Catholic Quotes

"All of us must be saints in this world. Holiness is a duty for you and me.
So let's be saints and so give glory to the Father." Mother Teresa

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Sometimes, this "Treasures" column can seem to be a species of crib-notes for Catholic Jeopardy. Indeed, you may never know when knowledge of our particular vocabulary may come in handy. Such is the case with papal bulls, which conjure up all sorts of images, but are actually not what you might expect. A bull is a papal letter on a matter of great consequence, such as a decision about a crisis in the Church, the declaration of a doctrine, the summoning of a council, or the canonization of a saint. It has a more solemn intention than a mere letter or even an encyclical, a teaching letter circulated through the whole Church. Its odd name comes from the Latin bullā, which is the stamp used to apply a signatorial design to the hot lead, or even molten silver or gold, that seals the decree.

The format for the bull is the name of the pope in Latin, followed by the title "servant of the servants of God," also in Latin, and then the text. The title of the bull is always the first two words of the text. Some famous papal bulls are Exsurge Domine (Arise, O Lord), written against Martin Luther's Ninety-five Theses in 1520; Munificentissimus Deus (The Most Bountiful God), the promulgation of the dogma of the Assumption in 1950 by Pope Pius XII; or Humanae Salutis (Human Salvation), by which Pope John XXIII convened the Second Vatican Council in 1962.

INVITED

The Good News is that we have all been invited—invited to the Kingdom, invited to be disciples. It's a life-changing invitation, and like so many other such invitations, it requires a great deal of deliberation and discernment.

Whether we choose marriage, ordination, single life, or community life, we know the serious planning and consideration that accompany these profound decisions. Like the tower-builder in the Gospel, we have weighed both the monetary and emotional cost. We have pondered and planned our lives in the direction to which we believe God has called us. And while we pray for guidance and acceptance of God's will, we often fail to understand so much. Like Solomon, we turn to God for wisdom and counsel in our life-changing decisions. Copyright © J. S. YEAR OF MERCY 2015-2016

October 8, 2016 – Divine Mercy Conference,
November 20, 2016 – Closing of the Holy Door

NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, SEPTEMBER 8

The Church has celebrated Mary's birth since at least the sixth century. A September birth was chosen because the Eastern Church begins its Church year with September. The September 8 date helped determine the date for the feast of the Immaculate Conception on December 8 (nine months earlier).

Scripture does not give an account of Mary's birth. However, the apocryphal Protoevangelium of James fills in the gap. This work has no historical value, but it does reflect the development of Christian piety. According to this account, Anna and Joachim are infertile but pray for a child. They receive the promise of a child that will advance God's plan of salvation for the world. Such a story (like many biblical counterparts) stresses the special presence of God in Mary's life from the beginning.

St. Augustine connects Mary's birth with Jesus' saving work. He tells the earth to rejoice and shine forth in the light of her birth. "She is the flower of the field from whom bloomed the precious lily of the valley. Through her birth the nature inherited from our first parents is changed." The opening prayer at Mass speaks of the birth of Mary's Son as the dawn of our salvation and asks for an increase of peace.

Comment:

We can see every human birth as a call for new hope in the world. The love of two human beings has joined with God in his creative work. The loving parents have shown hope in a world filled with travail. The new child has the potential to be a channel of God's love and peace to the world.

This is all true in a magnificent way in Mary. If Jesus is the perfect expression of God's love, Mary is the foreshadowing of that love. If Jesus has brought the fullness of salvation, Mary is its dawning.

Birthday celebrations bring happiness to the celebrant as well as to family and friends. Next to the birth of Jesus, Mary's birth offers the greatest possible happiness to the world. Each time we celebrate her birth we can confidently hope for an increase of peace in our hearts and in the world at large. SJV SCHOOL NEEDS YOUR HELP !!

Every 6 years St. John Vianney School goes through the accreditation process through the Western Catholic Educational Association (WCEA). The year before the visit from the Accreditation team, the school community must prepare a written document, our Self Study Report, consisting of several different factors and outcomes. Some examples of these factors include Catholic Identity, School Purpose, Student Learning, Data Analysis, Instructional Methodology, Spiritual, Personal, and Academic Growth, Resource Management, and Support Services. The draft of the Self Study document must be completed by May 2017.

This document needs the input of all shareholders - students, parents, staff, alumni, and parish members. Shareholders are involved appropriately in the Self Study through participation in Self Study Committees, completing surveys, reviewing work, etc...

* Our meeting dates are set for 1:00p.m. (length of meeting TBD), at the school on the following dates: October 7, November 18, December 2, January 27, February 24, March 24, and April 28.

At this time I am simply collecting names, phone numbers, and emails of those parishioners who are interested in being a part of the writing process and will be able to attend SOME of the meetings. I understand it would be difficult to be available for all. PLEASE email me at jrbalantac@sjvschool.org ASAP if you are willing to help us with this process. This cannot be completed by administration and staff only, we must involve the greater community both parent and parish wide. Thank you for your help & support!
