JUNE 12, 2022 | THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

“He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.” - Jn 16:14-15

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

June 12, 2022, Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity - Formed.org.

Video overview: In today's Gospel reading, we are given a unique and intimate look into the very heart of the Blessed Trinity. As Jesus describes the relationship between himself, his Father, and the Holy Spirit, one central point emerges: God's very life is one of communion. The Trinity is a relationship of giving and receiving, a communion of life and love. God exists as a relationship of Persons. This reality brings us to a very important question: What does the Trinity mean for us, as we live our lives? The communion of Persons of the Holy Trinity reminds us of the importance of relationships in our world, and at the same time provides the model for what these relationships are supposed to look like. When the Scriptures say we are made in the image and likeness of God, it means we were made to live like the Trinity. We are made for communion, for relationship, with God and the people God has placed in our lives. God wants us to model and witness to him as Trinity, which means we are made to love as he loved. We are to give ourselves totally in relationship with him and with others. Only when we live in self-giving love, like God himself, will we find our fulfillment in life.

Featured study: Is the Holy Spirit God?

Reflection: In this passage from the long Last Supper discourse in John's Gospel, we see part of Jesus' frank disclosure of the Trinitarian mystery to his disciples by way of the Trinitarian missions. In chapters 14, 15, and 16, Jesus promises the gift of the Holy Spirit to his Church, the "Spirit of truth," who will "guide you to all truth." This divine "Counselor" is the shared gift of the Father and Son to continue the work of God in the world after Christ's Ascension to the right hand of the Father. Jesus even promises that through this "Spirit of truth" he will disclose to his apostles more of the content of the truth which he had been sent to reveal. That is, the Spirit would continue to teach the apostles the full truth of Jesus Christ. Once they had died and the time of public revelation had come to a close, the Spirit would continue to guide the Church in understanding all that Jesus had said and done in revealing the truth that the Father had given him to disclose. The Spirit is the one who testifies to the truth of the Son, who himself reveals everything that he had heard from the Father. In the face of this final gift from Jesus of the Trinitarian mystery, the disciples exclaim, "Ah, now you are speaking plainly....by this we believe that you came from God" (John 16:29).

Vatican News

By Courtney Mares, Vatican City, June 1, 2022

POPE FRANCIS: BRING THE LOVE OF JESUS' SACRED HEART 'TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH'

On the first day of June, Pope Francis urged Catholics to look to the Sacred Heart of Jesus as a source of love and to bring Christ's love "to the ends of the earth."

"Today we begin the month dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, source of love and peace," the pope said on June 1.

"Open yourselves to this love and take it 'to the ends of the earth,' witnessing to the goodness and mercy that flow from the Heart of Jesus."

Speaking in St. Peter's Square at the end of his Wednesday general audience, the pope said that this message was especially aimed at young people, particularly those who will meet next weekend in Lednica, west-central Poland.

The entire month of June in the Catholic Church is traditionally dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

The feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus falls on the Friday after the second Sunday after Pentecost in the Church's calendar.

Many Catholics prepare for this feast by beginning a novena to the Sacred Heart on the feast of Corpus Christi, the week prior. Devotion to Christ's Sacred Heart became popularized when St. Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647-1690), a Visitation nun, had a personal revelation involving a series of visions of Christ as she prayed before the Blessed Sacrament.

Alacoque wrote: "He disclosed to me the marvels of his Love and the inexplicable secrets of his Sacred Heart."
