20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me."
- Jn 6:56-57

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Receive Communion in Order to Live in Him

“... ‘Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you... Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.’” (John 6: 53; 56)

Christ offers Himself to us as the true food that replenishes our strength and invites us to “consume Him” and encourages us to make use of the food that He offers us: His own body and blood, His own life, Himself. That’s to say, Jesus gives us the gift of the Eucharist and asks us to receive Him in Holy Communion.

Not doing so, when we are prepared, is something that goes against our own interests. After this gift from the Lord, what remains obvious is His love. Christ loves us, and because He loves us, He wants to help and sustain us in our struggles, console us in our tribulations and accompany us in moments of pain and joy. Christ loves us and the Eucharist is one of the greatest proofs of His infinite love. Knowing this, we must ask ourselves, “Do we love Him? Do we reciprocate His love with all our might? Do we tell Him that He can depend on us the same as He tells us that we can depend on Him?”

The answer to love is love. So, let’s learn to love Christ with our whole heart, with every fiber of our being because that is how He loves us. Let’s live in Him by working and helping our neighbor, praying, receiving the Eucharist, and being in God’s grace through Confession. Let’s live in Him so He may enjoy living in us. Let’s live with Him, with His strength, so that we can respond with the love He has the right to expect from us. Moved by gratitude, let’s live for Him who has done so much for us. In that way, we will fulfill what we say at Mass, “Through Him, with Him, and in Him, O God, Almighty Father... all glory and honor is yours, forever and ever...”

Resolution: Receive Holy Communion as much as possible, but do so well prepared. And so, confess if you have serious sins or if you have not confessed for a long time.

From the Pastor

My dear parishioners,

Last week we saw the first of the four main principles of the Church’s social teaching: the dignity of the human life. This time we will see the second which is: The Common Good.

“The Common Good is “the sum total of social conditions which allow people, either as groups or as individuals, to reach their fulfillment more fully and more easily.” Human dignity is respected and the common good is fostered only if human rights are protected and basic responsibilities are met. Every human being has a right to life, a right to religious freedom, and a right to have access to those things required for human decency.”

“...In short, we should seek “to build that kind of society where it is easier for people to be good.”

“... We must “place at the center of all political, social and economic activity the human person, who enjoys the highest dignity, and respect for the common good.”” Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti (On Fraternity and Social Friendship), nos. 18 and 232.

“Marriage and the family are the central institutions of social life – the primary school of virtue, where we first experience common rather than merely individual goods – and so these institutions should be supported and strengthened.”

“... We must hear “both the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor” and respond to climate change with actions to better protect creation....”

“We recognize and protect the right to religious liberty, our first and most cherished freedom. The protection of conscience and religious liberty is an indispensable element of the common good – a fundamental human right that knows no geographical boundaries.”

“Laws and policies must prioritize those who struggle to make ends meet and must preserve the social safety net and promote decent jobs, affordable housing, and childcare.”

“To desire the common good and strive towards it is a requirement of justice and charity.” Pope Benedict XVI writes in Caritas in Veritate (Charity in Truth)

Palabras Del Pastor

Mis queridos feligreses,

La semana pasada vimos el primero de los cuatro principios fundamentales de la doctrina social de la Iglesia: la dignidad de la vida humana. Esta vez veremos el segundo, que es: el bien común.

El Bien común es “el conjunto de aquellas condiciones de la vida social que permiten a los grupos y a cada uno de sus miembros conseguir más plena y fácilmente su propia perfección”. La dignidad humana es respetada y el bien común promovido sólo si se protegen los derechos humanos y se cumplen las responsabilidades básicas. Cada ser humano tiene el derecho a la vida, el derecho a la libertad religiosa, y el derecho a tener acceso a aquellas cosas que requiere la decencia humana.”

“En resumen, deberíamos buscar “construir ese tipo de sociedad en la que sea más fácil que la gente sea buena”.

Debemos “colocar en el centro de toda acción política, social y económica, a la persona humana, su altísima dignidad, y el respeto por el bien común”. Papa Francisco, Fratelli Tutti (Sobre la fraternidad y la amistad social), nn. 18 y 232.

“El matrimonio y la familia son las instituciones centrales de la vida social –la escuela primaria de la virtud, donde experimentamos por primera vez bienes comunes y no meramente individuales– y por eso estas instituciones deben ser apoyadas y fortalecidas.”

“Debemos escuchar “tanto el clamor de la tierra como el clamor de los pobres” y responder al cambio climático...”

“Reconocemos y protegemos el derecho a la libertad religiosa, nuestra primera y más preciada libertad. La protección de la conciencia y la libertad religiosa es un elemento indispensable del bien común: un derecho humano fundamental que no conoce fronteras geográficas.”

“... Las leyes y políticas deben priorizar a quienes luchan por pagar sus gastos y deben preservar la red de seguridad social y promover empleos decentes, viviendas asequibles y cuidado infantil.”

“El Papa Benedicto XVI escribe en Caritas in veritate (La caridad en la verdad): “Desear el bien común y esforzarse por él es exigencia de justicia y caridad”.

ATRIUM DAYS ARE GETTING CLOSER!

Yes! A few more weeks and our vacation will be over. After weeks of summer enjoyment with our families, we will be back to our peaceful routine. Children will be back in school to learn more about the world and many other things. In the Atrium, we will be back to our peaceful and quiet routine of visiting with Jesus and increasing our love for Him. We missed the time with our Good Shepherd! We want to be back in the sheepfold to hear Him calling our names. We want to thank Him for His great love for us. We want to come back and sing songs to Him. Jesus, here I come, to praise you and to love you more.

Note: We still have openings, if you have children ages 3 to 6, e-mail us to request an appointment at CGS@sjvparish.com or a text to: Rosamaria Alvarez (415) 430-5275.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"No matter how you say it, grace can transform an ordinary meal into a celebration—of family, love, and gratitude."

"The Rosary is my favorite prayer. A marvelous prayer! Marvelous in its simplicity and its depth. In the prayer we repeat many times the words that the Virgin Mary heard from the Archangel, and from her kinswoman Elizabeth."

- St. Pope John Paul the Great

"You say grace before meals. All right. But I say grace before the concert and the opera, and grace before the play and pantomime, and grace before I open a book, and grace before sketching, painting, swimming, fencing, boxing, walking, playing, dancing and grace before I dip the pen in the ink."

- GK Chesterton

We will be discussing Catholic Prayers and Practices in our ninth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 25th of August 2024.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Highlights

Our Church, St. John Vianney, requests donations of good Catholic books for the enlarged Sr. Bede room Chapel/Library. It has room for English, Spanish, African, Philippine/Pacific rim, East Indies etc. to include our entire SJV family. We especially need Roman Catholic Bibles, in good condition. Thank You.

The Security Fencing Project is funded in part with federal funding from the Department of Homeland Security .

English Ministry Leaders Meeting

Father Antonio is convening a meeting with all English ministry leaders on Thursday, August 29, at 6:30pm in the Fireside Room to meet and hear from you. Your punctuality and attendance would be very appreciated.

Thank you all for bringing the beautiful fresh flowers to help decorate the SJV statue niches and Mary's garden. NEWS FLASH! Please, remove your week old flowers and vases to take home. As in the past, the vases then become property of SJV "plant and festival" sales. Call Connie L. (916-635-3865) with questions. Thank you
