OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST,
KING OF THE UNIVERSE

"Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." - Jn 18:37

Excerpts from the Lectioary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD, ©LPI

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe: Our Lord and King in the Poor

“Then the king will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food’” (Mt 25: 34-35)

Our Lord and King is in the poor. This is probably how Saint Francis of Assisi would have interpreted the Gospel text in which Jesus speaks of service rendered to those who suffer as service rendered to Himself, and which the Church chose for the Solemnity of Christ, King of the Universe.

To Saint Francis, Christ was his King. It was for Christ, that he renounced the glories he expected to find in warfare, when he understood that the battles he had to fight on behalf of his Lord were those against poverty, suffering, loneliness and ingratitude. Saint Francis' example, like that of all saints, confronts us with a twofold reality: the need to clearly proclaim that Christ alone is our Lord, the only one who has to right to be first in our life; and that we ought to hasten to serve our King where He needs us the most and where He wants to be served: in the poor. Christ is first in our life, and through Him, the poor as well, for wherever there is pain, there is God waiting for us in need of our help.

But this Sunday's reading also tells us something else, in line with what the readings of the previous Sundays have taught us: God will judge us; and He will do so by taking into account not only the evil we have done, but also the good we have failed to do. In the example given in the Gospel, the punished are not accused of having done evil; they are not accused of stealing but for not having done good, for not having given the alms they could have given.

Resolution: Every time someone asks you for help, and knowing you can help him, tell the Lord: “It is You who needs me. I do it for You.” and then help him, regardless of whether he deserves it or not.

Palabras Del Pastor

My dear parishioners,

...And when he saw them, he said, “Go show yourselves to the priests.” As they were going, they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus was moved with pity for those lepers. He felt their anguish, their pain, their longing. His mercy and their pain became one in His Divine Heart. And by a Word of His mouth, they were cleansed. It's interesting to see that one of them, upon noticing that he was cleansed, and not yet having gone to see the priests for the certification of his healing and reinstatement into the community, immediately returned to Jesus, glorifying God in a loud voice. He was overjoyed, and almost by instinct, went back to the Lord Jesus, fell at his feet and thanked Him.

He thought of the Lord. He received a huge favor, a miracle, and felt the duty to thank Him. The others realized they were cleansed, but kept thinking of themselves, maybe pondering about starting a new business as soon as they returned to a normal life.

A grateful person thinks of God first, of all the good he has received from Him, and returns to Him to love Him back. Whereas the prideful, the selfish, is so self-centered that he thinks of himself only. The cleansing Jesus wanted to do in them was ultimately the purification of their hearts: the transformation of their stony hearts into a heart of flesh, a humble heart. Humility is the threshold for a life filled with gratitude. If I do not recognize that I do not deserve what I have received, then I would not give thanks. The humble person always finds a reason to be grateful, a reason to come back to the Lord. Even if he has turned away from Him, he would always feel so undeservingly loved that he would repent immediately to cast himself into the arms of the Divine Shepherd.

As we approach Thanksgiving Day, let us come to realize that we were once lepers, that we have many reasons to come back to church, God's house, to give thanks and be reconciled to Him, who did not run away from the leprosy of our sins, but who embraced us and re-established us into a new life.

To reexperience the joy of life, let us come to Mass, the Sacrifice of Thanksgiving where we sing His mercies, where we count His blessings, and where our hearts are replenished with new passion to live.

Happy Thanksgiving!
Fr. Antonio Gutierrez, FM.
Pastor

Mis queridos feligreses,

...Al verlos, les dijo: «Id a presentaros a los sacerdotes». Y sucedió que, mientras iban de camino, quedaron limpios. Uno de ellos, viendo que estaba curado, se volvió alabando a Dios a grandes gritos y se postró a los pies de Jesús, rostro en tierra, dándole gracias. Este era un samaritano. (Lc 17, 14-16)

El Sagrado Corazón de Jesús se compadeció de aquellos leprosos. Sintió su angustia, su dolor, su anhelo. Su misericordia y su dolor se unieron en su Divino Corazón. Y por una palabra de Su boca, quedaron sanos. Es interesante ver que uno de ellos, al darse cuenta de que estaba curado, y no habiendo ido todavía a ver a los sacerdotes para que certificaran su curación y se reinsertara en la comunidad, volvió inmediatamente a Jesús, glorificando a Dios en voz alta. Estaba sobrecargado de gozo y, casi por instinto, volvió junto al Señor Jesús, se postró a sus pies y le dio gracias.

Pensó en el Señor. Recibió un gran favor, un milagro, y sintió el deber de darle las gracias. Los demás se dieron cuenta de que habían sanado, pero siguieron pensando en sí mismos, tal vez planificando iniciar un nuevo negocio en cuanto volvieran a una vida normal.

Una persona agradecida piensa primero en Dios, en todo el bien que ha recibido de Él, y regresa a Él para devolverle amor. Mientras que el soberbio, el egoísta, es tan egocéntrico que sólo piensa en sí mismo. La purificación que Jesús quería hacer en ellos era, en definitiva, la purificación de sus corazones: la transformación de sus corazones de piedra en un corazón de carne, un corazón humilde.

La humildad es el umbral de una vida llena de agradecimiento. Si no reconozco que no merezco lo que he recibido, no daré gracias. La persona humilde siempre encuentra una razón para estar agradecida, una razón para volver al Señor. Aunque se haya alejado de Él, siempre se sentiría tan inmerecidamente amado que se arrepentiría inmediatamente para arrojarse en los brazos del Buen Pastor.

Al acercarnos al día de acción de gracias, démonos cuenta de que una vez fuimos leprosos, de que tenemos muchas razones para volver a la Iglesia, la casa de Dios, para dar gracias y reconciliarnos con Él; Él que no huyó de la lepra de nuestros pecados, sino que nos acogió y nos dio en una vida nueva.

Para volver a experimentar la alegría de vivir, vayamos a Misa, el Sacrificio de Acción de Gracias donde cantamos las misericordias del Señor, Sus bendiciones, y donde nuestros corazones se llenan de nueva ilusión por vivir.

¡Feliz día de acción de gracias!
P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"Is any one among you sick? Let him bring in the presbyters [priests] of the Church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith will save the sick man, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he be in sins, they shall be forgiven him." (Epistle of St. James 5:14-15)

This week we will be discussing The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick in our twentieth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 1st of December 2024.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward fuller communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

THE PREPARATION OF THE CHALICE

In the preparation of the chalice, the priest uses wine that represents Jesus' divinity and water that represents His humanity. This wine and water also represent the union between God and His people. The priest mixes the wine with a few drops of water to show us that we are inseparable from God. Once the water is in the wine, it cannot be separated anymore. This mixing reminds us that we must be in constant and inseparable union with God. God wants us to be part of Him as He wants to be part of us. Let us come to Mass more often to remember our inseparable union with God: God and us, His people.
