4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

"His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.' But his father ordered his servants, 'Let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again.'"
- Lk 15:21-22a, 23b-24a

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

4th Sunday of Lent: Get on Your Way to the Father

“So, he got up and went back to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him: ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.’” (Lk 15: 20-21).

The parable of the prodigal son is a source of innumerable lessons. But this week, we can focus on the attitude of the younger son, the bad son who abandoned the house of the Father in order to live his life away from him. We are all somehow mirrored in that wayward man. But, although he is a bad example in regard to sin, he is an example with respect to reconciliation, to returning home. According to the parable, his motives for returning were totally selfish, but the Father did not care; he ordered a great feast to celebrate the return of his son who was lost and has been brought back to him. This week, we must consider precisely that return from wherever we are for the best of reasons: to give God our Father a deserved joy.

Surely, most of us have never left our parental home. It is even possible that we are not in mortal sin or that we have never committed any; but even in that case, it is necessary to return to the Lord, in the sense of getting closer to Him; strengthening the bonds of love and gratitude with the One who loves us so much. And it is necessary to do so in order to make amends for the abandonments of others, in order to console our mutual Father for the wounds caused by many of His other children. Returning to our parental home means an increase of prayer, contemplation, and gratitude towards God. And from these, to make sure that our works are full of generosity and mercy toward our neighbor.

Resolution: Go to Confession, whether there are grave sins or not. Increase prayer in order to console the Father, abandoned by so many sons and daughters. Help others to come back through evangelization

From the Pastor's Desk

Del Escritorio del Párroco

My dear parishioners,

Last Sunday I mentioned that there are two types of religious sadnesses, both rooted in a sorrow for having offended God. One is a holy one, which leads to penance and the acts of penance, such as fasting, and the other is a bad one, which paralyzes the soul in advancing towards holiness.

Today we will talk about the third tool of our Lenten observance: almsgiving. Normally, Catholics tend to identify charity with almsgiving, or with other types of social work, thus voiding charity from its original and full meaning. Once we understand what charity is, we will be able to understand the source and purpose of social works.

According to the Catechism n. 1822, charity is the theological virtue by which we love God above all things for his own sake, and our neighbor as ourselves for the love of God. As we can see, charity is something supernatural, that is, something given by God as a gift when we were baptized, a gift we should pray for an ever more increase in us. As pointed out in this definition of charity, God himself is the origin and the end of it. When we love God above all things, when He is the origin, model, and end of our love, and when we love our neighbor, always motivated and driven by the love of God, then we can say we are being charitable.

FOR YOU, JESUS, we should say every time we are doing something good, especially when we do not feel like doing it. This way, our love will stem from God as its source and will extend to Him as its end. When saying this prayer in the silence of our hearts, we are mindful that He has loved us first and that we owe Him our love. We should say: FOR YOU, JESUS, OUT OF GRATITUDE TO YOU, I will instruct the ignorant, counsel the doubtful, gently and courageously admonish the sinner, bear wrongs patiently, forgive willingly, comfort the afflicted, pray for the living and the dead, feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, shelter the homeless, visit the imprisoned, care for the sick, and bury the dead. With the right motivation and moved by the Holy Spirit we would be loving with the love of God, that is, charity, and all the works of mercy, both spiritual and corporal, will find their place and full comprehension.

Blessed Lent!

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in You.
Fr. Antonio Gutierrez, FM.
Pastor.

Mis queridos feligreses,

El domingo pasado mencioné que hay dos tipos de tristezas religiosas, ambas arraigadas en el dolor por haber ofendido a Dios, pero una es santa, la cual lleva a la penitencia y a los actos de penitencia, como el ayuno, y la otra es mala, que paraliza al alma en su avance hacia la santidad.

Hoy hablaremos de la tercera herramienta de nuestra observancia cuaresmal: la limosna. Normalmente, los católicos tendemos a identificar la caridad con la limosna, o con otro tipo de obra social, vaciando así la caridad de su sentido original y pleno. Una vez que entendamos que es la caridad, podremos entender cuál es la fuente y el propósito de las obras sociales.

Según el Catecismo n. 1822, la caridad es la virtud teológica por la cual amamos a Dios sobre todas las cosas por Él mismo y a nuestro prójimo como a nosotros mismos por amor de Dios. Como vemos, la caridad es algo sobrenatural, es decir, algo dado por Dios como don cuando fuimos bautizados, don que debemos rogar que aumente cada vez más en nosotros. Como se señala en esta definición de la caridad, Dios mismo es el origen y el fin de la misma. Cuando amamos a Dios sobre todas las cosas, cuando Él es el origen, modelo y el fin de nuestro amor, y cuando amamos a nuestro prójimo siempre motivados e impulsados por el amor de Dios, entonces podemos decir que estamos siendo caritativos.

POR TI, JESÚS, debemos decir cada vez que estamos haciendo algo bueno, especialmente cuando no nos apetece. De esta manera, nuestro amor brotará de Dios como de su fuente y tenderá a Él como a su fin. Al rezar esta oración en el silencio de nuestro corazón, tenemos presente que Él nos ha amado primero y que le debemos nuestro amor. Debemos decir: POR TI, JESÚS, POR AGRADECIMIENTO A TI, enseñaré al que no sabe, daré buen consejo al que lo necesita, corregiré al que está en el error, perdonaré las injurias, consolaré al triste, sufriré con paciencia los defectos de los demás, rezaré por vivos y difuntos, daré de comer al hambriento, daré de beber al sediento, daré posada al que no tiene techo, vestiré al desnudo, visitaré al enfermo, socorreré a los presos, y enterraré a los muertos. Con la motivación adecuada y movidos por el Espíritu Santo estaríamos amando con el amor de Dios, es decir, con caridad, y todas las obras de misericordia tanto espirituales como corporales encontrarán su lugar y plena comprensión.

Benedicida cuaresma.

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en Ti confío.
P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM.
Párroco.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

The Jews could only refer to G-d as Adonai or Elohim. Yahweh, the name of G-d given to Moses, could only be uttered once a year in the Holy of Holies by the High Priest. The disciples asked Jesus to teach them how to pray. Jesus demonstrated by starting with Our Father, actually Abba, the Aramaic name a little child called his father - basically Daddy. Jesus was inviting them into an intimate relationship with His Father and kinship with Him. He invites us still.

This week we will be discussing The Lord's Prayer in our twenty-seventh session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 6th of April 2025

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward fuller communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

In the fourth week of Lent we continue our pondering of the upper room where the Last Supper was celebrated by Jesus with the twelve disciples. It was in this room that Jesus said to his disciples, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer!" At this meal as they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then, He took a chalice and after giving thanks He gave it to them saying, "Drink of it all of you ; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in remembrance of Me." This was the first Mass celebrated in the world. This is the day our divine Eucharist was instituted. Jesus loves us so much that He could not depart and leave us alone so He instituted the Eucharist as a way to remain with us. Thank You Lord Jesus for your unmeasurable love! Thank You! This Lent, let's love Jesus more and our families, friends and neighbors too.
