29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” - Mk 10:43-45

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Practice the Humility of Service

“Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” (Mark 10: 43-45)

Probably it is human instinct, deformed by original sin, which leads us to think that the one in command is great and the one who serves is, in some way, inferior, a poor wretch. Because instinct is wounded by sin, that is why we flee from service and seek to be served.

Christ, knowing the human soul, wants to challenge this accepted standard. He does this in two ways, by example and by teaching. Not only at that last supper in which he washed the apostles' feet but time and time again he showed his attitude of service. On this occasion, as the Evangelist Mark tells us, he wanted to teach it explicitly, speaking about himself ("the Son of man did not come to be served, but to serve") and telling his followers that they should imitate him and do the same. It will be a question, then, of putting into practice what the Master did and taught. Since no one is as great as Christ is, no one has to demean or humble themselves as much as he did. It is about serving and doing so with joy, without complaining, knowing that in this way the Lord is imitated and loved in our brothers. Of course, it must be a prudent service that doesn't lead to misuse or pampering. But within these parameters, what you have to do is theorize less about service and serve more...for the love of Christ, with the help of Christ and as did Mary, the handmaid of the Lord.

Resolution: Never consider yourself so important that you can't help others. Practice humility of service, beginning with the fulfillment of your obligations.

From the Pastor |

Palabras Del Pastor

My dear parishioners,

We continue to analyze the virtue of gratitude from the perspective of our relationship with God. Last week I pointed out that gratitude is a human virtue that, rooted in the virtue of justice and of religion, manifests a sense of duty toward the Creator to acknowledge all that He has given to us. By being grateful we consider God as our Benefactor and we as His beneficiaries and debtors.

But what is the specific object of gratitude? The specific object of this virtue is a favor received. A favor is something that we cannot claim as a right. Whenever we thank God, we recognize that we do not deserve what we have received, that God has gratuitously given it to us. By gratuity we mean that God has not being forced to give it to us, that He has freely and unconditionally given it. Our response to His gracious gratuity must be gratuitous as well. Gratitude is the gratuitous response to His graciousness.

Let's recap. Gratitude makes us be aware of a debt we have contracted with God and demands the moral obligation to respond to the favor received. If we do not feel the need to return what we have received, then we are failing to be just, then gratitude is just mere courtesy.

We know that we cannot return everything we have received from God, but gratitude enables us to correspond at least in the same manner He has given everything to us, that is, in a gratuitous way. The only thing we have in our power, what really belongs to us is our ability to love Him back without expecting anything back from Him. In this sense, gratitude is the purest expression of our love for God, because true love is unconditional. Otherwise, we would not be talking about gratitude but about mere commercial justice. We cannot return everything the Lord has given us, but we can love Him in the same manner He has loved us, and this is possible with the virtue of gratitude.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in you.
Fr. Antonio Gutierrez, FM
Pastor

Mis queridos feligreses,

Continuamos analizando la virtud del agradecimiento desde la perspectiva de nuestra relación con Dios. La semana pasada señalé que el agradecimiento es una virtud humana que, enraizada en la virtud de la justicia y de la religión, manifiesta un sentido del deber hacia el Creador, pues nos lleva a reconocer todo lo que Él nos ha dado. Al ser agradecidos consideramos a Dios como nuestro Benefactor y a nosotros como sus beneficiarios y deudores.

Pero ¿cuál es el objeto específico del agradecimiento? El objeto específico de esta virtud es un favor recibido. Un favor es algo que no podemos reclamar como un derecho. Siempre que damos gracias a Dios, reconocemos que no merecemos lo que hemos recibido de Él, que nos lo ha dado gratuitamente. Por gratuidad entendemos que Dios no se ha visto obligado a concedernos un favor determinado, que nos lo ha dado libre e incondicionalmente. Nuestra respuesta a Su generosa gratuidad debe ser también gratuita. El agradecimiento es la respuesta gratuita a Su bondad.

Recapitulemos. El agradecimiento nos hace conscientes de una deuda que hemos contraído con Dios y nos exige la obligación moral de responder al favor recibido. Si no sentimos la necesidad de devolver lo que hemos recibido, entonces no estamos siendo justos, entonces el agradecimiento se queda en mera cortesía.

Sabemos que no podemos devolverle a Dios todo lo que hemos recibido de Él, pero el agradecimiento nos permite corresponder al menos de la misma manera que Él nos lo ha dado todo, es decir, de forma gratuita. Lo único que tenemos en nuestro poder, lo que realmente nos pertenece, es nuestra capacidad de corresponderle sin esperar nada a cambio. En este sentido, el agradecimiento es la expresión más pura de nuestro amor a Dios, porque el verdadero amor es incondicional. De lo contrario, no estaríamos hablando del agradecimiento, sino de mera justicia comercial. No podemos devolver todo lo que el Señor nos ha dado, pero podemos amarle de la misma manera que Él nos ha amado, y esto es posible con el agradecimiento.

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en Vos confío.
P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM
Párroco

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

This week we will be discussing The OCIA Process and Rites in particular the Rite of Acceptance in our fourteenth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 27th of October 2024. In this step after a period of reflection, prayer, instruction, discernment, formation and participation in the Liturgy of the Word our Inquirers will be preparing for acceptance into the Order of Catechumens – and into the Household of Christ.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward fuller communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good

THE LITURGICAL CALENDAR AND VISIT TO CHURCH

What is the Liturgical Calendar? It's the calendar of the Catholic Church and it starts with Advent. We continue with Christmas, then a short Ordinary Time season followed by Lent, then Easter and Pentecost. Next we have a long Ordinary Time, the time of year we all are on vacation- no atrium, no school, just plain fun. The most important feasts of our liturgical calendar are Christmas, Easter and Pentecost.

A visit to our Church, is done in October. We want to visit Jesus who is present in the tabernacle. In our atrium, God is always with us, but especially so in the Eucharist. We want to visit Jesus present in the tabernacle, and ask to help us know Him better and to teach us to love Him more every day. We are His children and want to be with Jesus, our Good Shepherd. I love you Jesus!
