THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH - formed.org

Review: The first two readings today focus on the relationships with our family. We are told that honoring and respecting our Father is of the highest importance and, if we are faithful to this call, we will be blessed by God. When we read the Gospel, the theme changes from focusing on our earthly family to being faithful to God, our Heavenly Father. If we ought to respect our earthly father and spend so much time and energy making our earthly home virtuous and holy, how much more ought we work to have a relationship with our Heavenly Father? How often do we take the time to talk with God, or honor him by serving him or making sacrifices for him? Let us remember the words of Sirach and St. Paul this week, not just in relation to how we treat our earthly fathers, but, most importantly, in how we relate to God the Father.

Featured study: The Holy Family

Reflection: St. Joseph is a fascinating and enigmatic figure in the infancy narratives of Matthew and Luke. Like an earlier biblical figure by the same name, he is the recipient of divine direction through dreams. In a set of three dreams, he is told, first, to take Mary as his wife, secondly, to take Mary and the Christ Child to Egypt, and, lastly, to return to Palestine with his family. Matthew connects each of these events with a fulfillment formula. The Scripture scholar, Fr. Raymond Brown, calls this a "nota bene technique" by which the evangelist highlights the event by connecting it with a prophetic utterance from the Old Testament

The first two connections are fairly clear, the cross-references in most Bibles connect the first dream of Joseph with Isaiah 7:14 and the second dream with a fulfillment of Hosea 11: 1. The last nota bene event is a little less clear, however. In regard to Joseph's decision to go to live in Nazareth, we read in the last line of our Gospel passage, "In this way, what was said through the prophets was fulfilled: 'He shall be called a Nazorean.'" In this case, the cross reference in the Catholic RSV cites Isaiah 11: 1, which reads, "There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots." Many commentators flatly confess ignorance in regard to the reference meant in Matthew 2:23, since neither the citation in Isaiah nor anything else in the Old Testament seem to have much to do with it. The citation in the RSV to Isaiah 11: 1, however, does seem to preserve an obscure connection. The word for "branch" in Isaiah 11: 1 is a rarely used Hebrew word netser. It does mean a green shoot or branch but also has the connotation, because of its linguistic root, of hiddenness or even the guarding of something hidden. It is suggested that this rare Hebrew word may be the root for the name Nazareth (which would mean "branch town"). It is interesting to note that Nazareth is an out of the way place where Joseph feels he can guard the hidden branch of the root of Jesse.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)

Prophecy of the City

In this Fourth Week of Advent, The prophet MICAH tells us about the CITY where Jesus was born. Micah said: "But you, O Bethlehem who are too little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me ONE who is to be ruler in Israel, whose coming forth is from old, from ancient days. And He shall stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his GOD. And they shall dwell secure, from now He shall be great to the ends of the earth. AND HE SHALL BE THEIR PEACE. We are now on vacation to celebrate Jesus' birthday in the Bethlehem of our homes, with our parents and our family as Jesus was with Joseph and Mary. MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL AND ABUNDANT BLESSINGS.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

On our nineteenth OCIA session the following Sunday 7th January we will discuss the sacraments of "self-giving" the sacraments of Holy Matrimony and Holy Orders.

5 things to know and share about St. Nicholas

(Story continues from last week)

Here is the last of five things to know and share about St. Nicholas:

5. Two Feast Days

Most people know that Nicholas' feast day is celebrated on Dec. 6, the day he died in the year 343, but for East Slavs, as well as the people of Bari, Italy, May 9 is also an important day to celebrate the saint.

That date is the anniversary of the day that St. Nicholas' relics were moved from Myra, in present-day Turkey, to Bari, not long after the Great Schism of Catholics and Orthodox in 1054 A.D.

Accounts differ over whether the transmission of the relics was theft or an attempt by Christian sailors to preserve the saint's remains from destruction by the Turks. But whatever the real reason, the relics can still be venerated today in the Basilica of St. Nicholas in Bari.

Pope Francis visited Bari, in Italy's southern region of Puglia, two times during his papacy. During both the 2018 and 2020 visits, he stopped in the basilica's crypt to venerate St. Nicholas' relics.

The pontifical basilica is an important place of ecumenism, since the Catholic Church welcomes many Eastern Catholics and Orthodox Christians to the pilgrimage site. In the crypt, where St. Nicholas is buried, there is also an altar for the celebration of Orthodox and Eastern Catholic liturgies.

For Christians who follow the Julian calendar, as the Eastern Orthodox do, St. Nicholas' principal feast day falls on Dec. 19. An Orthodox Divine Liturgy is usually celebrated at the Basilica of St. Nicholas that morning.

On Dec. 6, Catholics in Bari celebrate the beloved saint with Mass, concerts, and a procession of the saint's statue through the city's streets.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS: Owning and Atoning for the Sin of Clergy Abuse

Caring for God's People: Addressing the Wounds Inflicted by Clergy Abuse

Q: HOW DID THE DIOCESE GET IN THIS SITUATION?

We are in this situation because of grievous sins committed by individual priests and a small number of deacons and lay employees in our diocese. It is these evil acts that brought us to this place – not the victim-survivors of sexual abuse seeking to be heard.

Q: WHEN WILL THE DIOCESE FILE FOR BANKRUPTCY?

It is essential that our filing be prepared thoroughly and accurately. The court correctly insists on extensive information and preparation, and this takes time. At this time, we anticipate the filing will occur in March of 2024.
