1ST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

"Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand." - Lk 21:27-28

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

First Sunday of Advent: Awakening the conscience

Watch, therefore; you do not know when the lord of the house is coming, whether in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning. May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping. (Mc 13: 35-36)

Advent begins the same way the Ordinary Time ended the weeks before: with a warning and an invitation to be prepared. The Lord, in the parable of the ten virgins, told us that we do not know either the day nor the hour when death arrives; this time He speaks of the ignorance the servant has about when the lord of the house will come back. This, too, is about being prepared, but for different things. The first warning was aimed at preparing us for death – which is the definitive life – and judgement. On the other hand, this one is to welcome here on earth the God of life: Christ.

How to prepare ourselves? Naturally, the best way is by having the house ready for the moment when the Lord of the house comes to dwell in it. This means we have to have everything in order, chores done, cracks fixed, and wounds cured. And this can be done, first and foremost, by making an inspection around the house to see carefully what is failing, what is wrong and needs to be fixed. In other words, we have to awaken our conscience so that, as with a light, we may examine our life and soul. In order to do so, we must listen to God's voice through His Word and the Church. What does Christ teach us in the Gospel? What does the Church teach us? In the light of that doctrine, let us review our life to discover what we have to fix before it is too late.

Resolution: I will do a thoroughly examination of conscience on the evil I do and the good I fail to do, in the light of what the Church and the Gospel teach. Then I will go to confession.

From the Pastor

Palabras Del Pastor

My dear parishioners,

... Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you." (Lk 17:17-19)

This beautiful story did not have a full happy end, unfortunately. What must have felt the Sacred Heart of Jesus? We can read in between lines that there was disappointment, sorrow and sadness when He said "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?". Somehow we can imagine and feel His sentiments: how would you feel like if somebody used you as if you were a disposable tissue?

Notice that the Lord said your faith has saved you only to the one who gave thanks. His faith saved him because he gave thanks, because he loved. Saint James says in his letter that if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? Also, just as a body without a spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead (James 2:14.26). The other former lepers had faith in the power of the Lord but did not receive salvation because they had no works of gratitude, works of love.

Gratitude is the bridge between faith and works. Gratitude, in this sense, solves the dilemma of the Lutheran separation between faith and the necessity of merits from good works to enter the Kingdom of heaven, because a true grateful heart wants to show love in a concrete way. Gratitude saves because it leads us to love, to become generous, humble and mindful of others.

Furthermore, gratitude heals us from the leprosy of living out a bitter life, from considering ourselves victims all the time, and from becoming unbearable complainers. Lack of gratitude leads to focus on the bad only, and to feel that nothing suffices us because we think we deserve better. For an ungrateful person, even if things in his life are going pretty well, he would always complain and be sad because his mind is obsessed with the things are not going well. Deep within, ingratitude is a manifestation of pride.

Let us bring joy and comfort to the Sacred Heart of Jesus by imitating the former leper who came back to give Him thanks. Maybe this could be a good resolution for Advent.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in you.
Fr. Antonio Gutierrez, FM.
Pastor

Mis queridos feligreses,

Jesús, tomó la palabra y dijo: «¿No han quedado limpios los diez?; los otros nueve, ¿dónde están? ¿No ha habido quien volviera a dar gloria a Dios más que este extranjero?». Y le dijo: «Levántate, vete; tu fe te ha salvado». (Lc 17,17-19)

Desgraciadamente, esta hermosa historia no tuvo un final plenamente feliz. ¿Qué habrá sentido el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús? Podemos entrever que sintió decepción, dolor y tristeza cuando dijo ¿no han quedado limpios los diez?; los otros nueve, ¿dónde están? ¿No ha habido quien volviera a dar gloria a Dios más que este extranjero?. De alguna manera podemos imaginar y sentir Sus sentimientos: ¿cómo te sentirías si alguien te usara como si fueras un pañuelo desechable?

Fijémonos que el Señor dijo tu fe te ha salvado sólo al que dio gracias. Su fe le salvó porque dio gracias, porque amó. El apóstol Santiago dice en su carta que ¿de qué le sirve a uno, hermanos míos, decir que tiene fe, si no tiene obras? ¿Podrá acaso salvarlo esa fe? También afirma que lo mismo que el cuerpo sin aliento está muerto, así también la fe sin obras está muerta. (Santiago 2, 14.26). Los otros antiguos leprosos tenían fe en el poder del Señor, pero no recibieron la salvación porque no tenían obras de agradecimiento, obras de amor.

El agradecimiento es el puente entre la fe y las obras. El agradecimiento, en este sentido, resuelve el dilema de la separación luterana entre la fe y la necesidad de los méritos de las buenas obras para entrar en el Reino de los cielos, porque un verdadero corazón agradecido quiere mostrar amor de forma tangible. La gratitud salva porque nos lleva a amar, a ser generosos, humildes y a pensar en los demás.

Además, el agradecimiento nos cura de la lepra de vivir amargados, de considerarnos víctimas todo el tiempo y de convertirnos en quejicas insoportables. La falta de gratitud nos lleva a centrarnos sólo en lo malo y a sentir que nada nos satisface porque creemos que merecemos algo mejor. Para una persona ingrata, aunque las cosas en su vida vayan bastante bien, siempre se quejará y estará triste porque su mente está obsesionada con las cosas que no van bien. En el fondo, la ingratitud es una manifestación de soberbia.

Llevemos alegría y consuelo al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús imitando al ex leproso que volvió para darle gracias. Quizá éste pueda ser un buen propósito para el tiempo de Adviento que estamos empezando.

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en vos confío.
P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"In making Marriage a sacrament, Jesus gave it a new meaning, a new beauty, and a new power of sanctifying. Marriage is now not merely the lawful union of husband and wife; it is a source of holiness, a means of a closer union of each spouse with God as well as with each other. The union of husband and wife in marriage is therefore a mirror or a symbol of the union of Christ and his Church." (Life in Christ, Fr. Gerard Weber and Fr. James Killgallon)

This week we will be discussing The Sacrament of Matrimony (Holy Ar-dors) in our eighteenth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 8th of December 2024. Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward fuller communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

PREPARATION TIME

The Advent Season is time for preparation. We are getting ready to celebrate Jesus' Birthday one more time. We'll make our Advent Wreath with four colored candles: three purple and one pink. At this time we listen to the prophe-cies of Isaiah, Micah and Balaam. Isaiah tells us about Je-sus (The Light of the World), about His name and about His Mother. Micah tells us about the city of Bethlehem and Balaam announces that Jesus will be our ruler, our King forever. Please, join us in our preparation for a blessed Christmas.
