Video Overview: We are lost in the dense jungle of this world and are made for heaven. We all long to get there, but we encounter so many needs along the way. If we aren't careful, searching to fill those needs can replace our true compass. Instead of focusing on searching for home, we can be consumed by never being hungry, cold, or lonely. When that happens, we end up living a life full of the shells of the things we are made for. Our true hunger and loneliness can't be filled by this world. But God hasn't left us alone in this jungle – he sent us his only Son to lead us home to him. Jesus is our true compass. He is our Good Shepherd. He is the way, the truth, and the life.

Featured Study: Saved in Hope, by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI. Love and hope are closely related in the spiritual life. Love of God involves hope or trust in God. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "The virtue of hope responds to the aspiration to happiness which God has placed in the heart of every man." Hope enables us to look to the next life, but it also inspires and purifies our actions in this life. Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI considers modern philosophies and the challenges of faith today in light of the virtue of hope.

Topics of Interest: Evangelization and Catechesis should be defined well so that we understand our role as Christian leaders. Evangelization must include a moment when we explicitly proclaim the Gospel with a call to conversion and then Catechesis educates beyond that first moment. In many churches, there has been a lot of catechesis without actually evangelizing the parishioners, especially our children who have not had a conversion moment when they've said "no" to the world and "yes" to Christ. If we never look for moments to invite them into relationship with Jesus, can the teaching truly take hold?

VISITING SERVITE MISSIONARY

Next weekend July 28/29, Fr. Timothy M. Kreman, O.S.M. of the Order of Friar Servants of Mary (Servites)-USA Province will be here to speak about their missionary work in KwaZulu-Natal, Republic of South Africa. The Servites are one of the mendicant orders and were founded in the 13th century in Florence, Italy. At the present time they serve all over the world in every type of apostolate.

The main task of the missionaries today continues to be the proclamation of the Gospel and the establishment of viable Catholic communities.

They are in need of prayers and material help to carry on their ministries including education, primary health care centers and providing funding to improve the water system to root out malaria.

UNBOUND Freedom in Christ Conference August 10 & 11, St. John the Baptist, Folsom

UNBOUND is a ministry of freedom and inner healing that helps to release the Power of the Gospel into our lives. We all have areas in our lives where we don't experience freedom. These can be wounds from our past, patterns of habitual sin, addictions, negative thoughts, resentments, and other forms of spiritual difficulty. Jesus came to set us free by breaking the power of evil and revealing the love of God.

This conference will equip you to cooperate with God as He sets you free. Register online at <http://scd.formstack.com/forms/unbound>. For more info, call Maria Liranzo 916-733-0242.
