6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors,
Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow." - Mt 5:33

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

February 12, 2023, Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time— Formed.org.

Review: This week's Gospel is all about the Law. It starts with the beginning of the Sermon on the Mount, which contains Jesus's teaching about loving your enemies, as well as the Beatitudes. We may never have given any thought as to why Jesus gave these teachings on the side of a mountain, but the time and place matter if we are to truly understand how radical Jesus's message was in his time. In first-century Israel, the hill country of Galilee was the hotbed of revolt. Revolutionaries and radicals sometimes went to this area to plot against Herod and the Romans, who were a hated occupying force. If you saw Jesus heading to the Mount, you might have assumed he was going to give a fiery speech against the Roman oppressors. If you had followed him, what you would have heard is a not a "Down with Rome!" speech, but a set of teachings about how he came not to abolish the Law of the Old Testament, but to fulfill it. Jesus's message was radical and revisionary, but not in the way people expected. Jesus didn't come to say that he would free us from the moral standards of the Old Testament Law, but instead he "ups the ante." For instance, adultery is condemned under the Old Law; Jesus says that even thinking lustful thoughts is sinful under the New Law. He refocuses attention, not on a series of commands written in stone, but rather on a law that is written in the hearts of humanity. His is a revolutionary teaching, not against an oppressive government but against our own hardness of heart. In this week's Gospel, Jesus calls us to give more than we can ever imagine, but he also promises to give us the grace and ability to fulfill that call.

Featured study: The Beatitudes and the story of Job. Sit down with the family and listen to this together. It is worth it.

Reflection: Matthew shows us that Jesus understood himself to be an important instrument in God's plan for the future of Israel and the Gentiles as well. In this passage, Jesus explains that his intention IS NOT to abolish all that has preceded him in God's revelation to the Jewish people, particularly the laws given through Moses. Rather, he has "come not to abolish, but to fulfill" Jesus's position on the Law is perfectly in concert with both his divine nature and his human nature. He will fulfill, not abolish, all that has gone before. He shows us just what he means by giving a list of particular references to murder, adultery, divorce, and false witness. In each case, with one exception, he doesn't abolish what went before. On the contrary, he strengthens the requirement, placing a deeper obligation on the Christian disciple than the Mosaic Law had done on the Jew. We see Jesus not only acting as the new Moses, but correcting Moses and speaking on behalf of God's original design. In Matthew, Jesus isn't merely a new Moses but the God who spoke to Moses. It's in this capacity that he fulfills the Law by calling the disciple, not merely to obedience, but also to a deeper, more obedient love.

From the Pastor

FEBRUARY 12, 2023

Father, as we prepare for World Marriage Day, we thank you for your tremendous gift of the Sacrament of Marriage.

Help us to witness to its glory by a life of growing intimacy.

Teach us the beauty of forgiveness so we may become more and more One in Heart, Mind and Body.

Strengthen our dialogue and help us become living signs of your love.

Make us grow more in love with the Church so we may renew the Body of Christ.

Make us a sign of unity in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Brother.

Amen.

SJV School

Save the date! St. John Vianney Catholic School is hosting its annual fundraiser dinner on March 18, 2023.

This event is special to the school as it is an opportunity for our community to come together and enjoy an evening of fun, delicious food, raffle, dancing and most importantly, fundraising for the students of SJV School.

Tickets will be available for purchase after Mass and in the school office in mid-February.

Please contact the school with any questions: (916) 363-4610.

We look forward to seeing you there!

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD (CLOW)

Children's Liturgy of The Word (CLOW) is starting back up. CLOW will only be offered at the 10 am Mass. However, we would like to offer this at every Mass. For this we need you! Contact Veronica Zeller, faithformation@sjvparish.com

DIVINE MERCY APOSTOLATE

Come join and help spread the Unfathomable Mercy and Grace available to each and every soul. You're invited to the Eucharistic Adoration every Monday in the main church in front of the Tabernacle. During the Hour of Mercy (3pm), we recite the Divine Mercy Chaplet, the Life Rosary, and the Divine Praises. We also meditate on the evening Liturgy of the Hour. For information on yearly celebrations and events, contact: Consuelo Cardwell, divinemercy@sjvparish.com.

PARISH VOCATION COMMITTEE

St. John Vianney Vocation Committee exists to foster vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Our purpose is to guide and encourage our parish community in prayer. We also assist in giving information about vocations, support and encourage promising candidates and re-direct them to our pastor or our Diocesan Office of Vocation.

If you are considering the religious life, or know anyone who is thinking about religious life, please contact:

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS)

He spoke another parable to them,
"The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three pecks of flour until it was all leavened."

In the atrium we are all following Jesus on His journey through the land of Israel. We know He wants all the people to know about God and God's Kingdom. We enjoyed learning about the parables of the Kingdom of God. These past weeks, we attentively listened to the parable of the mustard seed, that tiny little seed that grew so big that it became a magnificent tree. Jesus said that His Kingdom is like the mustard seed. Jesus said the Kingdom of God is also like leaven. We had a great time working with water, yeast and flour.

We saw how our dough rose and it smelled so good, like cookies. We love the Kingdom of God! We are little like the mustard seeds and we are growing to be very big and very good. Pray that we grow big in the love for God!

Vatican News

By Hannah Brockhaus, Vatican City, Feb. 2, 2023

'Pope Francis on World Day for Consecrated Life: Religious have 'special role' in the Church'

On the 27th World Day for Consecrated Life, Pope Francis recalled the special role religious brothers and sisters have in the Catholic Church.

"In the People of God, sent to bring the Gospel to all people, you consecrated men and women have a special role," the pope said in a written message for Feb. 2.

This special role, he continued, stems "from the special gift you have received: a gift that gives your witness a special character and value, by the very fact that you are wholly dedicated to God and his kingdom, in poverty, virginity, and obedience."

Pope Francis' message was read at the beginning of a Mass for consecrated men and women in Rome's St. Mary Major Basilica on Feb. 2.

Pope Francis usually celebrates a special Mass in St. Peter's Basilica to mark the World Day for Consecrated Life but was unable to do so this year because the day fell in the middle of his Jan. 31-Feb. 5 trip to the Democratic Republic of Congo and South Sudan.

The Feb. 2 Mass in St. Mary Major was celebrated by the prefect of the Vatican's Dicastery for Consecrated Life, Cardinal João Braz de Aviz, who read the pope's message to those present.

"When you hear this message from me, I will be on mission in the Democratic Republic of Congo, and I know that I will be accompanied by your prayers," the pope said. "In turn, I want to assure you of mine for the mission of each of you and your communities."
