33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

"But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." - Mk 13:30-32

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time: Obey the Only Word that Gives Life

Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. (Mark 13: 31)

The words of Christ, authentic presence of Christ himself, will never be spoken in vain. Not only are they not out of date, but if they are listened to with the ears of the soul, they never cease to bear fruit in the heart of man.

But for that to be heard, you have to know how to silence other voices. Sometimes, these voices are within and come from our selfishness and instincts. At other times, the voices are outside of us striving to dislodge God from the first place in our heart in order to occupy it themselves along with those who subscribe to their preaching. It is therefore advisable to examine our conscience to discover if it is the words of Christ, his message transmitted through the Church, that guides our lives or if it is that of others - celebrities, politicians, journalists - who have taken his place. Although these "words of men" are presented to our intelligence and to our interests in a seductive, attractive way, we must not forget that the same has happened on other occasions in the past, with tragic consequences for the people and the nations that heeded them, like Nazism or Marxism. Only the words of Christ, the "word of God" produces life. Only they tell us the truth, even that part of the truth that stings us, that exposes our sins before our eyes and which we would prefer remain hidden.

Therefore, let's make an effort to accept the word of the Lord, in its entirety, without allowing anyone to censure it either within our hearts or outside of ourselves. And then let's try, as seriously as possible, to put it into practice.

Resolution: Analyze your principles, your values, your moral norms, to see if they are in accord with the teachings of Christ or with what people say and the world thinks.

From the Pastor

Palabras Del Pastor

My dear parishioners,

There is a passage in the Gospel where we can clearly see how gratitude and salvation go together. It's the story of Christ and the 10 lepers in Luke 17:11-19.

As he continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met [him]. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voice, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!"

It was the culmination of a yearned hope for those lepers when they saw the Lord passing by. We can imagine a scene filled with convoluted emotional and physical expressions: the joy they felt, their eyes teared up, their hearts beating fast, or the nerves pressing on the neck of one of them with a lump in his throat as he cried out "I wanna see my family again! Please, help!", or maybe a woman crawling on the floor and yelling "Lord, I don't wanna die...! My children...". It should have been a melodramatic moment.

It is apparent that they believed in the power of the Lord Jesus. They were convinced that He was the one to bring them new life, a fresh start. They could now go back home to a "normal life". They had faith. They saw in Jesus the Messiah so longed for. The promised restoration of Israel was in the air and the Son of Mary was the only shining star in the night.

Faith in Jesus is the seed for the virtue of gratitude, a seed -we will see it later- that sometimes do not flourish. We cannot thank God for anything if we do not believe in Him first. Faith is the lantern of our eyes that helps us see beyond the material world and the passing of time and events. Without faith we cannot realize the presence of His loving hand in every event of our lives.

Next bulletin we will continue to unfold the important teachings in this Gospel passage.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in you.
Fr. Antonio Gutierrez, FM.
Pastor

Mis queridos feligreses,

Hay un pasaje del Evangelio en el que podemos ver claramente cómo la gratitud y la salvación van unidas. Es la historia de Cristo y los 10 leprosos en Lucas 17:11-19.

Una vez, yendo camino de Jerusalén, pasaba entre Samaría y Galilea. Cuando iba a entrar en una ciudad, vinieron a su encuentro diez hombres leprosos, que se pararon a lo lejos y a gritos le decían: «Jesús, maestro, ten compasión de nosotros».

Fue la culminación de una anhelada esperanza para aquellos leprosos cuando vieron pasar al Señor. Podemos imaginarnos una escena con diferentes y enrevesadas expresiones emocionales y físicas: la alegría que sintieron, los ojos llorosos, el corazón latiendo rápido, o los nervios oprimiendo el cuello de uno de ellos con un nudo en la garganta mientras gritaba «¡Quiero volver a ver a mi familia! Por favor, ¡ayuda!», o tal vez una mujer arrastrándose por el suelo y gritando «¡Señor, no quiero morir...! Mis hijos... mis hijos...». Debió de ser un momento melodramático.

Es evidente que creían en el poder del Señor Jesús. Estaban convencidos de que era Él quien les podía traer una nueva vida, un nuevo comienzo. Ahora podrían volver a casa, a una «vida normal». Tenían fe. Veían en Jesús al Mesías tan anhelado. La prometida restauración de Israel se respiraba en el aire y el Hijo de María era la única estrella que brillaba en la noche.

La fe en Jesús es la semilla de la virtud del agradecimiento, una semilla -lo veremos más adelante- que a veces no florece. No podemos agradecer nada a Dios si antes no creemos en Él. La fe es la linterna de nuestros ojos que nos ayuda a ver más allá del mundo material, del paso del tiempo y los acontecimientos. Sin fe no podemos darnos cuenta de la presencia de Su mano amorosa en cada acontecimiento de nuestras vidas.

En el próximo boletín seguiremos desgranando las importantes enseñanzas que encierra este pasaje del Evangelio.

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en vos confío.
P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"The good God knows everything, even before you confess it to him, he already knows that you will sin again and, nevertheless, he forgives you. How great is the love of our God that leads him even to voluntarily forget the future in order to forgive us!"

—St. John Vianney

This week we will be discussing The Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation & Anointing of the Sick in our twentieth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 24th of November 2024.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward fuller communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

THE PREPARATION OF THE CRUETS

Before the Holy Mass, someone prepares the two cruets used in the celebration of Mass. The cruets are two small glass carafes, one containing wine and the other containing water, that a priest uses to prepare the chalice for consecration.

In the atrium we learn how to prepare the cruets: one with wine and the other one with water up to the marked line. When done filling the cruets, the water and the wine are emptied into a special crock and both cruets are cleaned with water since we are not having Mass (we are just learning how to prepare them). Next time you are in Mass watch carefully how the priest uses the cruets to prepare the chalice. Mass is so beautiful, so makes sure to pay close attention to it.

SJVCS is hosting our annual Black & White Charity Ball on Saturday, February 22, 2025. This is our largest fundraising event of the year with a goal to raise $68,700. You are invited to partner with our school in supporting students as an event sponsor.
