2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

"This is my chosen Son; listen to him."
- Lk 9:35

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD, ©LPI

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

2nd Sunday of Lent: Let Yourself Be Enlightened

"Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray." (Lk 9: 28)

Continuing with the lesson from the previous week, this Sunday's Gospel shows us a concrete example of the necessity to pray in order to resist temptation. Christ, concerned about strengthening the faith of His disciples in the face of the imminent trial of the Cross, took them to Mount Tabor and there He was transfigured before them. He wanted to strengthen their faith by showing them that He was the Son of God and that God was on their side, so that when they saw Him hanging on the cross they would not fall into a crisis. We know that this experience, similar to but infinitely stronger than some spiritual exercises, did not initially produce the expected results, but in the long run, it helped the disciples to regain the faith that they had lost on Good Friday.

If the Master did that for those disciples who had already seen Him doing miracles, how much more will He have to do it for us. He wants to prepare us for the trials of life. He wants to give us strength to resist the blows of life. On the other hand, we don't want those trials to exist, which is impossible. That's why it is inevitable to have problems and suffer temptations. It is better for us "to let ourselves be enlightened," to let ourselves be strengthened. And for that purpose, as we saw last week, prayer and participation in the Eucharist are the best tools. "I am not that strong," we should tell ourselves, so as to run immediately seeking help and consolation in the only one who can always give them to us: Christ. Let us allow ourselves to be helped. Let us be enlightened by Christ in order to retain some of that light during times of darkness, to retain some of that strength during times of weakness. And when they do come, let us remember the good times, the sweet times when we felt God very close to us.

Resolution: Always persevere in prayer, despite your desires. Do it whether or not you feel like it, so that you are prepared when problems arise.

From the Pastor's Desk

Del Escritorio del Párroco

My dear parishioners,

Three are the main spiritual weapons we have to go through the desert of Lent: prayer, abstinence and almsgiving. Prayer is listed as first on the list given by the Lord. And it is not by chance that it is in the first place, because our relationship with God must be our number one priority. Without union with God, there is no success in our Lenten "retreat".

What is prayer? The Catechism reads that "prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things from God (n. 2559)". Two main things I see in this statement. First, prayer is to be mindful of God, is to be aware of living in His presence, and is to make Him the reason and end of everything we do. Second, prayer is the requesting of good things from God. The Lord Jesus said that the good thing we should pray for and which God will not refuse to grant us is the gift of the Holy Spirit. When we ask for the Holy Spirit, we are asking for Holiness and to respond to His prompts in us so that we may act according to the Father's will.

Here is a good challenge for Lent: to make of God the center of everything we do, and to ask Him for us to be docile to His will. This way, we will be praying all day long, and our actions will become the sacrifice of thanksgiving that we ought to offer Him.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in You.
Fr. Antonio Gutierrez, FM.
Pastor.

Mis queridos feligreses,

Tres son las principales armas espirituales que tenemos para atravesar el desierto Cuaresmal: la oración, la abstinencia y la limosna. La oración está en el primer lugar en la lista dada por el Señor. Y no es casualidad que ocupe el primer lugar, porque nuestra relación con Dios debe ser nuestra prioridad número uno. Sin unión con Dios, no hay éxito en nuestro «retiro» cuaresmal.

¿Qué es la oración? El Catecismo dice que «la oración es la elevación del alma a Dios o la petición a Dios de bienes convenientes» (n. 2559). Dos cosas principales veo en esta afirmación. En primer lugar, la oración es tener presente a Dios, es ser consciente de vivir en su presencia, y es hacer de Él la razón y el fin de todo lo que hacemos. En segundo lugar, la oración es pedir cosas buenas a Dios. El Señor Jesús dijo que el bien por el que debemos orar y que Dios no se negará a concedernos es el don del Espíritu Santo. Cuando pedimos el Espíritu Santo, estamos pidiendo la Santidad y responder a Sus impulsos en nosotros para que podamos actuar según la voluntad del Padre.

He aquí un buen reto para la Cuaresma: hacer de Dios el centro de todo lo que hacemos, y pedirle ser dóciles a su voluntad. Así, estaremos rezando todo el día, y nuestras acciones se convertirán en el sacrificio de acción de gracias que debemos ofrecerle a Él.

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en Ti confío.
P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM.
Párroco.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

The crosses with which our path through life is strewn associate us with Jesus in the mystery of His crucifixion. - St. John Eudes
If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. - Jesus Christ

This week we will be discussing Via Dolorosa, The Way of the Cross, in our thirty-sixth session of OCIA at 5:30 pm on Friday, 21st of March 2025 in the Church attending the Stations of the Cross with the entire parish.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward fuller communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

This week, the second week of Lent, we will be contemplating Jesus and the found sheep. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, upon seeing that one sheep was missing, safely left the others and immediately went in search of the one that got lost. He loves His sheep and would not let even one get lost, and so went looking until it was found. Then with all of the love in His heart, he carried the sheep safely back to the others. Jesus was so happy; He found the sheep that was lost and now it was safely back with Him. This is real love- to do anything to keep those He loves with Him. Let's give our hearts to Jesus and thank Him for his immeasurable love for us. Lent is our time for preparation, for praying, Jesus our Good Shepherd more.
