Catholic Quotes

"God aids the valiant...both to you and to me, He will give the help needed."

St. Teresa of Avila

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Roman Canon, called Eucharistic Prayer I, is probably seldom heard in your parish. Some priests will choose it for at least one of the Masses of Christmas, or the Easter Vigil. Such sparing use of this prayer seems strange, especially since it was the only Eucharistic Prayer in the Latin Rite for many centuries, from as long ago as 500 right up to 1970.

In 1965, the vernacular language was approved for the canon of the Mass. Almost immediately, some experimental texts began to surface in the Netherlands, and priests began to use new Dutch texts without permission. By 1966, Pope Paul VI had set up a committee to consider whether or not it was time to approve such experimentation and extend it to non-Dutch churches. No sooner had the committee been formed than other individuals copied the Dutch by just plunging on ahead. The Dutch bishops had approved the use of the new prayers nationwide in 1968, and Flemish bishops in Belgium quickly agreed. By then, German translations of the Dutch prayers were in wide use, and before long nearly one hundred Eucharistic Prayers, all unapproved, were in circulation in France. The Vatican heard the widespread desire for more variety in Eucharistic Prayer forms, and, with the pope's approval, the process of creating new official prayers began. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Mass schedule for the Assumption, August 15th.
8:00 am English, 6:00 pm English, 7:30 pm Spanish

REFLECTION: In the light of the Assumption of Mary, it is easy to pray her Magnificat (Luke 1:46-55) with new meaning. In her glory she proclaims the greatness of the Lord and finds joy in God her savior. God has done marvels to her and she leads others to recognize God's holiness. She is the lowly handmaid who deeply revered her God and has been raised to the heights. From her position of strength she will help the lowly and the poor find justice on earth, and she will challenge the rich and powerful to distrust wealth and power as a source of happiness.

NOTHING TO FEAR

A rabbi was asked why God sends trials and troubles into human lives. "Because God gets lonely for his people" was the reply. There is some resonance with this wisdom in today's Gospel, as Jesus makes his disciples get into a boat without him and goes off alone while they venture into stormy waters. Of course, neither Jews nor Christians believe that the Almighty plays this sort of whimsical game with them, but there is some truth in the statement that we don't turn to God for saving help until we're in a bind. Peter's role today, as it is throughout the New Testament, is to be a sign or to represent each member of the church and the whole church. Our story is the tale told about Peter's faith today. What can bolster our faith is that even when Christ calls us to face bravely the tempests of life, if we are walking through them with our eyes fixed on him in faith, we have nothing to fear. Even when we falter or sink, simply crying "Lord, save me!" is enough to help us know the steady grasp of God's hand. Then, sheltered inside the walls of faith, the storms we endure lose their power over

QUESTION OF THE WEEK FOR AUGUST 13, 2017 NINETEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Lectionary: 115 Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33

Adults: When have you doubted God's loving care for you?

Children: What helps you keep trying even when you are afraid?

FORGIVENESS: And is God not more ready to pardon than we to sin? —St. Catherine of Siena

THE MELCHIZEDEK PROJECT:

The Sacramento Diocesan Vocations Office is pleased to announce a new discernment program for young adult Catholic men beginning this Fall. The Melchizedek Project is a free program that provides resources for starting vocation discernment groups. Catholic men meet to pray about their lives, listen for God's voice, and get serious about answering His call. Their handbook is To Save a Thousand Souls by Fr. Brett Brannen, the ultimate guide for discerning a vocation to the Catholic priesthood. The overriding theme of the discussions is discipleship: Am I willing to follow Christ no matter what the cost, no matter what the call? Will I choose to trust His will for me, and courageously go where He leads?

The Office of Priestly & Religious Vocations, invites young adult Catholic men ages 18-30's to join us for the upcoming "The Melchizedek Project". This is a seven session series program that will be scheduled on every second Thursday of the month at St. Mel Parish in Fair Oaks from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. beginning on Thursday, September 14, 2017. These sessions will be led by a priest and will help gain the spiritual tools in discerning your vocation. There is no cost. To register, please contact our office at 916-733-0258 or by email at msmith@scd.org. More information to come.
