is something truly singular and deserves our special recognition. That is why we honor her this day. Because Jesus enters into an intimate relationship with each one of us, it is only proper that his mother, the human person to whom he is most intimately united, should have a special place in the life of each of us in the Church, as well. This is not our doing or Mary's doing; the agency for this is Christ himself. We approach Jesus in much the same way that the shepherds did, with Mary at his side. Approaching Jesus through Mary is not a denigration of Christ; on the contrary; it was his choice to come to us through Mary; and so we imitate him when we go to him through Mary! A mother is never far from her son, and by knowing her we come to know him better. That is why it is important for us to recognize and honor the specific role she plays in the events of our salvation. In addition to honoring her, we must also imitate her in treasuring in our hearts the events of Jesus's life and death.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)

NEW YEAR'S CELEBRATION IN THE CHURCH AND IN THE WORLD

Last week we celebrated the Birth of our Lord Jesus. We had a procession and a party. "Happy Birthday, dear Jesus!"

This week after the Nativity celebration, we join the shepherds in adoration of the New Born Child. The shepherds were the first ones invited by an angel to visit the long awaited Messiah. The Church's New Calendar Year starts with Advent and the celebration of The Great Light; our new born Child Jesus is the Light of the whole World. Our World's New Year's celebration starts January 1. The world says good bye to the old year and welcomes the New Year with petitions to our Almighty Father for a blessed and prosperous New Year.

Happy New Year to all. January 1 is also Mary's celebration as the Mother of God, and our mother too. Mary Mother of God bless and protect us all through this New Year and teach us to love and follow your Son Jesus.

Youth & Young Adults Corner

Pope Francis celebrates 53 years as a priest

Pope Francis | Credit: Compañía de Jesús and ACI Press / Daniel Ibañez

When he returned to Argentina he served as a professor at the San José School of Theology in the town of San Miguel (on the outskirts of the city of Buenos Aires), rector of the college, and on July 31, 1973, at the age of 36, he was appointed provincial of the Jesuits in Argentina.

On May 20, 1992, Pope John Paul II appointed him auxiliary bishop of Buenos Aires, and he received his episcopal consecration on June 27 of that year from the local archbishop, Cardinal Antonio Quarracino.

Bergoglio was appointed coadjutor archbishop of Buenos Aires on June 3, 1997. He assumed the pastoral government of the archdiocese in February 1998 upon the death of Cardinal Quarracino.

Then, in the consistory of Feb. 21, 2001, he was created cardinal by Pope John Paul II.
