13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." - Mk 5:36bc, 38-39

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

June 30, 2024, THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME -- Formed.org

Review: Healing is something we all seek at some point in our lives. Whether we have battled a life-threatening disease or suffered through a common cold, we have all sought physical healing. In this week’s Gospel, Jesus reveals his power to heal and bring forth new life. He also longs heal you of the things that are preventing you from growing in love for him—whether physical or spiritual. Have you ever approached him with the faith of Jairus or the hemorrhaging woman? How much do you trust his power to heal your body and soul?

Featured study: Unbreakable: A story of hope and healing in Haiti.

Reflection: Jairus’s journey of faith reveals the process of surrender and trust in God. He begins with a plea to Jesus. At this point, everyone seems to be asking Jesus, and Jesus is hemmed in by a crowd of people at the water’s edge. Jairus had to trust that Jesus would listen to him and would act on his words despite all the other people who demanded Jesus’s time.

As the crowd walks with Jairus and Jesus, Jairus is given an example of radical trust. The hemorrhaging woman has striven to be healed for years, to the point that she has “spent all that she had.” With such a condition, she is unable to participate fully in the liturgical life of the community. All she has left is hope in Jesus. This woman doesn’t even need to speak with Jesus—she believes that even touching his cloak will bring her the healing she so desperately desires. Jesus grants her both spiritual and physical healing because of her faith in him.

After witnessing the healing of the woman, Jairus is given a test: news of his daughter’s death. Though Jairus’s friends advise giving up, Jesus asks for trust. As with the chaos on the Sea of Galilee, Jesus ignores the storm of despair and sorrow. And he asks Jairus to do the same. Leaving the crowd, Jairus follows Jesus into a quiet encounter, allows him to take control in the heart of his home, and it is there that the great gift of healing comes.

Farewell Fr. Gio

Dear Fr Gio,

As you prepare to leave St John Vianney Parish, we want to express our deepest gratitude for all that you have done for our parish community. Your dedication, guidance, and inspiration have touched the lives of so many, and we are truly blessed to have had you as our shepherd.

Although we are saddened to see you go, we trust that God has a new and important mission in store for you. Wherever you may go next, please know that you will always have a special place in our prayers and in our hearts.

May God continue to bless you abundantly on your journey, and may you always feel the love and appreciation of our St John Vianney parish community. Farewell, Father, and thank you for everything.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

If you've been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic, we invite you to look deeper into the Catholic faith. Come meet some faithful Catholics who love the Lord and would consider it a privilege to get to know you. Our parish will soon begin a set of sessions to share with others the truths of the Catholic faith and the fellowship of our church family. We invite you to learn what Catholics believe in an open and welcoming environment. These sessions also are opportunities for you to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church. Sessions are always held on Sundays at 8:00 am.

This first session is 7 July 2024 in the Fireside Room. Feel free to come any Sunday; bring a friend.

Pope at Angelus: Be generous and confident sowers of the Gospel

In his reflections before leading the recitation of the noonday Angelus prayer on Sunday, Pope Francis explained how in today's Gospel Jesus describes the Kingdom of God through the image of the seed that is planted, sprouts and grows to maturity. The Lord invites us to have "confident expectation," the Pope said, as the whole process takes time and requires our trust and collaboration...As we read in the Gospel, the Kingdom of God is like this also, the Pope went on to say, "The Lord places in us the seeds of His word and His grace, good and abundant seeds, and then, without ever ceasing to accompany us, He waits patiently." The Lord cares for us always during the process of our own growth with the confidence of a Father, the Pope said, but the Lord gives us time so that these seeds may open, grow and develop to when they "bear the fruits of good works." The Pope said the Lord wishes that nothing be lost and "everything should reach full maturity" like the ears of grain described in the Gospel.

The Lord also teaches us to "sow the Gospel confidently wherever we are" the Pope said, and then to wait patiently as the seed grows and bears fruit in us and others. Confident patience is the key, he stressed, as we should not become discouraged when we do not seem to see immediate results. The "miracle" is often at work, beyond appearances, and in due course will bear abundant fruit, he assured.
