THE STORY AND HISTORY OF SAINT JEROME

The story and history of Saint Jerome. Saint Jerome was born Eusebius Hieronymus Sophronius in 347 at Strido, Dalmatia (on the eastern coast of the Adriatic Sea). He came from a wealthy, Christian family and his father sent Jerome to Rome to study and where he became a proficient translator of Greek into Latin. His life in Rome, as a young man leaving the confines of family life to the relative freedom he experienced in Rome, led to Jerome leading a fast life. After several years of study he left Rome on his travels abroad to Asia Minor. He eventually arrived in Antioch. Antioch was an important, ancient city located on the site of the modern city of Antakya, Turkey. In 365 he was fully converted to Christianity and baptized in the faith. At this time he began his study of theology and the Hebrew language. Saint Jerome then lived for many years as a hermit in the Syrian desert where he continued his studies. He returned to Rome in 382 where he remained for three years attracting wealthy noble female students including Marcella and Paula and their daughters Blaesilla and Eustochium. He returned to the east where he died on 30th September 420 and was buried under the church of the Nativity at Bethlehem.

Prayer to St. Jerome

Master of unworldliness and founder of monasteries, you had a deep love for God's inspired Word and were a most careful translator of the Sacred Scriptures. Your dedication in seeking God's glory is a perfect model for all exegetes. Inspire them with respect for the sacred text as well as for Tradition and the Church's Magisterium. Help them to impart to all the true meaning of the Word of

CALL UPON THE LORD

The very first line of today's first reading summons us to seek the Lord and to call upon God. This sentiment is echoed in the refrain for today's responsorial psalm: "The Lord is near to all who call upon him" (Psalm 145:18a). Saint Paul is the embodiment of someone who constantly sought the Lord. In the excerpt we read today from his letter to the Philippians, we find Saint Paul toward the end of his life, a life he describes as completely consonant with Christ. He writes, "For to me life is Christ" (Philippians 1:21). To find out what it means to live life completely in accord with Christ we need look no further than today's Gospel. There we find that God's love and mercy are immeasurable for all those who seek and call upon the Lord. J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Along with the reform of the Roman Canon and the re-drafting of an ancient Roman prayer in Eucharistic Prayer II, two additional prayers were announced in 1969. Eucharistic Prayer III is a fresh composition. Like Eucharistic Prayer II, it has no preface of its own, but the presider chooses from a long menu of possible prefaces to become part of the prayer on a particular occasion. Also, like Eucharistic Prayer II it has a way to insert the name of the deceased in Masses for the dead such as funerals and memorials. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal views Eucharistic Prayer III as the best substitute for Eucharistic Prayer I on Sundays and feasts.

In practice, this prayer is used very often at Sunday Mass, and its texts are familiar to all members of the assembly. In this prayer, notice that the priest extends his hands over the gifts and calls down the Holy Spirit to change them into the Body and Blood of Christ. This call of the Holy Spirit is called the epiclesis, and Eastern Christians consider it to be the consecration. Latin Christians have long considered the "institution narrative" to be the consecration. Partly in response to a deep sensitivity to the East, the reformers took care to structure all our new prayers with a strong epiclesis. The poetry and images of Eucharistic Prayer III are fruitful sources of meditation. Why not take a sentence or two into your private prayer?

GOSPEL: MATTHEW 20:1-16A

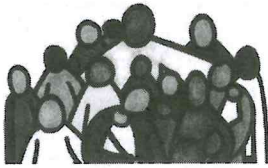

ADULTS: Which has deepened your faith more — being treated justly or being treated with love and care? Who needs you to treat them with care this week?

CHILDREN: When have you been very fair? When have you been very generous? Which felt better?
