1ST SUNDAY OF LENT

The devil said to him, "All this will be yours, if you worship me."
Jesus said to him in reply, "It is written:
You shall worship the Lord, your God,
and him alone shall you serve."
- Lk 4:6a, 7-8

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

1st Sunday of Lent: Do Not Fall into Temptation

“Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil.” (Lk 4:1-2).

This The world and the devil are lavish in suggesting temptations that separate us from the path of Christ, from the path of love. Temptations are always attractive because, otherwise, it would be very easy and even natural to reject them.

There are many temptations, and maybe each of us has our own particular ones just as we have our own particular virtues. Frequently, there are defects that go together with the virtues; nervous people tend to be very active and calm people tend to be lazy; people who are quick tempered tend to have a good heart and not hold on to grudges; while those who control their temper sometimes do harm later. Therefore, we should not be alarmed by suffering temptations, but rather fight so as not to fall into them. Each of us should take advantage of the positive side of our way of being. Let us not forget that old maxim which wisely expresses a basic principal of catholic morals: “It is one thing is to feel and another to consent,” which does not mean that we have a free hand to play with fire.

But there is a temptation which is frequent today: that of working to the point of exhaustion without replenishing ourselves to help us recover the strength that we expended by working. There are a lot of people who give so much of themselves and then one day discover that they are empty. To give of one’s self is a way to fulfill one’s self, of course, but that only occurs when the giving is done out of love for God. Not falling into the temptation of activism is the goal for this week.

Resolution: Pray more in order to work better. In Christ, seek the help you need in order to love as He has taught, in order to reject temptations.

From the Pastor’s Desk

Del Escritorio del Párroco

My dear parishioners,

I believe every time we begin Lent, we all have the desire to meet the resolutions we have listed, with the hope that finally this time we will complete them. I hope we never lose this enthusiasm each year, even if we haven’t fulfilled all our goals in the end.

The Lord has blessed us with another Lenten Season, which means another chance for us to start over again in our relationship with Him, to refuel our love and gratitude to Him, to reengage against any antilove work that makes us strangers from Him and our neighbor.

We begin this Lent with enthusiasm, and yet we feel fearful. We might ask ourselves: “Will I really achieve my goals this time?”; “Will I be able to persevere till the end?”; “What if I fail over and over again?”. The answer is simple: Even if you fail, stand up, take up your cross and keep pushing! Every time you do so, you frustrate the Devil’s plans, and God wins in you, again... Because every time we repent, we do an act of humility that crushes our own ego. And that’s already a great victory.

During this Lent let us keep our eyes fixed in the Crucified who did not step down in His mission even when knowing that what He was going to suffer would be a waste in many people, for they would resist to convert. If the Lord Jesus did not allow His many losses in the salvation of men stop Him to be crucified to gain as many souls as He could, we shouldn’t desist in fighting for our salvation even when knowing we might have some failures. “The one who perseveres to the end will be saved” (Mt 24:13)

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in You.
Fr. Antonio Gutierrez, FM.
Pastor.

Mis queridos feligreses,

El Señor nos ha bendecido con otra Cuaresma, es decir, con otra oportunidad para volver a empezar en nuestra relación con Él, para reavivar nuestro amor y agradecimiento hacia Él, para volver a luchar contra toda obra de desamor que nos aleje de Él y del prójimo.

Comenzamos esta Cuaresma con entusiasmo y, sin embargo, sentimos temor. Nos preguntamos: «¿Lograré realmente conseguir mis objetivos esta vez?»; “¿Seré capaz de perseverar hasta el final?»; “¿Y si fracaso una y otra vez?”. La respuesta es sencilla: Aunque fracasas, ¡levántate, toma tu cruz y sigue adelante! Cada vez que lo haces frustras los planes del Diablo y Dios sale victorioso en ti, una vez más... Porque cada vez que nos arrepentimos, hacemos un acto de humildad que aplasta nuestro ego. Y eso es ya una gran victoria.

En esta Cuaresma mantengamos la mirada fija en el Crucificado, en aquél que no desistió en su misión, aun sabiendo que todo lo que iba a sufrir iba a ser un desperdicio en muchos, porque éstos se resistirían a convertirse. Si el Señor Jesús no permitió que sus muchas pérdidas en la salvación de los hombres le impidieran ser crucificado para ganar tantas almas como pudiera, nosotros no debemos desistir en luchar por nuestra salvación, aun sabiendo que podemos tener algunos fracasos. Cristo está luchando por ti y contigo siempre. “El que persevere hasta el final se salvará” (Mt. 24, 13)

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en Ti confío.
P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM.
Párroco.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

“Unless there is a Good Friday in your life, there can be no Easter Sunday.” Ven. Fulton Sheen
 This week we will be discussing the Living Lent in our thirty-fourth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 9th of March 2025.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward fuller communion with the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

40 DAYS OF PREPARATION & FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

This past Thursday, we celebrated Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. Ashes are used to remind us of our earthly condition. We had a procession to change the altar cloth from Green to Purple for preparation! Yes, reparation for the celebration of our Lord's Passion. Lent is a little different than Advent. Advent is a joyful preparation for Jesus' birthdate. Lent on the other hand, is 40 days of penitential preparation for the commemoration of Jesus' public life, baptism, entrance into Jerusalem, passion, death and resurrection. Lent is time for spiritual preparation, conversion and penance. We celebrate Lent with prayers, fasting and alms giving. At the end of the 40 days, we'll be ready for the big celebration: Easter Day! Easter, the victory day of our Lord Jesus and our salvation day. Jesus' Glorious Resurrection!
