16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. - Mk 6:34

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Ora et Labora

"The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, 'Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.' People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat." (Mark 6: 30-31)

Jesus, by His personal example, by His words and by what He commissioned His apostles to do, is giving us a message full of balance and human maturity. This message tells us that work is essential and urgent, but that it is impossible if you are not strong and decisive. It is essential to find time to be with Christ, who is the source of all grace, of all strength and of all generosity.

The world awaits to hear our proclamation of the Gospel, to receive our testimony, to raise up the fallen, to clothe the naked, to comfort the sad and to build peace. But, how are we going to be able to do all these difficult and generally exhausting tasks if we are dry inside? That is why the Lord wanted us to nourish ourselves with Him, who is our true strength and our true food. He also wanted us not to get "fat," that is, He wants us to convert the energies that we receive from Him into work.

If you tend to be an extremist – whether it is for work or for prayer – remember that the true Catholic path is balance, maturity and moderation. Or, to put it another way, the way of Christ is love, the commandment the Lord left us is love. You do not only love when you pray or only when you work. So, pray and work. Love always, both when you pray and when you work. Pray out of love and work out of love.

Resolution: Find time to pray daily and, if possible, to go to Mass. Do not shy away from an act of charity whenever it is within your capability.

From the Pastor

Palabras Del Pastor

Knowing Your Priests' Lifestyle

I want to take the opportunity this time to share with you a little bit better who we are and what we do. As you already know, we, Fr. Brandon and I, are religious Priests members of the Franciscans of Mary. Religious life is founded upon three essential pillars: The Taking of Vows, Life in Community and a common Rule. The Rule determines -among other things- how Prayer Life and Life in Community will be accomplished, and it is the Superior who is the safeguard to make both Prayer and Fraternal Life possible, in addition to recreation, rest, balanced diet, etc.

Community life requires a certain privacy, just as a normal family requires a certain intimacy so that parents and children can devote time to each other. For this reason, and without being disinterested in you, I would like you to understand the reason for our schedule and lifestyle. Since we have arrived, the place where we will develop our fraternal life as religious will be the rectory. The rectory is now our home and that is why we have spent so much time cleaning, reorganizing, redecorating and doing some repairs. And this is not only for us, but for other priests who will be working here in the future - hopefully after many years - so that they can find a welcoming home where they can rest.

Prayer Life is our primary duty as the day begins. Every religious community must have a chapel where they may encounter, through silence and solitude, the One whom they have devoted their lives to. In this sense, the religious life demands a certain cloister so that the community may draw itself from the distractions of the world. This is why one of my most important and immediate goals is to renovate one of the rooms of the rectory to make it the chapel of our Religious Community.

Finally, I would like to share with you, in general, what our lifestyle looks like. This is an overview of our daily schedule, but it does not include the schedule of daily Mass, confessions, administrative work and other pastoral commitments. I might modify it on certain occasions depending on special or unforeseen circumstances.

6:45am-7:30am Personal and Communal Prayer. (Please, do not disturb either Priest, except for true emergencies.)

8:00am-12:30pm Work.

1:00pm-3:30pm Dinner, Rest, House Chores. (Please, do not disturb either Priest, except for true emergencies.)

3:30pm-6:30pm Work.

7:30pm Vespers, Light Meal, and Life in Community. (Please, do not disturb either Priest, except for true emergencies.)

Conozca el estilo de vida de sus sacerdotes

Quiero aprovechar esta oportunidad para compartir con ustedes un poco mejor quiénes somos y qué hacemos. Como ustedes ya saben, nosotros, el P. Brandon y yo, somos sacerdotes religiosos miembros de los Franciscanos de María. La vida religiosa se basa en tres pilares esenciales: La profesión de votos, la vida en comunidad y una regla en común. La regla determina -entre otras cosas- cómo se llevará a cabo la vida de oración y la vida en comunidad, y es el Superior quien es el custodio para hacer posible tanto la vida de oración como la vida fraterna, además del esparcimiento, el descanso, la alimentación equilibrada, etc.

La vida en comunidad exige cierta privacidad, así como una familia normal requiere cierta intimidad para que los padres e hijos puedan dedicarse tiempo el uno al otro. Por esto, y sin que esto signifique un desinterés por ustedes, quisiera que entendiesen el porqué de nuestro horario y estilo de vida. Desde que hemos llegado, el lugar donde se desarrollará nuestra vida fraterna como religiosos será la rectoría. La rectoría es ahora nuestro hogar y por eso hemos dedicado tanto tiempo en limpiar, reorganizar, redecorar y en hacer algunas reparaciones. Y esto no es sólo para nosotros, sino para otros sacerdotes que vayan a trabajar aquí en un futuro -esperemos que después de muchos años- para que puedan encontrar un hogar acogedor donde descansar.

La vida de oración es nuestro primer deber al comenzar el día. Toda comunidad religiosa debe tener una capilla donde pueda encontrarse, a través del silencio y la soledad, con Aquel a quien ha consagrado su vida. En este sentido, la vida religiosa exige una cierta clausura para que la comunidad pueda apartarse de las distracciones del mundo. Por eso, uno de mis objetivos más importantes e inmediatos es renovar una de las habitaciones de la rectoría para convertirla en la capilla de nuestra comunidad religiosa.

Por último, me gustaría compartir con ustedes, en líneas generales, un resumen de nuestro diario vivir, que no incluye el horario de misa diaria, confesiones, trabajo administrativo y otros compromisos pastorales. Es posible que lo modifique en algunas ocasiones en función de las circunstancias.

6:45am-7:30am Oración personal y comunitaria. (Por favor, no interrumpa el horario de los sacerdotes, excepto para emergencias.)

8:00am-12:30pm Trabajo.

1:00pm-3:30pm Cena, descanso, tareas domésticas. (Por favor, no interrumpa el horario de los sacerdotes, excepto para emergencias.)

3:30pm-6:30pm Trabajo.

7:30pm Vísperas, comida ligera y vida comunitaria. (Por favor, no interrumpa el horario de los sacerdotes, excepto para emergencias.)

St. John Vianney Catholic School graduates strong student leaders who are ready to tackle the rigor of college preparatory high school coursework and extracurricular student life. All of our students are provided opportunities to practice and grow their leadership skills. This happens through our Christian Service and Buddy Programs. Some students further develop their leadership skills by participating on academic and/or athletic teams, or by serving others, and others still by participating on our Student Council. # Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD AT ST. JOHN VIANNEY

Saint John Vianney Parish continues to offer the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd to our youngest children, ages 3 to 6 years. This catechesis program helps children grow in our faith and to learn about Jesus as the Good Shepherd. Children learn how to develop a closer and lasting relationship with God. Today, we have a table outside with information about The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program. After mass, please stop the CGS table to find out what CGS is all about and what it has to offer you and your children. "Let the children come to Me," said Jesus our Good Shepherd. So parents, bring your little one to Jesus and let them meet our Lord and God.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"I am trying here to prevent anyone saying the really foolish thing that people often say about Him [that is, Christ]: 'I'm ready to accept Jesus as a great moral teacher, but I don't accept His claim to be God.' That is the one thing we must not say. A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic—on a level with the man who says he is a poached egg—or else he would be the Devil of Hell. You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God: or else a madman or something worse.... You can shut Him up for a fool, you can spit at Him and kill Him as a demon; or you can fall at His feet and call Him Lord and God. But let us not come up with any patronizing nonsense about His being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us. He did not intend to."

— Lewis' Trilemma — C.S. Lewis in Mere Christianity

We will be discussing "Who is Jesus" in our fifth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 28th of July 2024.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.
