OUR MISSION

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

Sept 30, 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time
6X8KXX parish code

Video Overview: The great consequence of the truth being Jesus is that the world is split into those who recognize Jesus and those who do not. To the extent that we see Jesus, recognize him, know him, and commune with him we are able to see things in the truth and perceive reality clearly. The more we know him and love him, the more we know and love the truth in all things.

Featured Study: Lectio: Eucharist, session 6, the Miracles of Jesus.

Topics of Interest: We can often become so passionate about the details of the Catholic Faith that we want to impart to others, that we forget that our faith is in a real person, Jesus Christ. In the Last Supper discourse, Jesus tells us that he is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Today's readings invite us to meditate on what it means that he is the Truth. What are the ramifications of the truth being a set of rules that have the Person of Jesus Christ as its divine author? To the extent that we see Jesus, recognize him and commune with him we are able to see things in the truth and perceive reality clearly. The more we know him and love him, the more we know and love the truth in all things. Today's Gospel tells us that it has never been easy to understand all of Jesus' teachings, even for those who heard him in person.

Prayer For Protection Of The Church And Her Members

O glorious St. Michael, guardian and defender of the Church of Jesus Christ, come to the assistance of this Church, against which the powers of hell are unchained, guard with special care her august Head, and obtain that for him and for us the hour of triumph may speedily arrive. O glorious Archangel St. Michael, watch over us during life, defend us against the assaults of the demon, assist us especially at the hour of death; obtain for us a favorable judgment, and the happiness of beholding God face to face for endless ages. Amen.
