SEPTEMBER 11, 2022 | 24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

24th Sunday

IN ORDINARY TIME

"There will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance." - Lk 15:7b

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

September 11, 2022, 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time — Formed.org.

Video overview: The theme of today's reflection is "Lost and Found." Do you remember a time when you lost something, perhaps a possession of great importance? When we lose something of high value, we search and search until we finally find it. The discovery brings such a sense of relief. The greater the value of what was lost, the more we rejoice in finding it. Three times, Jesus uses this theme of something valuable being lost and found as the backdrop for His message in the Gospel reading today: a shepherd losing one of his sheep, a woman losing a coin, a father losing a son. Jesus uses these analogies in a personal way to describe God's own seeking us out when we are lost and separated from Him by sin: all of heaven rejoices when even one sinner is found and returns to God. That is the kind of rejoicing that happens in heaven for us! But the analogy doesn't end there. We can find incredible gratitude stirring up in our hearts when we think of the ways God has pursued us, and found us when we were lost. The more lost we were, the deeper our gratitude should be. Moreover, we should share the Lord's heart for those who are lost. Once we've been found, God calls us to share in His desire to see others found and restored in relationship with Him.

Featured study: Yes or No? Straight Answers to Tough Questions About Christianity by Peter Kreeft

Reflection: There's good reason to believe that Luke uses this story as a parable of the eventual offer of salvation to the Gentiles. In his Gospel, he shows a dual interest in telling the Jewish story and the world story. The parable of the prodigal son is told to an audience of Pharisees but with tax collectors and sinners gathered around as well. Jesus first tells two stories about one lost sheep and one lost silver piece. Then Jesus proposes the story of a father who had two sons, one of them the prodigal. If a sheep or a coin are worth the struggle to save it, certainly a human soul—a son's soul—is worth the same. Indeed the prodigal leaves the family and thereby falls into the position of a servant, the same as that of someone who's dead or outside the covenant family of Israel. Despite the servant status he has earned himself outside of the covenant family, the father welcomes the prodigal son back to the covenant family life. The parable suggests that whether one is a member of the covenant family of Israel who has fallen out of the covenant or one who's beyond the reach of the covenant promises made to Israel, as is the case with the Gentiles, there's the same kind of joy before the angels of God over one repentant sinner (see Luke 15:10).

Students in grades 5-8 may participate in PAL Sports Programs. This program is inclusive of age-appropriate skill development and competitions among other Catholic schools. All coaches are volunteers who give their time and energy to help students learn and grow as student athletes. Do you know someone who would make an amazing coach for student athletes? ## BLESSING FOR THE FALLEN OF 9-11

God of mercy,
in your word of Scripture, you instruct us to "Do to others as you would have them do to you."
Give us today the courage to assist those around us who may need our assistance.
Give us patience when we become impatient.
Remind us to pray for all those who perished on
United Airlines 93, American Airlines 11,
United Airlines 175, American Airlines 77,
and those in the Twin Towers and Pentagon.
Give us a heart
thankful for those who gave their lives
as first responders, as did the men and women who ran into danger to be of aid.
We ask all this in the name of the One
who first responded to our need for a savior,
Jesus the Christ.
Amen.

Pregnant and scared? Sisters of Life share 8 messages of hope after Roe (Part I)

The Sisters of Life – religious women dedicated to promoting the inherent dignity and worth of every human person – are offering hope to pregnant women who might feel like abortion is their only option.”

Following the Supreme Court’s decision in Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization to overturn Roe v. Wade – which legalized abortion nationwide – the sisters responded by promising to “renew our commitment to love.”

Sr. Marie Veritas listed eight messages of hope that the sisters want to tell any pregnant woman who might be struggling and considering abortion. This woman should know, she began, that, “Your dreams are not out of reach.”

“There are real options that will get you back on your feet again, never regretting what might have been,” Sr. Marie Veritas urged. “You don’t need to feel pressured to have an abortion.”

She also stressed that “Circumstances can change.”

“It may seem like this pregnancy could not have come at a worse time,” she said. “Perhaps, you know your family will be disappointed and you expect that they will not support you. You are terrified that your dreams and plans for the future will never be realized. The struggles of your current situation are real, but hope holds the promise of a new beginning.”

Before making a decision, she encouraged women to “Give yourself space.”

“Impulsive decisions may lead to regret,” she cautioned. “We make the best choices when our hearts are calm. Allow yourself time to research all the facts and think clearly through the options. There is time to make a plan that will bring you to a place of freedom and to a decision you won’t regret.”

At the same time, she said, women should remember that they have support:

“Secret decisions lead to heartache,” she said, adding, “You are not alone.”

“Women facing an unexpected pregnancy may be embarrassed and ashamed,” she said. “The first inclination is to hide their ‘mistake,’ or to ‘take care of the problem,’ before anyone knows. This often leads to regret.”

She encouraged women to reach out for help.

“You are not alone in this journey,” Sr. Marie Veritas said. “Take time and allow us to connect you with those who have been in similar situations and who are willing to share their perspective.”
