5th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come." - Mk 1:38

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

February 4, 2024 5th Sunday of Ordinary Time - formed.org

Review: There are times when the Scripture readings seem to completely contradict each other. Today we hear Job's deep lament of his sufferings from the Old Testament, while in the New Testament we read about Jesus healing Peter's mother-in-law and the whole town of Capernaum. The first addresses profound suffering, while the second is a story of abundant healing. This apparent contradiction draws us into one of the great mysteries of life-the meaning of suffering. How can a good God allow evil? If God desires to heal us, why does he let us suffer? The answers to these questions Christ fully discloses on the Cross. Today we will ponder this mystery briefly, but these are questions we wrestle with throughout our lives as we wait for Heaven where "every tear will be wiped away." Though we may never fully understand suffering, we can be certain that God desires to heal us and bring value into our suffering. He sent us his only Son to suffer and die for our salvation, and through this mystery we can glimpse how suffering can make us more like him. But we first need to ask for him to heal us in our suffering. We see Jesus beginning that work today in the little town of Capernaum, and he longs to continue that same work in each of our lives.

Featured study: Making sense out of suffering by Dr. Scott Hahn

Reflection: This is hinted at in the very beginning of Mark's Gospel that Jesus passed his authority on to the Church because Jesus made Capernaum his new home. Capernaum is Peter's city and Jesus, after leaving the synagogue which was the scene of last week's Gospel reading (in which he cast out a demon), goes "immediately" (RSV) to Peter's house. If we remember that Mark is writing for Gentiles, the very phrase, "And immediately he left the synagogue and entered the house of Simon" suggests the course that the followers of Jesus are themselves going to follow. They too will leave the synagogue and enter Peter's house: the Church. It is significant, too, that Jesus spends the first Sunday recorded in the Gospel curing the afflicted and casting out demons within Peter's house. Christ still teaches, heals, and lives in Peter's house, the Church. He still makes his home, his headquarters, in Peter's city now Rome, rather than Capernaum. The old adage still holds true that the Church of Christ can be found wherever Peter is. We can see that the roots of that ancient proverb are clearly found in Scripture. In short, the authority exercised by Christ, which so amazed the people of Galilee, is still being exercised in the Catholic Church.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)

The Kingdom of Heaven

After the arrest of John the Baptist, Jesus began His mission of preaching about the Good News of the Kingdom by saying "Repent for the kingdom of Heaven is at hand". Now, we will be listening to Jesus. We will learn from Him about the kingdom of God. We will study five of the parables: The Mustard Seed, The Precious Pearl, The Hidden Treasure, The Growing Seed and the Leaven. We want to know about the kingdom of God; we want to go to Heaven and be with Him forever. We want to follow Jesus. Rejoice and be glad, Jesus will show us the way. Join us, let's follow Him together!

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"Unless there is a Good Friday in your life, there can be no Easter Sunday."

-Ven. Fulton Sheen

"(Lent) is a period of spiritual 'combat' which we must experience alongside Jesus, not with pride and presumption, but using the arms of faith: prayer, listening to the word of God and penance. In this way we will be able to celebrate Easter in truth, ready to renew the promises of our Baptism."

-Pope Benedict XVI

On 11th of February, we will discuss the meaning and our approach to Lent in our twenty-fourth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and do you seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church.

"If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie, OCIA Leader by emailing him at ocia-english@sjvparish.com or call/text 415 813-9500.

Vatican News

By Andrés Henríquez, ACI Prensa Staff, Jan 23, 2024

Pope Francis recalls 'the primary reason' for the new edition of YouCat

"Love is the primary reason for the existence of the Church," Pope Francis begins the letter accompanying the new edition of YouCat, the Catechism of the Catholic Church written for adolescents and young people.

The full text was published yesterday by the Italian newspaper La Stampa and is titled "The Password for Joy," which, according to the pope, is found precisely within the catechism.

The pope explains that this "love" of which he speaks is primarily the love that God the Father revealed to the world through Jesus.

However, he also points out that there is another love that comes from each person: the love that believers, in turn, profess for Jesus Christ.

"He is the center of our heart. How, in fact, can we not have feelings of true affection toward him who has made us partakers of a love, that of the Father, a love about which it is impossible to imagine a greater one?" the pope wrote in his letter. "The believer is, therefore, always in love with Jesus."

The pontiff also noted that it is the duty of "adults in faith" to make Jesus Christ known to those who have not yet had the opportunity. This encounter, the Holy Father said, must be proposed through the catechism, which reveals the love that Catholics feel for the Lord.

"This beautiful book that you now have in your hands has its origin precisely in such a love: the love for Jesus that we believers hold within us," he said.

Regarding the importance of the catechism for young people, Pope Francis recalled his predecessor, Pope Benedict XVI, who wrote in the preface to the first edition of YouCat: "This book is compelling because it speaks to us of our very destiny and therefore concerns each of us intimately. Because of this I ask you: Study the catechism with passion and perseverance!"

Pope Francis referenced these words and also recommended that young people frequently read the Gospel and pray daily to "transfer" the attitudes of Jesus from the mind to the heart.

"Here is the password for a truly lively and joyful life," the pope said, "to look at and judge what happens to us and the decisions we are called to make with the same eyes, with the same feelings, with the same attitude that embodied Jesus."
