5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden.” - Mt 5:14

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

February 5, 2023, Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time— Formed.org.

Review: To understand today's Gospel, we need to consider what salt and light meant in Jesus' time. Since we can now buy all the salt we would ever need at any grocery store and have light any time at the flick of a switch, it is hard for us to comprehend how special both were in ancient Israel. Salt was so valuable it was part of the pay of Roman soldiers. Light came only in the form of fire or small oil lamps. In both cases, salt and light were valuable. That's what Jesus is telling us in this week's Gospel. We must be valuable signs of God's love and grace for the world. We need to season and preserve the world like salt and illuminate the darkness of sin and despair like a light in the night. But how do we do that? It's not enough to just go to Mass each Sunday and then hide out the rest of the week under the barrel of daily life. We must learn how to take our faith out of the box of the church and bring it into the world. We must live every moment of our lives as true witnesses to the Faith we have received. This is more than just a good idea. It's one of Jesus's basic instructions on how we are to live as children of God.

Featured study: Light of the World by Peter Seewald and Pope Benedict XVI. It is six incredible hours of insight!

Reflection: In this section from his Sermon on the Mount, Jesus reminds us that we are the world's light, like a city set on a hill. Jerusalem was set upon a hill. The light that a city could cast at night was fantastic to an ancient man or woman—the sheer size of the combined human effort and the common concern for mutual welfare that a city represented made it even more marvelous. The city of which Jesus speaks isn't thrilling for the same reason that New York or Paris is thrilling. The city, or nation, to which we belong attracts for much the same reason that Jerusalem attracted the Jews. On its highest mount, Zion, the Temple drew Jews from all over the world, because there one could experience not the highest things of earth but rather the lowest realms of heaven. As Jesus says in the last line of this passage, we are to attract others by our heavenly goodness and by the praise that we give to our heavenly father. We are not to desire that others look up to us, but rather that they might join us on that height, which is the Church, so that we might both look up together.

2023 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL WEEKEND

On the weekend of February 18th, we will have the opportunity to accompany those who are suffering through the Annual Catholic Appeal. Each of our gifts, no matter the amount, makes a difference in someone's life. Catholic Charities can respond to the greatest needs in our communities. Seminarians receive support as they prepare to serve our local parishes. Catholic schools in economically-challenged neighborhoods can provide tuition assistance. And, our St. Vincent de Paul, Gabriel Project, Food Locker and Youth Ministry all receive support for another year. Of what is contributed by SJV parishioners for the needs of all, 25% returns to SJV for outreach to those in need within the parish. Prayerfully consider what you can give this year.

'Pope Francis blesses participants in March for Life'

Pope Francis has sent his blessing “as a pledge of strength and joy in the Lord,” to everyone taking part in the March for Life in the United States, “and to all those who support them by their prayers and sacrifices.”

The Pope’s blessing was conveyed in a message addressed to Bishop Michael Burbidge of Arlington, the chair of the USCCB’s Committee on Pro-Life Activities. The message was read at the National Prayer Vigil for Life, which took place in the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. The March for Life is one of the largest demonstrations each year in the nation’s Capital. Originally organized in response to the Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion throughout the country in 1973, the March has evolved to promote “the beauty and dignity of every human life by working to end abortion – uniting, educating, and mobilizing pro-life people in the public square.”

In his message, Cardinal Parolin said Pope Francis is “deeply grateful for the faithful witness shown publicly over the years by all who promote and defend the right to life of the most innocent and vulnerable members of our human family.” Noting that “the building of a truly just society rests upon respect for the sacred dignity of every person.... Cardinal Parolin went on to say that Pope Francis “trusts that Almighty God will strengthen the commitment of all, to persevere in their efforts aimed at protecting human life in all its stages, especially through adequate legal measures enacted at every level of society.”
