PENTECOST SUNDAY

[Jesus] breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." - Jn 20:22-23

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

Pentecost: The Spirit of Forgiveness

"And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.'"* (Jn 20: 22-23).

Pentecost, the liturgical solemnity in which the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Virgin Mary and the Apostles is celebrated, should help us to remember the origins of the Church. On Pentecost, Jesus' disciples passed from being a group filled with fear to being a united community resolved to lay down their lives for Christ. And this, thanks to God's strength, was received through the Holy Spirit. For that first group of disciples, this change meant persecution, torture and martyrdom. In this way, they showed that what moved them was not any type of worldly business, the search for money or power, but rather the certainty that they had seen the risen Christ.

But, to lay down one's life for the Lord is not only a matter linked to martyrdom. There are many ways to do so because, basically, every time we truly love someone, we are giving up our life for that person. One of those ways is by forgiving those who have offended us. That is why Jesus gave the Apostles the mandate to forgive sins when he bestowed the Holy Spirit upon them. From that moment on, as the first priests, they could impart sacramental forgiveness just as Catholic priests continue to do today. The majority of Catholics, being lay people, are not able to impart this sacrament, but they can forgive their enemies. And once again, we see that it is difficult and sometimes impossible. That is why we must renew our faith in God's strength, which alone makes us capable of loving to the point of forgiving. And we must ask for the Spirit of Forgiveness in order to put it into practice.

Resolution: Ask God to help you forgive and then try to put it into practice. In order to make it easier, start by exercising what Christ has commanded: pray for your enemies.

Palabra de Vida

Pentecostés: Espíritu de perdón

"Y dicho esto, exhaló su aliento sobre ellos y les dijo: 'Recibid el Espíritu Santo; a quienes les perdonéis los pecados, les quedan perdonados; a quienes se los retengáis, les quedan retenidos'". (Jn 20, 22-23)

Pentecostés, la solemnidad litúrgica en la que se celebra la venida del Espíritu Santo sobre la Virgen María y los apóstoles, nos debe ayudar a recordar los orígenes de la Iglesia. En Pentecostés, los discípulos de Jesús pasaron de ser un grupo lleno de miedo a ser una comunidad unida y decidida a dar la vida por Cristo. Y todo eso gracias a la fuerza de Dios, recibida a través del Espíritu Santo. Para aquel primer grupo de discípulos, este cambio supuso, efectivamente, la persecución, la tortura y el martirio. De este modo pusieron de manifiesto que lo que les movía no era ningún tipo de negocio mundano -búsqueda de dinero o poder-, sino la certeza de que habían visto a Cristo resucitado.

Pero dar la vida por el Señor no es sólo una cuestión ligada al martirio. Hay muchas formas de dar la vida, porque en el fondo cada vez que se ama de verdad a alguien se está dando la vida por él. Una de estas formas es la de perdonar a los que nos han ofendido- Por eso, cuando Jesús otorga el Espíritu Santo a los apóstoles les da el mandato de perdonar los pecados. Ellos, los primeros sacerdotes, podían desde aquel momento impartir el perdón sacramental, lo mismo que siguen haciendo los sacerdotes católicos hoy en día. La mayor parte de los cristianos, al ser laicos, no pueden impartir ese sacramento, pero sí pueden perdonar a sus enemigos. Y una vez más constatamos que es difícil y a veces imposible. Por eso debemos renovar nuestra fe en la fuerza de Dios, que será la única que nos haga capaces de amar hasta el punto de perdonar. Y debemos pedir el Espíritu del perdón para poderlo llevar a la práctica.

Propósito: Pedir a Dios que nos ayude a perdonar y luego intentar aplicarlo. Para hacerlo más fácil, empezar por practicar lo que Cristo nos mandó: rezar por nuestros enemigos.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"Traditionally, we Catholics approach sharing our faith as we do brushing our teeth; an excellent habit but just not in public."
An anonymous OCIA Lead

"Christian hope sustains us in committing ourselves fully to the new evangelization and to the worldwide mission, and leads us to pray as Jesus taught us: "Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven." Saint John Paul II

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit...And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."
Jesus Christ in The Gospel of Matthew 28:19-20

This week on Sunday, 8th of June 2025 we will be discussing Evangelization in our thirty-sixth and final session of OCIA 2024-2025, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

THE ADVOCATE, THE COUNSELOR

We celebrated with the whole Church all around the world the great victory of Jesus, the Feast of Easter. Last Sunday we celebrated His glorious Ascension into Heaven. And, before going back to His Father, Jesus promised his disciples to send a gift from God, The Holy Spirit, the Paraclete. The Holy Spirit or Advocate brings to us seven gifts: Wisdom, Knowledge, Counsel, Fortitude, Understanding, Piety, and Fear of the Lord. These gifts will help us in our journey to heaven. Jesus did not leave us desolate; He sent the Holy Spirit to help and counsel us. Let's celebrate today, the feast of the Holy Spirit, the counselor sent by Jesus. Let's be thankful to our Lord for His great love for us. We are the love of Jesus! Jesus must be our true love!
