3rd
SUNDAY OF EASTER

"The Lord has truly been raised!"
- Lk 24:34

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

April 23, 2023, Third Sunday of Easter— Formed.org.

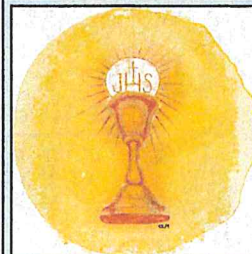

Review: The two disciples on the road to Emmaus in today's reading came to know the Lord in the "breaking of the bread" the Eucharist. We can see that their encounter with Jesus that day parallels the way Jesus comes to meet us in every Mass. First, just as Jesus spoke to the two disciples on the road about the Scriptures, so Jesus speaks to us through the Scriptures in the Liturgy of the Word. Then, just as Jesus explained the Scriptures to the disciples on the road, so do we have those words interpreted for us by the priest so that we can begin to understand what they mean for our lives. The first half of the Mass, like the first half of the journey to Emmaus, focuses on the Word of God. Then, as we experience the "breaking of the bread," Jesus gives us his very self, his Body and Blood. At that moment, our eyes can be opened, and we are able to see Jesus in our midst. When we receive the Lord with an open and receptive heart, we know that he is alive ... and with us. We begin to have a glimpse into the awesome plan of God for our own lives. The second half of the Mass, like the second half of the Emmaus story, centers on meeting and recognizing Jesus.

Featured study: The Road to Emmaus

Reflection: In this reading, we see Jesus seeking two disciples who are leaving Jerusalem in despair over Jesus's death and apparent failure. Jesus's meticulous care in gathering up and confirming his disciples in faith after his Resurrection ought to give us great confidence in his love for all, even those who have walked away from him. The lesson for us is that without the gift of faith, even the obvious can seem obscure. This story in Luke also gives us some direction as to where to find the grace necessary to overcome our ignorance. We're told that in the "breaking of bread" they recognized him. That term is widely considered to have been a kind of code term in the early Church for the celebration of the Eucharist. This narrative itself exhibits a form like that of the Mass. It begins with a Liturgy of the Word: "Beginning, then, with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures." It closes with the "breaking of the bread," as happens in the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Through the Sacraments generally, and the daily Sacrament of the Eucharist particularly, the Church learns to see clearly what was formerly obscure.

From the Pastor

Ten Reasons for Spending a Holy Hour Before the Blessed Sacrament

1. This is a personal invitation to you from Jesus.
2. Your hour with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament will repair for evils of the world and bring about peace on earth.
3. You grow spiritually with each moment you spend with Jesus!
4. Just as you can't be exposed to the sun without receiving its rays, neither can you come to Jesus exposed in the Blessed Sacrament without receiving the divine rays of his grace, his love, his peace.
5. He is really there! When you look upon the Sacred Host, you look upon Jesus, the Son of God. "I myself am the living bread come down from heaven." (Jn 6:35)
6. Each moment that you spend in His Eucharistic Presence will increase his divine life within you and deepen your personal relationship and friendship with him.
7. Each hour you spend with Jesus will deepen his divine peace in your heart.
8. Jesus is infinitely deserving of our unceasing thanksgiving and adoration for all he has done for our salvation.
9. Jesus will bless you, your family and the whole world for this hour of faith you spend with Him in the Blessed Sacrament.
10. Each moment you spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament brings joy, pleasure, and delight to his Sacred Heart!

Highlights

3rd Sunday OF EASTER

They returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread. - Lk 24:33-35

'Pope: God's mercy never abandons us, even as world endures war

"Today, as the world is increasingly tried by wars and straying from God, we need the Mercy of the Father even more."

Pope Francis made that appeal for peace on Wednesday as he spoke to pilgrims gathered in St. Peter's Square for the weekly General Audience.

In his greetings to Polish-speaking pilgrims, the Pope recalled the upcoming celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday.

The Solemnity of Divine Mercy was instituted by St. John Paul II "as desired by the Lord Jesus and expressed through St. Faustina Kowalska nearly a century ago."

Pope Francis continued his prayer for the world by quoting the prayer from the Divine Mercy chaplet: "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world." Near the end of the audience, he added that the Lord "never ceases to be merciful."

"Let us think about the mercy of God, which always welcomes and accompanies us, and never leaves us on our own," he said.

Pope Francis also recalled the 60th anniversary of Pope St. John XXIII's 1963 encyclical Pacem in Terris, which bore the subtitle "On establishing universal peace in truth, justice, charity, and liberty".

He noted that the landmark encyclical dedicated to peace was written at the height of tensions during the Cold War.

John XXIII, said Pope Francis, opened up for everyone the possibility to speak about peace and laid out the parameters for building peace between peoples.

Coming Back to our Atrium

On Thursday, April 20 we were back in the Atrium to celebrate EASTER. For this celebration our Atrium was very dark. Then we had a very solemn procession with the Paschal Candle, the blessing & lighting of the Paschal Candle, decoration of our Easter Prayer Table, and several bible readings. After the readings, each child's name was called, and each came up to receive a light to place around the Paschal Candle. We are Children of the Light! We received the Light of Christ! Jesus shares His light with us. Our celebration ended with a party. We celebrate Jesus' victory over darkness and death. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia! Give thanks to our risen Lord Jesus! Alleluia. Blessings to all. Alleluia.
