30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?"
The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. - Mk 10:51-52

OLP

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Flee from Moral Relativism

The blind man threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. (Mark 10: 51-52)

Bartimaeus was a blind man. He wanted to end his suffering, to regain his sight. That is why he dared to bother Jesus. With his insistence, he even angered those who accompanied the Master. Bartimaeus had, then, three characteristics: He was blind and he knew it; it hurt him to be like that so he wanted to be cured; and he found the means to achieve it.

If we convert the case of Bartimaeus into moral blindness, we see that his characteristics do not usually occur nowadays. In the first place, people refuse to admit that they are blind, that is, they refuse to accept the moral principles of the Church and prefer to say that what is good for them is good even though it is actually bad. Second, since they do not want to recognize themselves as blind, it does not hurt them and they do not seek to be healed. That is precisely why they are not cured. Therefore, it can be said of many men and women of our time that there is no worse blind person than the one who does not want to see. It should be added that, if they do not want to see, it is because it is not convenient for them to see.

Let's imitate Bartimaeus. Let's acknowledge our sins. It doesn't matter whether they are abundant or repetitive. God's mercy is infinite and there is no guilt that cannot be forgiven. God is willing to heal us as many times as it takes. He just hopes that we ask him, insistently and humbly.

Resolution: Make an examination of conscience of your sins and ask for forgiveness, regardless of whether they are faults that you commit many times. Accept the moral principles of the Church.

From the Pastor |

Palabras Del Pastor

My dear parishioners,

Last week we concluded that the virtue of gratitude is the specific response to God's favors. Gratitude is the gratuitous response to God's gratuitous love. He loved us first unconditionally without us deserving it, and in reply to that love we ought to love Him unconditionally too. Gratitude is a demand from justice.

There is an anonymous Spanish "Sonnet to Christ Crucified" from the 16th century that I think will illustrate much better the gratuity aspect of thankfulness that I am talking about.

I am not moved, my God, to love You by the heaven that You have promised me and I am not moved either by hell so feared as the reason to stop offending You.
You move me, my Lord, it moves me to see You nailed to a cross and your flesh destroyed, what moves me is to see your body so injured, what moves me is your suffering and your death. What moves me, finally, is your love, and in such way, that even if there was no heaven, I would love You, and even if there was no hell, I would fear You. You don't have to give me for me to love You, so even if what I hope for I did not hope, the same that I love You, I would love You.

This Sonnet so beautifully and perfectly describes the sentiment of gratefulness. I pray and hope that gratitude fills up our hearts in such a way that we may grow in a purer love for God.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in you.
Fr. Antonio Gutierrez, FM
Pastor

Mis queridos feligreses,

La semana pasada concluimos que la virtud del agradecimiento es la respuesta específica a los favores de Dios. El agradecimiento es la respuesta gratuita al amor gratuito de Dios. Él nos amó primero, incondicionalmente, sin que nosotros lo mereciéramos, y en respuesta a ese amor nosotros también debemos amarle incondicionalmente. El agradecimiento es una exigencia de la virtud de la justicia.

Hay un «Soneto a Cristo Crucificado» anónimo español del siglo XVI que creo que ilustrará mucho mejor el aspecto de gratuidad del agradecimiento del que estoy hablando.

No me mueve, mi Dios, para quererte el cielo que me tienes prometido, ni me mueve el infierno tan temido para dejar por eso de ofenderte.
Tú me mueves, Señor, muéveme el verte clavado en una cruz y escarnecido, muéveme ver tu cuerpo tan herido, muévenme tus afrentas y tu muerte.
Muéveme, en fin, tu amor, y en tal manera,
que aunque no hubiera cielo, yo te amara,
y aunque no hubiera infierno, te temiera.
No me tienes que dar porque te quiera,
pues aunque lo que espero no esperara,
lo mismo que te quiero te quisiera.

Este Soneto describe tan bella y perfectamente el sentimiento de agradecimiento. Rezo y espero que el agradecimiento llene nuestros corazones de tal manera que podamos crecer en un amor más puro por Dios.

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en Vos confío.
P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM
Párroco

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

This week we will be discussing The OCIA Process and Rites in particular the Rite of Acceptance in our fourteenth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 3rd of November. In this step after a period of reflection, prayer, instruction, discernment, formation and participation in the Liturgy of the Word our Inquirers will be preparing for acceptance into the Order of Catechumens – and into the Household of Christ.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward fuller communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Communion to the Sick / Homebound

All Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHC) to the sick /homebound are required to have:

- The Commissioning Rite to give Communion to the Sick.
- “The Administration of Communion to the Sick by an Extraordinary Minister” booklet.
- A corded burse.
- A pyx.
- A purificator.
- Safe Environment compliant if bringing Communion to the sick/homebound that are not family members.

To bring Communion to the sick, the EMHC will bring their empty and purified pyx before Mass along with their burse. To purify a pyx, clean it with water, and consume the water. Wipe it with a purificator, wring out any excess water from the purificator in the ground.
