8TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks." - Lk 6:43, 45

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

8th Sunday in Ordinary Time: New Wine, New Wineskins

“No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old cloak. If he does, its fullness pulls away, the new from the old, and the tear gets worse. Likewise, no one pours new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the skins are ruined. Rather, new wine is poured into fresh wineskins.” (Mark 2: 21-22)

This week's Gospel serves as a meditation on the Church, on its necessary and continual renewal and on the ways in which the Holy Spirit carries out that renewal. To this end, the Spirit brings forth new works, new institutions and new charisms that keep the Church in a state of eternal youth which enrich it while allowing it to update itself and to always be understandable and relevant to the present generation.

The realization that the Spirit is always acting in the Church by promoting renewals should lead us to consider what we are doing. Today, more than at any other time, it is dangerous and almost suicidal to be alone. “Going it alone” may satisfy our individualism, but it makes us very vulnerable to the harassment of the secularism that surrounds us. If there are “new wineskins,” one of them must be suitable for us to pour our contributions, our “new wine” into. If we don't, not only are we not helping but we wasting the help we need to be the Christians that Christ needs today

Resolution: I will give the group to which I belong, the Franciscans of Mary, everything I can give them: my prayers, my time, my qualities and my financial help, for the good of the Church.

From the Pastor's Desk

Del Escritorio del Párroco

My dear parishioners,

We will begin the Holy Season of Lent this coming Wednesday. If Advent required more recollection and a penitential preparation for the Coming of Christ, Lent even more so. This Holy Season reminds us -among other things- the costly price of our Redemption for the amendment of our transgressions and the Great Victory of Christ over death to open up the gates of the Heavenly Realm.

Within the framework of the Jubilee Year and our Consecration to the Blessed Sacrament, I would like our Parish to live out the virtue of Hope with ever more intensity and the love for the Blessed Sacrament with the uttermost ardent devotion. First, let us live the present mindful, of what lies ahead of us: Eternal Bliss. With this in mind, we would bear our daily crosses in a different way, to the point of saying with St. Paul that we consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us (Rm 8:18). Secondly, let us come more often to adore Jesus in the Eucharist to bring Him comfort. There is a living Heart in the Tabernacle, a Heart that suffers. How much indifference to His Real Presence! How many Communion received in a state of mortal sin! How much lack of love and reverence! When He needed His friends the most, they were asleep. In the hour of His Death there was only His Blessed Mother and John, the youngest apostle, at the foot of the Cross.

We are about to journey through the desert of Lent, and therefore a place for a deeper encounter with the Lord and for a tougher fight against temptation and sin. I pray that hope in our own resurrection and the love for the Heavenly Bread that gives Eternal Life to all who eat Him, may push us through this valley of tears.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in You.
Fr. Antonio Gutierrez, FM.

Mis queridos feligreses,

El próximo miércoles comenzaremos la Santa Cuaresma. Si el Adviento requería más recogimiento y una preparación penitencial para la Venida de Cristo, la Cuaresma aún más. Este Sacro Tiempo nos recuerda -entre otras cosas- el costoso precio de nuestra Redención para la remisión de nuestros pecados y la Gran Victoria de Cristo sobre la muerte para abrirnos las puertas del Reino Celestial.

En el marco del Año Jubilar y de nuestra Consagración al Santísimo Sacramento, deseo que nuestra Párrroquia viva con mayor intensidad la virtud de la esperanza y con la más ardiente devoción el amor al Santísimo Sacramento. En primer lugar, vivamos el presente conscientes de lo que nos espera: la Bienaventuranza eterna. Teniendo esto en mente, llevaremos de otra manera nuestras cruces de cada día, hasta el punto de decir con San Pablo que los sufrimientos de ahora no se pueden comparar con la gloria que un día se nos manifestará (Rm 8, 18). En segundo lugar, vengamos más a menudo a adorar a Jesús en la Eucaristía para darle consuelo. Hay un Corazón vivo en el Sagrario, pero un Corazón que sufre. ¡Cuánta indiferencia a su Presencia Real! ¡Cuántas Comuniones recibidas en estado de pecado mortal! ¡Cuánta falta de amor y reverencia! Cuando más necesitaba a Sus amigos, éstos estaban dormidos. En la hora de su Muerte sólo estaban al pie de la Cruz su Santísima Madre y Juan, el apóstol más joven.

Estamos a punto de atravesar el desierto de la Cuaresma, y por tanto un lugar para un encuentro más profundo con el Señor y para una lucha más ardua contra la tentación y el pecado. Rezo para que la esperanza en nuestra propia resurrección y el amor al Pan celestial que da la Vida eterna a todos los que lo comen, nos den las fuerzas para atravesar este valle de lágrimas.

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en Ti confío.
P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM.
Párroco.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

“Unless there is a Good Friday in your life, there can be no Easter Sunday.” Ven. Fulton Sheen
 This week we will be discussing the Living Lent in our thirty-fourth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 9th of March 2025.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward fuller communion with the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

THE GROWING SEED

Jesus said that the Kingdom of God is like a growing seed a man went to sow in his field. He went on day and night without worrying for the seeds. When it was time all seeds had grown and the field was ready to be harvested. The Word of God is like the seed put in our heart that will grow in knowledge of God and will produce abundant fruits. God takes care of us and waters us with the needed graces to become good children of God. Let us open our hearts to God so He can freely make a better version of us. Let God work on us this LENT. Lent is a time for praying, almsgiving, and sacrifice. Lent is the time for being extra nice with all people around us. It is time for growing in the love for God and neighbor. Let's us journey together during this 40 days of preparation for a better life in Christ.

INSTRUCTION FOR FAST & ABSTINENCE

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

INSTRUCCIONES PARA EL AYUNO Y LA ABSTINENCIA

El Miércoles de Ceniza y el Viernes Santo son días obligatorios de ayuno y abstinencia para los católicos. Además, los viernes de Cuaresma son días obligatorios de abstinencia. Para los miembros de la Iglesia Católica Latina, las normas sobre el ayuno son obligatorias desde los 18 años hasta los 59 años. Durante el ayuno, se permite a una persona comer una comida completa, así como dos comidas más pequeñas que juntas no supongan una comida completa. Las normas sobre la abstinencia de carne son vinculantes para los miembros de la Iglesia Católica Latina a partir de los 14 años.
