17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." - Jn 6:12

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Out of Self-Interest or Out of Love?

"When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, 'This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world.' Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone." (John 6: 14-15)

This week's Gospel shows us a fleeing Christ. He does not flee from the cross but from the adulation. And He does it, above all, because He knows that they are not sincere but only self-interested. They applaud Him because they have eaten for free until they are satisfied. They do not applaud His message, but His miracles. And the Lord leaves.

Jesus does not mind that we ask for things, quite the opposite. His love for us is so great that His greatest joy is precisely loving and helping us. But, because He truly loves us, He is not at peace until His help produces the desired fruits in us. The most important of these fruits, the one that is linked to the very concept of salvation, is that of freeing ourselves from selfishness and putting us on the path of generosity, gratitude and love. When we learn to love and to be grateful, then salvation is working within us. So, if we are willing to ask for help, we must also learn to give help. If we turn to Jesus when we have problems, we should also turn to Him in thanksgiving or simply to just keep Him company. Let us not seek Jesus only for what we can get from Him, but for He Himself. So, let's not go to the Lord only to ask but also to give and thank Him, a thank you that goes beyond courtesy and polite words because sometimes these words are an excuse for us to have a clear conscience. So, if we turn to Him in thanksgiving, He will not flee from us but will admit us into His company and fill us with His gifts.

Resolution: Whenever you need something, ask yourself if you have thanked God for everything He has already given you. Do the same with your neighbors, too. Go to God but not only just to ask.

From the Pastor

Palabras Del Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

We are about to celebrate the Feast of our Patron, Saint John Vianney. It is truly a great blessing to have him as our protector, intercessor and model.

One of the things of his life that impresses me is the time that he spent preparing his homilies. They say that he prepared most of them in the church sacristy, spending hours in prayer and writing them. He liked that place because from there he was able to see the Tabernacle, where the Living Christ dwells among us. The Eucharistic Jesus was the source of his love, wisdom, and zeal to save souls.

More than 60,000 Catholics went to the National Eucharistic Congress held in Indianapolis last weekend to seal a three-year process of Eucharistic Renewal in the Catholic Church across the US. But that is not the end. Now, we are all sent into the world to ignite it with the flames of the divine Love that gush forth from the Tabernacles.

It is precisely the love for the Eucharist that I would like you to imitate from our Patron Saint, because it is only through this love that we are going to bear much fruit: we will grow in holiness, in enthusiasm for our Catholic Faith, in unity and love for one another, and we will be able to bring not only material comfort to the poor, but most importantly, the Living Bread that brings Eternal Life to those who feed upon his Word, Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity.

My dear parishioners, the world needs the love, the wisdom and the salvation that comes from the Eucharist. Therefore, let us become contemplative of the Eucharist, like St. John Vianney, spending much time before the Living Love that abides in our Tabernacles.

This is my vision for our Parish: that we all become lovers of the Eucharist and, as a result, living tabernacles of thanksgiving.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in you.

Fr. Antonio, FM
Pastor

Mis Queridos Feligreses,

Estamos a punto de celebrar la fiesta de nuestro patrono, San Juan María Vianney. Es realmente una gran bendición tenerlo como protector, intercesor y modelo nuestro.

Una de las cosas de su vida que más me impresiona es el tiempo que dedicaba a preparar sus homilías. Dicen que la mayoría las preparó en la sacristía de la iglesia, pasando horas en oración y escribiéndolas. Le gustaba ese lugar porque desde allí podía ver el Sagrario, donde el Cristo Vivo habita entre nosotros. Jesús Eucaristía era la fuente de su amor, sabiduría y su celo por salvar almas.

Más de 60.000 católicos acudieron al Congreso Eucarístico Nacional celebrado en Indianápolis el pasado fin de semana para finalizar un proceso de tres años de Renovación Eucarística en la Iglesia católica a lo largo y ancho de los Estados Unidos. Pero esto no es el final. Ahora todos somos enviados al mundo para encenderlo con las llamas del Amor divino que brotan de los Sagrarios de todas las iglesias.

Es precisamente este amor a la Eucaristía lo que me gustaría que imitasen de nuestro santo patrono, porque es sólo a través de este amor a la Eucaristía que vamos a dar mucho fruto: creceremos en santidad, en entusiasmo por nuestra fe católica, en unidad y amor mutuo, y seremos capaces de llevar no sólo consuelo material a los pobres, sino lo más importante, el Pan Vivo que trae la Vida Eterna a los que se alimentan de su Palabra, de su Cuerpo y Sangre, alma y vida.

Mis queridos feligreses, el mundo necesita el amor, la sabiduría y la salvación que vienen de la Eucaristía. Por eso, hagámonos contemplativos de la Eucaristía, como San Juan Vianney, pasando mucho tiempo ante el Amor Vivo que habita en el Sagrario.

Esta es mi visión para nuestra Parroquia: que todos lleguemos a ser amantes de la Eucaristía, y, como consecuencia, tabernáculos vivientes de acción de gracias.

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, confío en ti.

Missionary Cooperative Appeal

This weekend, the 2nd Collection is for the Missionary Cooperative Appeal. The Missionary Cooperative Appeal is a program of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith which seeks to foster an ever-deeper spirit of universal mission, to inform Catholics of the life and the needs of the Catholic Church in the Missions, and to encourage prayer and financial help for those mission churches. VOCATION CROSS

Every first Saturday/Sunday of the month at each Mass, a family or individual is invited after the Mass to receive and host the Vocation Cross in their homes for a month, which is accompanied by a short prayer/novena. In taking the Cross, they commit themselves to pray every day the vocation prayer in thanksgiving for those who generously share in church ministry, pray for intercession for the gift of lay ministers, deacons, nuns and priests. Everyone is invited to participate in taking the Vocation Cross home. It is our hope that this experience will encourage each of us to take seriously our vocation as a member of the body of Christ, to encourage all of us to pray for the gift of vocations to priesthood and religious life. May our prayers help inspire young men and women to be attentive to the Holy Spirit and to step forward in faith with generous heart to wherever the spirit leads them.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD AT ST. JOHN VIANNEY

Jesus is knocking at your door, inviting you to open your heart and help.

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is seeking enthusiastic VOLUNTEERS, or SUPPORT ANGELS who would like to help our youngest children in their journey to meet Jesus, our Good Shepherd.

We need generous and committed adults who can dedicate one or two hours a week to help in the atrium. You can help setting up a beautiful environment for our children to meet our Lord or you can help with other small jobs in the atrium. Please give us a call at (415) 430-5275 or email us at CGS@sjvparish.com. We will be happy to hear from you.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

When you leave a man alone with his Bible and the Holy Ghost inspires him, he's going to be a Catholic one way or another, even though he knows nothing about the visible church. His kind of Christianity may not be socially desirable, but will be real in the sight of God.

Flannery O'Connor

We will be discussing "The Bible" in our seventh session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 4th of August 2024.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.
