OUR MISSION

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

January 17, 2021 Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
FORMED.ORG; sjvparish.formed.formed.org

Video overview: Have you ever wondered why God seems to stay so hidden from us? As a Christian trying to live a life of prayer, sometimes it can seem like God doesn't want to be known at all. Or maybe it can even seem as though God just doesn't exist. But God does exist—and he longs to be known! But God draws us to himself more mysteriously. We get two great examples of this in today's readings. First, when God is calling Samuel, it takes Samuel three times before he finally realizes God is speaking to him. And in the Gospel, Jesus simply tells his disciples, "Come and see." This is the method of God. He doesn't just want to give us answers, but to live life with us. When the disciples follow Christ, the Gospel says that they "stayed with him." When we stay with God, we can begin to hear and see clearly, beginning to find him in the quiet of our hearts.

Featured study: Is Jesus a myth by Karlo Broussard, a master apologist.

Topic of Interest: The place of this meeting is "Bethany across the Jordan," where John was baptizing. This is thought to be the place where the Israelites crossed the Jordan into the Promised Land under the leadership of Joshua. Now under the leadership of a new Joshua, which is the Hebrew form of the name Jesus, Israel is about to cross to the shore of a new Promised Land, the eternal Promised Land of Heaven. Jesus, upon meeting the two disciples asks, "What do you seek?" (RSV) or "What are you looking for?" (NAB). This is similar to the question that Jesus will later ask those who come to arrest him in the Garden of Gethsemane and Mary Magdalene when she first meets the resurrected Jesus. But instead of answering directly, they answer Jesus's question with another question: "Where are you staying?" The word stay used here is from the Greek meno, and means to "abide" or "dwell." It is used again and again by Jesus at important times to describe the way in which he will remain with those who follow him. Jesus answers simply: "Come and see." In response to Jesus's invitation, the disciples "went and saw where Jesus was staying, and they stayed with him that day." We may learn from this that by faith, a disciple will remain in the Lord and the Lord in the disciple.

School

St. John Vianney School
www.sjvschool.org

St. John Vianney School is always looking for ways to spread the word about our incredible school! If you live in a nearby neighborhood that you think could benefit from some SJV promotional materials, please reach out to our Advancement Director, Jessica Loria (jlوريا@csd-sac.org / 443-622-7197). We have some really exciting SJV postcards in production that we'd love to use to canvas the surrounding Rancho Cordova communities, but we need a bit of your help to do so! Next time you're maybe out on your walk, would you be able and willing to drop off some postcards in neighbors' mailboxes?! Please let us know if this is a task you'd be up for - we would so appreciate your help!

Prayer Against Coronavirus

Lord Jesus Christ, Our Divine Physician, we ask you to guard and protect us from Coronavirus COVID-19 and all serious illness.

For all that have died from it, have mercy; for those that are ill now, bring healing. For those searching for a remedy, enlighten them; for medical caregivers helping the sick, strengthen and shield them. For those working to contain the spread, grant them success; for those afraid, grant peace. May your precious blood be our defense and our salvation. By your grace, may you turn the evil of disease into moments of consolation and hope. May we always fear the contagion of sin more than any illness.

We abandon ourselves to your infinite mercy.
Amen.
