TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We've seen how the rescue of Eucharistic Prayer II from the mists of history changed the style of our prayer, introducing a sleek simplicity to the prayer said aloud by the priest. Remember, before the reform of our prayer in the late 1960s, the priest whispered the words of the Roman Canon, Eucharistic Prayer I. His voice was not amplified, his back was to the people, who could only tell what was going on by a shift in his posture as he bowed and genuflected and as bells were rung to indicate his progress through the prayer.

With the emergence of the new prayers, some feared that the old prayer would be lost forever if it weren't somehow changed. The reformers asked that it be streamlined a bit by omitting the repeated "Through Christ" at the end of various intercessions, and trimming the list of somewhat obscure saints. The new edition therefore brackets parts of the two lists of saints in the prayer, unfortunately dropping all the women from the second set. The decision was also made to keep the Lord's words at the consecration exactly the same in every Eucharistic Prayer, although there is precedent for more variety. On November 2, 1968, Pope Paul VI signed off on the plan of the new Mass, and by April 1969, the publication of the revised order of Mass was announced. Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Question of the week ?

Twenty-fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time

September 17, 2017

Lectionary: 130 Gospel: Matthew 18:21-35

Adults: When someone hurts you, are you more inclined to be just or to be merciful?

Children: When have you forgiven someone who treated you unfairly?

Padre Pio: 1887 - 1968

God, Giver of all good gifts, you generously endowed your servant, Pio of Pietrelcina with the gifts of the Spirit, signing his body as living witness to the saving Passion and Death of your Son. As many looked upon this reflection of your Crucified Son, Jesus, they experienced anew your saving mercy. As through his ministry, Pio reconciled penitents and invited them to taste your sweetness in the Holy Eucharist, so enable us through his intercession, to follow his example in prayer and penance so that we too may follow our Risen Lord and rejoice in His Kingdom where He lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever...Amen.

FORGIVENESS

Nearly ten years before, a son and father had parted ways when the business they shared went bankrupt. The son blamed the father. They did not speak to each other again.

Then the father became seriously ill. The mother called the son and told him he had better come soon. The son walked sheepishly into the hospital room. The father motioned his son to him and whispered: "Did you ever think you could do anything that would keep me from loving you?"

Resentment and anger are foul things, the first reading from Sirach tells us. Remember the last things. Stop hating. Live by the commandments. As Saint Paul writes to the Romans, we are to live for the Lord and die for the Lord.

Jesus' parable in today's Gospel reminds us of God's compassion. The immense sin of humanity has been forgiven and stricken from the record. We are to forgive others in the same way. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

THE STORY AND HISTORY OF SAINT JANUARIUS

THE FEAST DAY OF SAINT JANUARIUS IS SEPTEMBER 19TH.

The story and history of Saint Januarius. Saint Januarius was born in Naples a Roman province under the rule of the Roman Emperor Diocletian (r.284-305). Emperor Diocletian mounted some of the fiercest persecutions of the early Christian Church. Saint Januarius, or San Gennaro, became the bishop of Benevento. Benevento being a province and town in Campania, 50 km northeast of Naples. Saint Januarius was imprisoned while visiting an incarcerated deacon called Proculus at the sulphur mines of Puteoli, near Solfatara. Pozzuoli is a city of the province of Napoli near Solfatara, a shallow volcanic crater. Saint Januarius was martyred with Proculus at Pozzuoli by being first thrown to wild beasts in the arena and when the animals would not attack him he was beheaded. By Franciscan Media

PRAYER TO ST JANUARIUS

God our Father,
enable us who honour the memory
of St Januarius to share with him in the joy of eternal life.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
