TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We had sixteen hundred years' experience with one Eucharistic Prayer in our repertoire, and the liturgical reforms of the Council of Trent shaped the way we worshiped for four hundred years. In the last years of the Tridentine Mass, the early 1960s, we tended to see children as miniature adults. Fully rooted in the Sunday assembly by the decision of Pope Saint Pius X to push Communion back to the age of seven or so from the standard age of twelve to fourteen years during the early 1900s, children were still more tolerated than acknowledged. The Mass was in Latin, and by the 1960s the people had begun to regain their voices in the "dialogue Mass," so the focus was on training little children to recite or sing in Latin.

The new attention to the experience of children, their ability to enter into ritual, their spontaneity, their ability to grasp key concepts in faith, felt "untraditional." Yet we can trace in our tradition the ways in which children have long been given a special place in the assembly. From earliest times, boys have served in choirs and certain ministries in monasteries and in parish churches. Girls were sometimes entrusted to nuns, learning liturgical chants and the arts. Yet, in our day, the formation of a Lectionary for children and Eucharistic Prayers suited to them are truly tremendous breakthroughs in our treasury of prayer. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

WISDOM

We consider wisdom today. The first reading from the book of Wisdom presents this precious gift as a feminine spirit, a very desirable virtue sought by many and graciously present to all who seek her. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable to illustrate wisdom in a practical, measurable way. The wise will conserve their resources, use them prudently, and mark the passing of time. The foolish, on the other hand, not planning ahead, will be in the dark. Both of these readings tell us how accessible wisdom is to all who simply and honestly seek it. Paul's words to the Thessalonians are not about wisdom, but describe one result of true wisdom: To the wise person of faith even death holds no terror. Our faith in Jesus' resurrection tells us we will all one day rise to new life in Christ. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

"Stay with me, Lord, for it is You alone I look for, Your Love, Your Grace, Your Will, Your Heart, Your Spirit, because I love You and ask no other reward but to love You more and more." St Pio of Pietrelcina

Daily Prayer for Healing of Body, Mind and Soul

My most loving Father, You have promised, "I am the God who heals you" (Exodus 15:26) I place in your loving care my sick body, worried mind, my emotional wounds and sinful nature. I believe that only You have the power to heal me completely. Loving Father, I trust in Your love for me, Help me to love You more. Help me to increase my faith in You. I surrender to you (here mention your illness or emotional hurt) Cleanse me with the precious blood of Jesus, purify me and set me free from anger, resentment, hatred, unresolved hurts and greed. Help me to remember that the power of the Holy Trinity dwells within me and the power to forgive and overcome sin is in me. Fill me with Your Holy Spirit and Your peace. Amen. Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary, please protect us. courtesy of Mary's Rosary Chain Inc.

Remembering The Souls of Our Loved Ones

Parishioners are invited to share a photo of their loved ones who have passed away - especially those who have passed in the last year - for our Altar of the Dead. The Altar is located in the Niche where the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary normally resides, and we will remember all of our beloved dead for the entirety of the Month for All Souls. Please bring small photos (4"x6" or smaller) so that we might have room for all of our community's photos. You may drop off your photo at the parish office, (Please be prepared to take back your photos at the end of November, photos not claimed by the end of the year may not be retrievable).

Recordamos las Almas de Nuestros Seres Queridos

Los feligreses están invitados a compartir una foto de sus seres queridos fallecidos - especialmente aquellos que han fallecido el año pasado - para nuestro Altar de los Muertos. Recordaremos a todos nuestros amados muertos durante la totalidad del Mes de Todas las Almas. Sugerimos que cualquier foto que se traiga para el altar sea una foto pequeña (4" x 6" o menos) para que podamos tener espacio para todas las fotos de nuestra comunidad. Favor dejar su foto en la oficina de la parroquia. (Por favor, prepárese para recuperar sus fotos a finales de Noviembre, las fotos no reclamadas antes de fin de año pueden no ser recuperables)
