Catholic Quotes

Let us protect Christ in our lives, so that we can protect others, so that we can protect creation! (3/19/13) ..... Pope Francis

RECONCILIATION

True reconciliation is emotional, dramatic, and cleansing. When two people meet heart to heart and work through old hurts, misunderstandings, and careless words, cleansing tears often flow and the encounter ends with an embrace that fills both with the warmth of a love too strong to fade.

The readings this weekend assure us of this healthy release that comes with reconciliation. They give us the courage to reach out to someone with whom we need to reconcile ourselves, and give us the courage to ask for forgiveness from God, too.

In the reading from Exodus, we see how God refuses again and again to give up on the Israelites. Even though they grow impatient with God and turn to false idols, God still calls them back. Luke's Gospel assures us that God rejoices when we turn away from sin. Paul's letter to Timothy encourages us, like Paul, to look back on our lives and recognize where God's patient mercy has been shown to us. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

September 11, 2016

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

When religious people complained that Jesus welcomed and ate with sinners, Jesus challenged them to change their image of God. Imagine God as a shepherd, abandoning ninety-nine obedient sheep to seek the stupid one who got lost. Imagine God as a distraught woman (could religious men imagine that?), losing something and turning the house upside down to find it. Imagine God as an unconditionally forgiving father granting an unworthy son an undeserved feast. Then Jesus added a character whom religious people might imagine, even recognize, all too well. The elder son stayed home; obeyed the father's will; then exploded with rage and judgment and refused to join his brother's welcome-home feast. This Jubilee Year of Mercy asks, which half of Jesus' audience do I belong to? How do I imagine God? How can I become like the searching shepherd, the sweeping woman, the forgiving father? How else can I expect a welcome to Jesus' feast of forgiveness? —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

9/11 REMEMBERED

Fifteen years ago, the continuing TV coverage of the imploding twin towers of the World Trade Center in New York was unbearable for me, as were accounts of the crashes and destruction in Washington and the hills of Pennsylvania. The immense devastation of human life was incomprehensible. Visiting the site in New York some five years later reopened searing wounds, and overwhelmed me with immense sadness. An incursion on our soil, carefully planned and executed by foreign elements, had shattered my cherished sense of security, and provoked a frightening sense of God's absence.

How could my Catholic faith tradition enable me to endure this tragedy? I knew that neither vengeance nor sweeping animosity was an option for me.

You have left us crushed . . . covered us with darkness.

We are bowed down to the ground (Psalm 44:20, 26).

O LORD of hosts, restore us;

Let your face shine upon us (Psalm 80:4).

The Psalmist cries a lament, expressing the mourning of the Israelite people, the chosen of God, who had regarded themselves as untouchable and above reproach, now hurled into misery. The lament expresses a nation's agony, dares to complain against their divine protector, may even own some complicity in the misery, and finally pleads with God for deliverance. In the midst of lamenting, the faith of Israel endured, as must ours. We are as vulnerable as they were to the violence and hatred that seem to encircle us. Our demand for a divine explanation goes unheeded. Yet we have learned of the self-sacrificing heroism of many, witnessing to the finest character of our nation and of our Christian heritage. Dying for one's friends is a sacred theme in our story, epitomized in Jesus, our Savior, and extended through centuries in the grandest and noblest acts of men and women in all circumstances.

In 2001 we came together as one nation under God, sharing the grief, the disillusionment, and the promise to rebuild. As today we lament our honored dead and wounded, shall we translate such agonizing emotion into a persistent pursuit of worldwide reconciliation and peace? —Rev. Andrew Nelson, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

SJV SCHOOL NEEDS YOUR HELP !!

Every 6 years St. John Vianney School goes through the accreditation process through the Western Catholic Educational Association (WCEA). The year before the visit from the Accreditation team, the school community must prepare a written document, our Self Study Report, consisting of several different factors and outcomes. Some examples of these factors include Catholic Identity, School Purpose, Student Learning, Data Analysis, Instructional Methodology, Spiritual, Personal, and Academic Growth, Resource Management, and Support Services. The draft of the Self Study document must be completed by May 2017.

This document needs the input of all shareholders - students, parents, staff, alumni, and parish members. Shareholders are involved appropriately in the Self Study through participation in Self Study Committees, completing surveys, reviewing work, etc...

* Our meeting dates are set for 1:00p.m. (length of meeting TBD), at the school on the following dates: October 7, November 18, December 2, January 27, February 24, March 24, and April 28.

At this time I am simply collecting names, phone numbers, and emails of those parishioners who are interested in being a part of the writing process and will be able to attend SOME of the meetings. I understand it would be difficult to be available for all. PLEASE email me at jrbalantac@sjvschool.org ASAP if you are willing to help us with this process. This cannot be completed by administration and staff only, we must involve the greater community both parent and parish wide. Thank you for your help & support!
