Pope Frances Quotes

I am deeply convinced that violence can never bring peace and wellbeing to a country, because it creates — always and only — violence. Pope Frances, 4/10/14

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The French Revolution is hardly a “treasure” in our story, yet in 1789 it began to dismantle the way the world was organized: feudalism. The collapsed society had three basic divisions: those who work, those who fight, and those who pray. There wasn’t a great deal of movement among the ranks, yet one way to move out of the workers and the fighters was in the direction of the folks who prayed. These were the First Estate, the clergy.

One of the key persons in any manor or village was the priest. He could read, at least a bit, and so was the source for pronouncements and news from government and Church. He was assigned to celebrate the sacraments frequently and in conformance with certain rules.

Seminaries did not exist before the Reformation. Astute Protestant reformers then forced the Catholic world toward a more educated and able clergy. Before that, young men apprenticed with a priest to learn the essentials, and would be presented to the bishop for ordination. Other priests emerged from the university system, where students were required to be invested as clerics. Still others were monks, ordained not so much for ministry outside the monastic walls, but to offer Mass only for the intentions of the community’s benefactors. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

WATCH YOUR POSTURE

Our posture is often a tip-off to our hospitality and reverence for the Lord. Note the actions of Abraham as he greeted the Lord in the presence of three men who appeared near his tent. He ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them. He bowed to the ground as he met them. He and Sarah, his wife, hastened to prepare a meal and bring food and water to their guests.

In the Gospel story, Jesus’ friend Mary sat at his feet in order to listen to him speak.

How do we welcome and reverence the Lord? What do our actions show? Do we remember the Lord’s presence in the Blessed Sacrament? How do we welcome the Lord in the scripture readings? How do we acknowledge his presence in our brothers and sisters, both at Mass and afterwards?

Whether we kneel, stand, or sit in the Lord’s presence, may our hearts and minds always be attuned to him.

Brigitte or Bridget was born of pious parents but her mother died while she was still young and her care shifted to one of her virtuous aunts. At the age of 3 Bridget began to speak and she almost immediately began praising God. When Bridget was only ten she had a dream of Jesus nailed to the cross and all covered with blood and wounds. She heard a voice say: “Look upon Me, My daughter.” Bridget responded “O Dear Lord, who has treated You so cruelly?” Our Lord replied: “Those who despise Me and are insensible to My Love for them.” That dream left a deep impression on her and Bridget continued to meditate on the sufferings of Jesus throughout her life. At the age of 14 she married and had eight children. One of her daughters is St. Catherine of Sweden. After a pilgrimage to Compostela she and her husband Ulf dedicated their lives to God and chose to live a monastic life. After her husband’s death she founded an order of nuns known as the Order of the Most Holy Savior, or the Bridgettines.

Bridget had many visions during her life. For a long time Bridget wanted to know the number of blows Our Lord received during His Passion. One day Jesus appeared to Bridget and said: “I received 5480 blows on My body. If you wish to honor them in some way, say 15 Our Fathers and 15 Hail Marys’ with the following prayers (which He taught her) for a whole year. When the year is up, you will have honored each one of My wounds.” St. Bridget is the patroness of Sweden.

Novena: St. Bridget, Bride of Christ

Your life was centered round honoring the wounds of Christ. Intercede before our Wounded Lord and ask Him to forgive the times when we have forgotten Him or through our sins increased His pain. Beseech Jesus in His mercy to bestow upon us a reverence and devotion to His Sacred Wounds. Let us learn to carry our crosses with love.

Please tell Jesus that we love Him and thank Him for the pain and humiliation He endured for our sake. St. Bridget, we humbly ask you to lay our petitions at the foot of the Cross as we know you will be warmly received. Amen (Say 1 Our Father, 1 Hail Mary, and 1 Glory Be for nine days).

The Missionaries of Jesus (MJ) is an international and multicultural religious missionary community. It was founded in the Philippines on 12 June 2002 by a group of forty-one men called and inspired by the mission and humanity of Jesus, who calls us to "make disciples of all nations"

(Mt 28:19). We call ourselves, "friends and disciples." It is our desire to gather more friends and co-disciples.

Fr. Melanio Viuya, MJ

Fr. Melanio R. Viuya, Jr., MJ entered the religious life since 1983. He was a missionary in Congo (Africa) for seven years. Fr. Viuya was ordained priest in Congo on July 16, 1995. He earned his Licentiate in Sacred Scriptures (S.S.L.) at Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome, Italy and taught Sacred Scriptures in various institutions in the Philippines while helping the Missionaries of Jesus (MJ). He is presently helping the parishes of St. Kevin and Precious Blood in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles while fulfilling his assignment as Director of Missions of the Missionaries of Jesus.

The Missionaries of Jesus priests journey with the migrants in a multicultural setting. They are committed to building inclusive communities of faith. They dream of a world where the Gospel values of unity, peace, sharing, forgiveness, justice, and concern are a reality for all.
