13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." - Lk 9:61-62

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

June 26, 2022, 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time – Formed.org.

Video overview: Long journeys are not always easy, and in today’s Gospel reading, we find Jesus embarking on what is the most difficult journey of his life. From here in Luke chapter 9 until Jesus arrives in Jerusalem on Palm Sunday—ten chapters later—Jesus and his disciples will be on the road. And the journey ends in the place where Jesus will be crucified. The ultimate destination for his journey is the cross. This week’s readings remind us that we all face great challenges in the journey of life. And sometimes we can feel worried, discouraged, or very alone in the midst of those difficulties. The readings invite us to ask if we’ve ever felt like Elijah in today’s first reading, who thought he was alone in his faith convictions, or like Jesus himself, who traveled to Jerusalem knowing the hostility, rejection, and suffering he would soon face. We all know that life can be hard. The Christian life is not about escaping this. It’s about facing the difficulties of life head-on, about knowing that suffering does not have the final say because Jesus has conquered suffering and death on the cross. If we have the courage to follow him and face life’s challenges knowing that Jesus has gone before us, those sufferings can take on new meaning! That’s what the Christian life is all about, and that’s what our readings this week illuminate.

Featured study: Life in Christ—Part 1

Reflection: When we decide to walk in the Spirit with Jesus, or, as our Gospel passage puts it, when we are “resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem” with him, we must not hesitate but follow in faith, hope, and love. To follow the poor, obedient, and chaste Christ, we, too, must be poor, obedient, and chaste. That is why the Church has traditionally enjoined upon all Christians what are called the “evangelical counsels.” When we choose to follow Christ we must leave the “dead” (the death of sin) behind to enter into the freedom of the Spirit; that freedom is signified and fed by the counsels of poverty, chastity, and obedience. Those who leave everything to follow Jesus in a radical expression of Christian discipleship—such as monks, nuns, friars, and religious sisters—take vows to observe the evangelical counsels in their purity to “go and proclaim the kingdom of God.” But all of us are called to observe the counsels in accord with our particular vocation. St. Francis de Sales says in his Treatise on Divine Love that the queen of the virtues, Charity, determines in each case how we should observe them. There is consecrated priestly celibacy, for example, or the absolute poverty of the monk, but husbands and wives are called to live marital chastity, to live simply and modestly to help them love better placing their hope in God alone. If the disciple is to follow Christ toward the new Jerusalem in faith, hope, and charity, he or she needs to exercise the freedom of the counsels to strengthen their faith by obedient living, hope through poverty of spirit, and charity through the school of chastity.

Real Presence, Real Life

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL IN THE DIOCESE OF SACRAMENTO AND ACROSS THE U.S.

The Bishops of the United States are calling for a three-year grassroots revival of devotion and belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. They believe that God wants to see a movement of Catholics across the United States, healed, converted, formed, and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist—and sent out in mission “for the life of the world.”

These three years will culminate in the first National Eucharistic Congress in the United States in almost fifty years. Almost a hundred thousand Catholics will join together in Indianapolis for a once-in-a-lifetime pilgrimage toward the “source and summit” of our Catholic faith.

Youth & Young Adults Corner

Hello Youth & Young Adults of SJV!

This week, on Wednesday 06/29, we celebrate the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. St. Paul is amazing, but I'd like to focus on St. Peter.

St. Peter is our first pope and the rock upon which the church was built. Many non-Catholics think this is something that the Catholic church made up whole cloth but that simply isn't the case. In Matthew 16, Jesus says, "you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell will not prevail against it." There are a couple things to keep in mind here.

First, changing names has significant history and meaning in the bible. It reflects a sacred mission given by God. Peter's name was originally Cephas, but his name was changed by Jesus to "Peter," meaning 'rock,' and He did so for this very reason.

Second, many say Jesus was referring to Peter's act of faith being the foundation of the Church, but this isn't the case, otherwise, why didn't Jesus say, "on your faith I will build my church"?

Furthermore, faith does not exist apart from the man. Thus, it could be referring to Peter's act of faith, but that faith originates in a person first – Peter – to recognize Christ's divinity.

Think about these two apostles; let us live a life like St. Peter in which we acknowledge Christ's divinity, and a life like St. Paul in which we proclaim it to the world!

POPE FRANCIS: THE VIRGIN MARY TEACHES US 'TO LIVE EUCHARISTICALLY'

The Blessed Virgin Mary never allowed herself to be “paralyzed by pride or fear,” but she arose and went with haste to humbly offer a helping hand, the pope told young Catholics on Saturday. “Mary teaches us also to live eucharistically. In other words, to give thanks, to cultivate praise, and to not be fixated only on problems and difficulties,” Pope Francis said on June 18. Pope Francis underlined that the Mother of God did not stay home and think about the great privilege she had received after her encounter with the angel at the Annunciation, nor did she fixate on the many problems it could bring. “She was not one of those people for whom all it takes to be comfortable and secure is a good sofa: ‘couch potatoes.’ If her elderly relative needed a helping hand, she was ready to set out immediately to be there for her,” he added. The pope spoke in an audience with young Catholics who are part of the Syro-Malabar Church, the second-biggest Eastern Catholic Church with more than four million members worldwide. Pope Francis told the participants in the Syro-Malabar Youth Leaders Conference that they are called to bear witness to the truth that “our lives find substance and meaning whenever we say ‘yes’ to Jesus.” Pope Francis encouraged the young Catholics to be like Mary, who visited her older cousin Elizabeth, by visiting their elderly relatives and receiving their wisdom.
