Catholic Quotes

"The trouble is that everyone talks about reforming others and no one thinks about reforming himself."

St Peter of Alcantara

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of the most unusual Catholic churches in the world is in Amsterdam: Our Lord in the Attic, or as the locals say, "Ons Lieve Heer op Solder." What looks like a beautiful narrow brick mansion alongside a canal is a clever disguise for a very well-preserved seventeenth-century home and a secret church. During the Reformation, the Netherlands was divided into Protestant Holland and the Spanish Netherlands, now known as Belgium, a Catholic stronghold. Protestant reformers seized all the Catholic parishes in Holland and "de-Catholicized" them. New laws forbade the celebration of the Mass in public. St. Nicholas Church was renamed "Old Church" by the new owners, and the dispossessed Catholics got to work "hiding" St. Nicholas Parish in the upper floors of this mansion. Other Catholics did the same thing, but this is the only hidden church that survives today. Sunday Mass is still celebrated here. It's a beautiful hideaway, with nothing spared in regard to marble, gilding, a pipe organ, and classic Dutch painting. A few steps away, the Old Church, begun in 1250, stands emptied of the statues and carvings of its Catholic days, its windows replaced by plain glass. The new tenants gave up when it came to the ceiling, which is still painted with saints, biblical scenes, and merchant ships. The Dutch reformers were tolerant sorts, and as long as the Catholics kept out of sight, they were out of mind. Catholicism was at last tolerated in Holland after 1853, but in 1924 when the International Eucharistic Congress was held in Amsterdam, processions of Catholics were still forbidden in the streets. Today, Roman Catholics are about 19 percent of the population, and there's no need for any of them to hide in the attic.

ST. JOHN VIANNEY CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK:

St. John Vianney Catholic School administration, faculty, and staff invite you to our annual Catholic Schools Week Open House on Sunday, January 28th. We will start with Mass at 11:30am, followed by an Open House from 12:30pm-3:30pm which will include a Science Fair, a Wax Museum, and the book fair. Prospective families, parishioners, alumni, and currently enrolled families are encouraged to visit with us during this time as we celebrate the benefits of a Catholic education. Prospective Parents are invited to join our principal, Mrs. Amy Hale, at a Wine & Chocolate Reception on Friday, February 9th from 7:00pm-8:30pm. Please call the school office with any questions at (916) 363-4610.

THE DEMANDS OF DISCIPLESHIP

Today we encounter readings that already have a Lenten feel about them. Nineveh undergoes a forty-day fast, the psalmist reminds us that God alone can show sinners the way, Paul shows us how fleeting the things and events of this world are, and Jesus cries out "Repent!" before he calls his new followers. "Come after me," Jesus says, but if we are to truly live out the commands and demands of our discipleship through baptism, we must first know our need for conversion, our repentance, our need to believe in the gospel fully. Today's Gospel opens with the stark reminder of what befell John the Baptist for completely living out his vocation as the herald of Christ and the gospel: he was arrested, imprisoned, and martyred. Though few of us will experience consequences that extreme, we must all be ready to risk some sort of rejection as, heeding the call of Jesus, we live out the kingdom of God at hand, repent of our sins, and believe in the good news of salvation. copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

FROM PALMS TO ASHES: As Lent approaches, we invite you to return the palms you received at Palm Sunday last year (or previous years) so that they may be disposed of properly. As noted in Canon Law, blessed items are not to be discarded in the trash, but treated with respect (cf. #1171). Thus, in order to assist you in your reverent disposal of these sacramentals, there are collection baskets located at the doors of the Church and the parish office for you to return your palms. These Palms will be ritually burned, some of the ashes may be used for the distribution of ashes for Ash Wednesday, and the remainder will be returned to the earth. PLEASE RETURN ANY PALMS BY MONDAY, FEB. 12
