6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

[Jesus said to his disciples:] "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." - Jn 14:26-27a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

6th Sunday of Easter: Peace Without Fear of Problems

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (Jn 14: 27).

Christ is the Prince of Peace. Despite this, His public life was always embroiled in conflicts, the last of which led to His death. This apparent contradiction might seem strange and illogical, but if we focus on the content of the Christian message, we will discover that it is completely normal. The Lord indeed speaks of peace, but not just any peace. Just as He does not speak about love, but about "His love," so He speaks of "His peace". That peace is built on the foundations of justice and freedom, and not on repression and fear. It is an active peace, quite different from the passive resignation of those who refuse to fight to defend those who suffer. The Christian does not seek or love conflicts, but neither does he avoid them at any cost, at the cost of betraying his conscience or of turning a blind eye while the poor are being oppressed.

All this should be taken into account especially in these times, times of terror in which there is fear of boarding a train or boarding a plane or the subway. For us, peace has a great value but not the supreme value, not at the cost of denying our ideas, our moral principles or our faith. We will not become murderers or suicidal murderers, instead, we are willing to give up our lives -not take them- in exchange for defending what we believe in. Therefore, let us seek justice by not fearing a nonviolent conflict and following the example of Christ, out of love for God and the poor. And if war should occur, let us adhere faithfully to what the Holy Father says, to whom we must always pay attention.

Resolution: Reject violence, not only the international type, but also that which proceeds from within. Peacefully defend your rights and your moral and religious convictions.

From the Pastor's Desk

Del Escritorio del Párroco

My dear parishioners,

On May 14, Pope Leo XIV said to the Eastern Catholics accompanied by their Patriarchs and Bishops to celebrate their Jubilee of Hope that, "We have great need to recover the sense of mystery that remains alive in your liturgies, liturgies that engage the human person in his or her entirety, that sing of the beauty of salvation and evoke a sense of wonder at how God's majesty embraces our human frailty. It is likewise important to rediscover, especially in the Christian West, a sense of the primacy of God, the importance of mystagogy and the values so typical of Eastern spirituality: constant intercession, penance, fasting, and weeping for one's own sins and for those of all humanity (penthos)! It is vital, then, that you preserve your traditions without attenuating them, for the sake perhaps of practicality or convenience, lest they be corrupted by the mentality of consumerism and utilitarianism."

How can we recover the sense of mystery? Why is it so important? It is so important because that's the way we dispose ourselves to enter the presence of God, and the way God can transform and touch the whole of our existence. The experience of Moses before the burning bush or Peter prostrating himself before the Lord Jesus recognizing his sinfulness after witnessing the miraculous catch of fish, are scenes that describe the religious experience of entering the mystery of God and letting God come to meet us. All this happens through the senses, through symbols, and nowadays most especially at Mass: the music, the smell, the light, the colors, the words, the gestures, the silence....

We have forgotten that above all that the Mass is an encounter with God who calls us, that we are not the center, but He who is our Creator and the goal of our existence, and whom we come to adore and hear. Maybe -like Pope Leo points out- we have let consumerism and utilitarianism corrupt our senses, blocking them from opening to the hidden mystery of God, when, for instance, we understand and see the Mass from a merely functional and practical perspective.

I recently read this phrase in the book Letters From Nicodemo, by Jan Dobraczynski: "A symbol can become more dangerous than a man alive." Sacred symbols can lead us to the vertigo of God's mystery, to fall into the dangerous abyss of God's love, when we cease to be the center of our life.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in You.
Fr. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM.
Pastor.

Mis queridos feligreses,

El 14 de mayo, el Papa León XIV dijo a los católicos orientales acompañados de sus Patriarcas y Obispos para celebrar el Jubileo de la Esperanza que "¿Cuánto necesitamos recuperar el sentido del misterio, tan vivo en vuestras liturgias, que involucran a la persona humana en su totalidad, cantan la belleza de la salvación y suscitan el asombro ante la grandeza divina que abraza la pequeñez humana! Y cuán importante es redescubrir, también en Occidente, el sentido del primado de Dios, el valor de la mistagogía, de la intercesión incesante, de la penitencia, del ayuno, del llanto por los propios pecados y por los de toda la humanidad (penthos), tan típicos de las espiritualidades orientales. Por eso es fundamental custodiar vuestras tradiciones sin diluirlas, quizás por comodidad, de modo que no sean corrompidas por un espíritu consumista y utilitarista."

¿Cómo podemos recuperar el sentido del misterio? ¿Por qué es tan importante? Es tan importante porque es la forma en que nos disponemos a entrar en la presencia de Dios, y la forma en que Dios puede transformar y tocar toda nuestra existencia. La experiencia de Moisés ante la zarza ardiente o la de Pedro pos-trándose ante el Señor Jesús reconociendo su pecaminosidad después de presenciar la pesca milagrosa, son escenas que describen la experiencia religiosa de entrar en el misterio de Dios y de dejar que Dios venga a nuestro encuentro. Todo esto sucede a través de los sentidos, de los símbolos, y muy especialmente hoy en la Misa: la música, el olor, la luz, los colores, las palabras, los gestos, el silencio....

Hemos olvidado que ante todo la Misa es un encuentro con Dios que nos llama, que no somos nosotros el centro, sino Aquel que es nuestro Creador y la meta de nuestra existencia, y a quien venimos a adorar y escuchar. Quizá -como señala el Papa León- hemos dejado que el consumismo y el utilitarismo corrompan nuestros sentidos, taponándolos para que no se abran al misterio oculto de Dios, cuando, por ejemplo, entendemos y vemos la Misa desde una perspectiva meramente funcional y práctica.

Hace poco leí esta frase en el libro Cartas de Nicodemo, de Jan Dobraczynski: «un símbolo puede llegar a ser más peligroso que un hombre vivo». Los símbolos sagrados pueden llevarnos al vértigo del misterio de Dios, a caer en el peligroso precipicio del amor de Dios, cuando dejamos de ser nosotros el centro de nuestra vida.

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en Ti confío.
P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM.
Párroco.

"...Accept the call to be virtuous. This means being strong within, having a big heart, being rich in the highest sentiments, bold in the truth, courageous in freedom, constant in responsibility, generous in love, invincible in hope. Happiness is achieved through sacrifice." - Saint John Paul
"Courageously follow the path of personal holiness and diligently nourish yourselves with the word of God and the Eucharist. The holier you are, the more you can contribute to building up the Church and society." - Saint John Paul the Great

This week we will be discussing Our Call to Holiness and Living the Virtues on Sunday, the 1st of June 2025.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward fuller communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

EASTER SEASON/VACATION TIME

We have been celebrating with the whole Church, the great feast of Easter. Easter is His victory over darkness, death and sin. He has risen to give us eternal life. And before going back to His Father in Heaven, Jesus promised his disciples to send the Advocate, a gift from God, The Holy Spirit, the Paraclete. The Holy Spirit, will bring us seven more gifts to help us here on Earth in our journey to heaven. These seven gifts are: Wisdom, Knowledge, Counsel, Fortitude, Understanding, Piety, and Fear of the Lord. Today, we celebrate the great feast of the Holy Spirit. We will have a procession to change our altar cloth to red and decorate our prayer table with fresh flowers. Each child will receive a tea light candle and ask for a gift from the Holy Spirit. After a short prayer we'll place the tea light candle near the Paschal Candle. When done praying, we'll sing many songs to Jesus for His love and gifts. We are very happy! This is our last session of the year and then we will go on vacation to enjoy the summer months with our families.
