PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord.
Peace in heaven
and glory in the highest."
- Lk 19:38

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

Palm Sunday: May Your Will Be Done

"After withdrawing about a stone's throw from them and kneeling, he prayed, saying, "Father, if you are willing, take this cup away from me; still, not my will but yours be done." (Lk 22: 41-42).

Holy Week begins with the full narration of the Passion of the Lord according to Luke the Evangelist. There is a lot to meditate on, a lot to learn. There was an inexhaustible flow of spirituality in those brief days in which Humanity's fate was decided: when the Redeemer gained our salvation by paying for us on the Cross. But of all these things, perhaps there is one that is always close to us: Christ's attitude in the face of the drama to come. Aware as He was of what awaited Him: torture and death, the abandonment of His disciples and even the "kenosis", the feeling of estrangement from God Himself, the Lord was afraid and in anguish. The blood sweat on His forehead was a somatic manifestation of the terror that gripped His spirit. And it is at that moment when He is able to utter the phrase of acceptance of the Divine Will.

The Christ who fled when they wanted to make Him king, let Himself be crowned with thorns. The one who slipped away from the crowd who acclaimed Him, did not turn away when they sought to kill Him. This is the example that He has left us: to accept God's will, whatever it may be, in both good times and bad, in easy times and in difficult. What is even more difficult is to accept that God's will is love, even if it does not seem so to us, even if we do not understand why things happen or why our pleas are not heard so that the cup, which God is asking us to drink, will pass. Of course, in order for us to accept the cross with joy is impossible without God's indispensable strength.

Resolution: Say "yes" to the Lord in whatever He asks of you. Pray and receive the sacraments so that He may give you the strength you need to do His will.

From the Pastor's Desk

Del Escritorio del Párroco

My dear parishioners,

Today we begin Holy Week, the most important week of the Liturgical Year, in which we commemorate the Paschal Mystery of Christ.

One of the risks of routines is that we become so accustomed to them that we take away their novelty, their attractiveness. But it depends. For example, when we celebrate our birthday, we tend to live it in a good mood and to some extent we expect everyone who knows about it to congratulate us and react with joy. There is something always exciting about it, and we never get tired or bored of celebrating it.

If we should celebrate our birthday with joy and gratitude, with even more joy and emotion, we should celebrate the Mysteries of our Redemption every year. Imagine celebrating our birth into this life, knowing that there is nothing after death. Wouldn't it be sad? So much feasting for nothing?! The Paschal Triduum of Christ assures us precisely this: even if we have to suffer a little for Him and the Gospel, we celebrate and rejoice because His victory is ours, because we were created not only to enjoy this life, but to live and reign with Him forever!

I wish you a Paschal Triduum filled with awe and gratitude.

Blessed Lent!
Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in You.
Fr. Antonio Gutierrez, FM.
Pastor.

Mis queridos feligreses,

Uno de los riesgos de las rutinas es que nos acostumbramos a ellas de tal manera que les quitamos su novedad, su atractivo. Pero depende. Por ejemplo, cuando celebramos el día de nuestro cumpleaños, tendemos a vivirlo de buen humor y en cierta medida esperamos que todos los que lo saben nos congratulen y reaccionen con gran alegría. Hay algo siempre emocionante en ello, y no nos cansamos ni aburrirnos de celebrarlo.

Si debemos celebrar nuestro cumpleaños con alegría y agradecimiento, con más gozo y emoción aún los Misterios de nuestra Redención cada año. Imaginemos celebrando nuestro nacimiento a esta vida sabiendo que no hay nada después de la muerte. ¿No sería triste? ¡¿Tanta fiesta para nada?! El Triduo Pascual de Cristo nos asegura precisamente esto: aunque tengamos que sufrir un poco por Él y el Evangelio, ¡festejamos y nos alegramos porque su victoria es nuestra, porque fuimos creados no sólo para disfrutar de esta vida, sino para vivir y reinar con Él para siempre!

Les deseo un Triduo Pascual lleno de asombro y gratitud.

Benedicida cuaresma.
Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en Ti confío.
P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM.
Párroco.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"We are an Easter People and Alleluia is our song!" Saint Pope John Paul II Our catechumens have studied rigorously and prayerfully in preparation for this night when they enter full communion with the Catholic Church and become part of Saint John Vianney's church community as we celebrate the Easter Vigil Liturgy. Our catechumens will receive all the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Holy Eucharist, and Confirmation during our twenty-ninth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Saturday, 19th of April 2025.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward fuller communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

HOLY WEEK IN THE WORLD & AT HOME

This coming Thursday we will be going on vacation. We will celebrate Holy Week with our families and together we will prepare for the big celebration of EASTER. Palm Sunday reminds us of the glorious entrance of Jesus in Jerusalem and marks the beginning of the holiest week of the year. This is the day people shouted with great joy: "HOSANNA, HOSANNA, HOSANNA in the highest!" We too will sing Hosanna, Hosanna to Jesus who surrendered His life to God for our salvation. He opened the doors of heaven to us so that we can eternally be with Him in heaven. Let's continue praying, fasting and almsgiving in appreciation for His unmeasurable love for us. Let's make this week holy by loving God more and our neighbor as He loves us.
