JAN 15, 2023 | SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God.” - Jn 1:34

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

January 15, 2023, Second Sunday of Ordinary Time— Formed.org.

Video overview: When we say the words of the Agnus Dei, or Lamb of God, during Mass, we are directly quoting John the Baptist. The scene is set on the banks of the Jordan River. John has been gathering disciples by powerfully calling for repentance in light of the coming kingdom of God. One day, as he sees Jesus, he cries out, "Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world!" John was a great leader, but he recognized that he was not the center of the movement he had begun. He was the forerunner, the voice in the desert. John understood that his role was humbly to prepare others to follow Christ to be a witness to the glory of God, the one who shows the way. It was not and never would be to draw attention to himself. By calling Jesus the "Lamb of God," John sums up his entire mission: he is to prepare the way for the One who will come, to actually take away our sins, not just call us to repentance. John recognizes Jesus as the Savior and exhorts us to do the same. John's words about Jesus would have had a powerful impact on those who heard them because they would have called to mind the sacrifices of the Old Testament, particularly the Sacrifice of Passover. In the Passover, the blood of a lamb protected the faithful Israelites from the Angel of Death. Now John the Baptist calls Jesus the lamb of the New Passover, the one who will spare all of humanity from eternal separation from God. Jesus is the perfect, true sacrifice that all the old sacrifices had been pointing toward. He is truly the Lamb of God.

Featured study: Lectio: Eucharist: Episode 3: Lamb of God. Dr Pitre teaches this class!

Reflection: In this passage, we're told that John identified Jesus as the "Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world." Commentators suggest that this might be allusion to the Passover lamb consumed by the Jews as a commemoration of the Exodus event, to the prophetic witness in regard to the "suffering servant of Yahweh," to the symbolic representation of a horned lamb that's made for some of the heroes of Israel, or to the twice daily sacrifice of a lamb in the temple of Jerusalem. John the Baptist unites all of these symbolically when he recognizes Jesus as the "Lamb of God." The Jews considered the offering of Isaac by Abraham to be a pivotal event in salvation history. Rather than requiring the sacrifice of Isaac, God sent an angel to Abraham to point out a ram (an adult male sheep caught by his horns in a thicket to be offered instead. This would be consistent with the Christian notion, prominent in the Liturgy of the Triduum, that Isaac is a symbolic foreshadowing of Jesus who is the beloved Son of God, just as Isaac was the beloved son of Abraham. At the end of our passage from John's Gospel, John the Baptist, after calling Jesus the Lamb of God, also identifies him as "the Son of God."

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY JANUARY 18-25

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity has a history of over 100 years, in which Christians around the world have taken part in an octave of prayer for visible Christian unity. By annually observing the WPCU, Christians move toward the fulfillment of Jesus' prayer at the Last Supper "that they all may be one." (cf. John 17:21)

Prayer for Christian Unity

Heavenly Father, hear our prayer for unity, that we may all love each other as you first loved us. May we act with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience toward one another, living in unity with you. Amen.

MINISTRY TO THE SICK & HOMEBOUND

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

(EMHCs) who take Communion to the sick and homebound have a role in sharing the Church's total ministry to the sick after the manner of Jesus. In bringing Communion to the sick and homebound the EMHC represents Christ, manifests faith and charity on behalf of the whole community towards those who cannot be present at the Mass. This ministry is a sign of support and concern shown by the community for its members. We are in need of more volunteers to become Eucharistic Ministers for this undertaking. Vatican News

By Courtney Mares, Vatican City, Dec 25, 2022

On Christmas Day, Pope Francis prays for Prince of Peace to end 'third world war' (Article continued)

The “Urbi et Orbi” blessing — which refers to the pope’s dual roles as bishop of Rome and head of the global Catholic Church — is reserved for the most solemn occasions, such as Easter, Christmas, and the first public appearance of a new pope.

In this year’s Christmas “Urbi et Orbi” address, the pope highlighted specific conflicts around the world, beginning with Ukraine, noting that the war has far-reaching consequences, “putting entire peoples at risk of famine, especially in Afghanistan and in the countries of the Horn of Africa.”

Pope Francis also mentioned Syria, where he said that the conflict has “receded into the background but has not ended.”

“Let us think too of the Holy Land, where in recent months violence and confrontations have increased, bringing death and injury in their wake. Let us beseech the Lord that there, in the land that witnessed his birth, dialogue and efforts to build mutual trust between Palestinians and Israelis may resume,” he said.

The pope also asked the Christ Child to help Lebanon and to “sustain all the Christian communities living in the Middle East.” He called for “an end to all bloodshed” in Yemen, Myanmar, and Iran, and prayed for “the light of Christ to illumine” the Sahel region of Africa, where “peaceful coexistence between peoples and traditions is disrupted by conflict and acts of violence.”
