FEB 19, 2023 | SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

7TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.” - Mt 5:44

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

February 19, 2023, Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time— Formed.org.

Review: Mt 5:38-48. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus lays out many of his basic life teachings. Several of them are extraordinarily difficult for us to understand, much less put into practice. Two of these are the famous “turn the other cheek” and “love your enemy” admonitions. To understand what Jesus is saying and what it means to us today, we first need to understand that He is addressing the Jews, the Chosen People. They have been given the truth about the one God and God’s commandments in the Law. God entered a special relationship with them because God wanted them to be the means by which these truths were conveyed to the entire world. Many Jews in the first century, however, saw non-Jews, i.e., the Gentiles and especially the Romans, as enemies. They distanced themselves from the Gentiles and some fought against their Gentile oppressors. But Jesus calls the Jews to love their enemies—to love the very Gentiles who have lived an immoral life far from God and have inflicted so much suffering on the Jewish people. One way of understanding what Jesus is saying about the need to love your enemy is to think of an iron bar. To bend it, you first must heat it. In the same way, if you want to move people and convert them, then you need to apply the heat of love. We can never change the world simply with the iron bar of stating the truth. The proclamation of the truth must be imbued with love. If we merely announce the truth about such things as abortion and marriage; but we do so without loving the people we are speaking to, then it won’t make much difference. They will not change. If we want to convert a pagan, or someone from the secular culture, then we must do so by first applying the radical kind of love Jesus proposes in his teachings.

Featured study: An Introduction to the Beatitudes, Episode 1. THIS IS A MUST WATCH VIDEO, only 10 minutes.

Reflection: In this passage of the Beatitudes, the connection between the Torah, the Old Law, and the new Law in Christ is even more pronounced. Jesus extends, tightens, or strengthens the old law by phrasing it in a new commandment. Jesus is clearly acting as the voice of the Law as had Moses. If we look at the sources for the commandments of the Old Law that Jesus cites, we see that he’s not just quoting Moses. In each case where Jesus is citing the Old Law, he makes a reference to direct commands from God himself. The first two references are from the Ten Commandments, but the last three are from the Levitical code. Each of those commands in Leviticus closes with the phrase “I am the Lord” or “I, the Lord, am your God.” By citing and then changing these commands of Yahweh, Jesus is implicitly saying the same thing, “I am the Lord.” Only the Lord could expand upon God’s law. Matthew thereby shows us that Jesus isn’t merely a new Moses, but the God who spoke through Moses and who has the authority to promulgate a New Law.

WHAT IS ASH WEDNESDAY?

Ash Wednesday is one of the most popular and important holy days in the liturgical calendar. Ash Wednesday opens Lent, a season of fasting and prayer, and takes place 46 days before Easter Sunday.

Ash Wednesday comes from the ancient Jewish tradition of penance and fasting. The ashes symbolize the dust from which God made us. As the priest applies the ashes to a person’s forehead, he speaks the words: “Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return.” Alternatively, the priest may speak the words, “Repent and believe in the Gospel.” Ashes also symbolize grief, in this case, grief that we have sinned and caused division from God.

Priests administer ashes during Mass and all are invited to accept the ashes as a visible symbol of penance. The ashes are made from blessed palm branches, taken from the previous year’s Palm Sunday Mass.

DONATIONS WELCOME

- SERVICES — Hair stylist, Car Wash, Massage/Facial
- GOODS — Wine Basket, TV, BBQs, Video Game Console
- TICKETS — Sacramento Kings, Sacramento Theater, A’s, Giants

2023 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL WEEKEND

February 18 & 19

Today we join together through the Annual Catholic Appeal.

We may not all be social workers, yet through the Annual Catholic Appeal, the whole Catholic community leans in to help our Catholic charities, and our own parish, to sustain programs and ministries that help lift our neighbors and friends out of the hardships of poverty.

The Annual Catholic Appeal is dedicated solely to the social mission of the Church here in Northern California. Last year, 380,000 people were helped by Appeal-funded charitable works. Please be as generous as you can. Every gift makes a profound difference in someone's life.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS)

Sunday was the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time. One more Sunday and we in the atrium will have a procession to change the "Green" color of our Prayer Table to "Purple". Yes, "Purple". Purple is for preparation, and we will be doing little things to prepare our hearts during Lent for the celebration of Easter. In Lent, we will reflect on the parables of The Good Shepherd, The Found Sheep, and Psalm 23. We love to listen to the Good Shepherd and to all the things He does for His loved sheep. We love and enjoy our work in the atrium that helps us to understand and love all our Good Shepherd Jesus does for us. Jesus was busy walking and telling everyone about the great kingdom of God all around Israel. We in the atrium are busy listening and learning about His love for us and for the Kingdom of Heaven. Ash Wednesday will mark the beginning of Lent and is on February 22nd. Let us all get ready for Lent. Let's be in preparation for the big celebration that is coming.

'Pope to Doctors: Don't be discouraged'

Meeting physicians and the sick ahead of the upcoming World Day of the Sick, Pope Francis told the doctors to never be discouraged, for it is the face of Jesus, in those they serve, and that the Lord is closest to those in fragility.

The annual World Day is marked on 11 February, it was introduced by Pope St. John Paul II as a way for believers to offer prayers for those suffering from illnesses.

Thanking all those committed to healthcare ministry, the Pope recalled the meeting takes place in the context of the World Day of the Sick, which this year, in the context of the synodal journey, has as its theme the Gospel motto 'Take care of him' from the Gospel according to St. Luke.

Pope Francis noted that these are the words the Good Samaritan uses when addressing the innkeeper, to whom he entrusts the wounded man, he has rescued. The Pope invited those before him to recall this scene.

He pointed out that the work of those before him, likewise, was born thanks to this dynamic, namely being able "to transform the experience of suffering into closeness to the pain of others, overcoming the temptation to close oneself off, raising one's head, bending one's knees and stretching out one's hands."

The Pope went on to emphasise three important attitudes of this journey: firstly, becoming close to those who suffer; secondly, giving voice to unheard suffering; thirdly, becoming an engaging leaven of charity.
