15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. - Mk 6:7, 13

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Evangelize Even Though You Don't Feel Prepared

"He summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts." (Mark 6: 7-8)

We are living in times that, in a way, can be compared to those of the first Christians. Not in vain did Pope John Paul II and some bishops describe this situation as "neopaganism"*, with the aggravating circumstance that now the message of Christ sounds like a matter of course.

Our situation, so similar to that, is characterized by the rejection or indifference with which the message of Jesus is received. It is common to hear complaints about what apostleship demands, about the shame that we go through when we have to defend the Church in the workplace or even in the family. Furthermore, because we are Christians, we seem to be guilty of all imaginable crimes, of all the sins that the rest of Christianity has committed throughout history (Inquisition, Crusades etc.), real, invented or exaggerated.

Because of these similarities, it is worth noting precisely what the early Christians did. They did not have it easier since they were even risking their lives. However, they had the courage to face a hostile environment and they won. Perhaps the differences between them and us are not in the difficulties of the environment, nor that they had more material means to evangelize, but that they had more faith, more love for Christ, more conviction that being a Christian was extremely fortunate. For this reason, although we should try to have better evangelizing techniques – such as communication media – what we must do, above all, is to have more spiritual means and prayer, and become better witnesses to Christ.

*Neopaganism is defined as a modern religious movement which seeks to incorporate beliefs or ritual practices from traditions outside the main world religions, especially those of pre-Christian Europe and North America.

Resolution: Do not allow yourself to be overcome by environmental pressures as you are professing your faith. Be well-prepared by finding explanations for the doubts and objections you will face. Then, evangelize...

From the Pastor

Palabras Del Pastor

Saint Paul says that "since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us exercise them...to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ until we all attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the extent of the full stature of Christ ". Yes, the Holy Spirit enriches the Church, the Body of Christ, with His gifts to help us grow in holiness and unity, and to help us face the different challenges of the epochs of the history of humanity.

We live in a post-Christian epoch where Christ and the presence of His Church are pushed aside. But we Christians cannot stop spreading God's Kingdom, because – we know it – the modern man needs it in order to answer the essential questions of life that arise in his heart. In this sense, we the Franciscans of Mary want to contribute with the spreading of God's Kingdom by sharing the spirituality of Gratitude, and our first audience is you, the portion of Christ's flock that frequently attends the Sunday Mass.

With this purpose I want to post a weekly commentary on the Sunday Gospel that Fr. Santiago Martin our Founder and President of our Congregation has done. We call it "Word of Life". I hope that with these commentaries and weekly resolutions you may begin to know and live this wonderful charism given by the Holy Spirit and recognized as such by the Church.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in You.

Fr. Antonio, FM
Pastor

Quotes: Romans 12: 6. Ephesians 4:12-13.

San Pablo nos recuerda que "teniendo dones diferentes, según la gracia que se nos ha dado, deben ejercerse...para el perfeccionamiento de los santos, en función de su ministerio, y para la edificación del cuerpo de Cristo; hasta que lleguemos todos a la unidad en la fe y en el conocimiento del Hijo de Dios, al Hombre perfecto, a la medida de Cristo en su plenitud". Sí, el Espíritu Santo enriquece a la Iglesia, el Cuerpo de Cristo, con sus dones para ayudarnos a crecer en santidad y unidad, y para ayudarnos a afrontar los distintos desafíos de las épocas de la historia de la humanidad.

Vivimos en una época post-cristiana en la que Cristo y la presencia de su Iglesia son dejados de lado. Pero los cristianos no podemos dejar de difundir el Reino de Dios, porque -lo sabemos- el hombre moderno lo necesita para responder a las preguntas esenciales de la vida que surgen en su corazón. En este sentido, los Franciscanos de María queremos contribuir con la difusión del Reino de Dios esparciendo la espiritualidad del agradecimiento, y nuestro primer destinatario son ustedes, la porción del rebaño de Cristo que asiste con frecuencia a la Misa dominical.

Con este propósito quiero incluir un comentario semanal sobre el Evangelio del Domingo que ha hecho el P. Santiago Martín, Fundador y Presidente de nuestra Congregación. Lo llamamos "Palabra de Vida". Espero que con estos comentarios y propósitos semanales puedan empezar a conocer y vivir este maravilloso carisma dado por el Espíritu Santo y reconocido como tal por la Iglesia.

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en ti confío.

P. Antonio, FM
Párroco

St. John Vianney Catholic School
(916) 363-4610

St. John Vianney Catholic School graduates strong student leaders who are ready to tackle the rigor of college preparatory high school coursework and extracurricular student life. All of our students are provided opportunities to practice and grow their leadership skills. This happens through our Christian Service and Buddy Programs. Some students further develop their leadership skills by participating on academic and/or athletic teams, or by serving others, and others still by participating on our Student Council. Schedule a personalized school tour with our principal, Amy Hale, to learn how St. John Vianney Catholic School can help prepare your child for future success today.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD AT ST. JOHN VIANNEY

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, a religious program that uses the Maria Montessori approach to help children formed a closer and lasting relationship with God, and with Jesus, the only Son of God. Children at a very young age listen to the Word of God and learn about the love without measure that Jesus as the Good Shepherd has for each of them. Registration is open for children between the ages of 3 yrs and 6yrs. Give us a call to request an interview appointment for your child. Interview appointments are scheduled on Thursdays between 3:00pm to 5:30pm in July and the first weeks of August. The Catechesis sessions are held on Thursdays from 3:30pm to 5:30pm from September to June. The first session will be on Thursday September 7, 2024. Do not wait to give us a call at (415) 430-52175 or e-mail us at CGS@sjvparish.com.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

“Coequal, Coeternal, Consubstantial” the Holy Trinity is the central doctrine concerning the nature of God in our Catholic Church.

We will be discussing the Holy Trinity in our fourth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 21st of July 2024.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Pope at Angelus: The Lord entrusted his Kingdom to flawed St Peter

During his Angelus address for the Solemnity of the Saints Peter and Paul, Pope Francis recalls how the Lord entrusted His Kingdom to St. Peter, who despite various falls, was able to lead the faithful toward Christ by cultivating the Lord's holy example. "Peter received the keys of the Kingdom not because he was perfect, but because he was humble and honest and the Father had given him a forthright faith." ... "That is why," the Pope pointed out, "we often see St Peter depicted with two large keys in his hand, as in the statue here in this square," as he reminded that "those keys represent the ministry of authority that Jesus entrusted to him to serve the whole Church."

While remembering St. Peter's flaws, the Holy Father reassured that the Apostle, by relying on God's mercy, was able to support and strengthen his brothers and sisters.

...Therefore, the mission that Jesus entrusts to Peter, he observed, "is not to bar the doors of the house, allowing access only to a few selected guests," but "to help everyone find their way in, in faithfulness to Jesus' Gospel."

Peter, the Pope recalled, would do this throughout his life, faithfully, until his martyrdom, "after having been the first to experience, for himself, not without fatigue and with many falls, the joy and the freedom that come from meeting the Lord."
