THE HOLY FAMILY

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man. - Lk 2:51-52

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

The Holy Family: Love as You Would Like to be Loved

“And his mother said to him, ‘Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety.’ And he said to them, ‘Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father’s house?’ But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them.” (Lk 2:48-51)

The story about the loss of the Child Jesus in the Temple presents us with a generational conflict at the heart of the Holy Family, a problem that still exists in our own families. But, above all, it presents the solution. After the problem is presented—the Child Jesus becomes separated from His parents without their knowing it and they become frantic—the Gospel tells us what to do. First, the calm discussion: The Virgin Mary doesn’t appear irritated but rather calm and willing to have a dialogue. Before judging, she wants to hear an explanation for such a strange behavior in someone as docile as Jesus. He gives them an answer that doesn’t totally convince them. The end result is that harmony is reestablished and the Child Jesus reunites with His parents and submits to their authority.

So, what must we do when there are problems at home? First: we must dialogue and give the others the opportunity to provide an explanation by listening to their reasons, by putting ourselves in their shoes, and by understanding the circumstances of their age or level of fatigue. Second: we must set limits for what is permitted based on genuine freedom, without which the family would become a hellhole and not a home, and would sever the unity and make the family a mere hostel. Third: we must administer consequences without fear and establish our authority without falling into authoritarianism, knowing that this is the service we must render. It is extremely bad for a household if there is no order or if there is only tyranny in the home. Frequently today, education is so permissive that, when parents finally want to find a remedy, they discover it is already too late.

Resolution: Listen to others and try to understand them by putting yourself in their shoes. Provide your own reasons as well. Respect the others’ legitimate rights.

Palabras Del Pastor

My dear parishioners,

As the 2024 civil year comes to an end, I encourage you to make another stop, where I normally do three things: an examination of conscience, a spontaneous prayer of thanksgiving and an act of abandonment to the Divine Providence. During my examination of conscience, I realize the things that I could have done better during this year, ask God for forgiveness and take a firmer resolve not to repeat the same mistakes. Then, I go through the beautiful and good events which our Heavenly Father has blessed me with. There are always so many... so many that I cannot even count them. It is and it has always been the most beautiful moment of my prayer, where I re-experience God’s love and care for me, where I come to realize how much He has loved me, despite my sins and shortcomings. He shows me one more time that His love endures forever, that He is always faithful to His covenant of love. And this experience of love rejuvenates me with new strength to keep going and work for Him, our Life and Love. Finally, I put my life into His hands, knowing that I will not be alone in my struggles, and that I will always count on Him to carry my daily cross with joy and love. I hope this helps you to kick off the year with more eagerness and hope.

As we celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I wish you more unity for your families this new year. On January 01, 2025, we will begin our journey towards the consecration to the Blessed Sacrament which I believe will help us achieve this goal, for the Eucharist is the sacrament of unity and love, and because the family that prays together, stays together. For 33 days you would gather as a family to read the daily meditation at your homes in preparation for the consecration to the Blessed Sacrament at the Masses on the weekend of February 01 and 02.

I ask the Good Lord to bless you and keep you safe for everlasting life.

Merry Christmas and Holy New Year!

Fr. Antonio Gutierrez, FM
Pastor

Mis queridos feligreses,

Al llegar al final de este año civil 2024, les animo a hacer otra parada, en la que normalmente hago tres cosas: un examen de conciencia, una oración espontánea de acción de gracias y un acto de abandono en la Divina Providencia. Durante mi examen de conciencia, reflexiono en las cosas que podría haber hecho mejor durante este año, pido perdón a Dios y tomo la firme resolución de no repetir los mismos errores. Luego, repaso los acontecimientos hermosos y buenos con los que nuestro Padre Celestial me ha bendecido. Siempre son tantos... tantos que ni siquiera puedo contarlos. Es y siempre ha sido el momento más hermoso de mi oración, donde vuelvo a experimentar el amor y el cuidado que Dios me tiene, donde me doy cuenta de cuánto me ha amado, a pesar de mis pecados y defectos. Él me muestra una vez más que su amor es eterno, que siempre es fiel a su alianza de amor. Y esta experiencia de amor me rejuvenece con nuevas fuerzas para seguir adelante y trabajar por Él, nuestra Vida y Amor. Finalmente, pongo mi vida en Sus manos, sabiendo que no estaré solo en mis luchas, y que siempre contaré con Él para llevar mi cruz de cada día con alegría y amor. Espero que esto les ayude a comenzar el año con más ganas y esperanza.

Al celebrar a la Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José, les deseo más unidad para sus familias en este nuevo año. El 1 de enero de 2025 comenzaremos nuestro camino hacia la consagración al Santísimo Sacramento, que creo que nos ayudará a conseguir este objetivo, porque la Eucaristía es el sacramento de la unidad y del amor, y porque la familia que reza unida permanece unida. Durante 33 días se reunirán en familia para leer la meditación diaria en sus casas como preparación a la consagración al Santísimo en las Misas del fin de semana del 01 y 02 de febrero.

Pido al Buen Dios que les bendiga y les guarde para la vida eterna.

Feliz Navidad y santo año nuevo!

P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM
Párroco

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

The OCIA catechists of St. John Vianney wish all of you a blessed Christmas and a propitious Jubilee Year!

We will not be holding OCIA sessions on neither the 22nd nor the 29th Sundays in December, returning on the Epiphany of our Lord, Sunday the 5th of January. We will then resume with a discussion of The People of God in our twenty-fifth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward fuller communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

AND THE WORD BECAME FLESH AND DWELT AMONG US!

Yes, 2,024 years ago, Jesus came to be with us! He came both as a human being and as God. He, the son of Mary and of The Holy Spirit. Let us rejoice and give thanks to God for sending His Son to be with us. The promise God made to the people and to the prophets was fulfilled on this day: The Nativity Day. God always does what he promises. Blessed be the Lord Jesus, Light of the World! Merry Christmas to all from the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd!
