OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

April 9, 2023, Easter Sunday— Formed.org.

Review: On the first Easter, it seems as if practically everyone, but the enemies of Jesus, had forgotten that he said he would rise on the third day. In the Gospel accounts, only those who opposed Jesus are reported as remembering that he predicted his death and resurrection. They assumed that his followers would also remember and attempt to steal his body as "proof" that he had risen from the dead, so they asked the Romans to post a guard at the tomb. They need not have bothered since the disciples had apparently forgotten—or completely misunderstood—what Jesus had told them over and over. Instead, the fearful Apostles were in hiding, and the women were planning to anoint a dead body. However, just as the failure of those closest to Jesus to believe in his Resurrection led to the proclamation of the Jesus's living presence throughout the world, so can we grow in faith and trust in his living presence as well. Though the mysteries of the Faith are not readily understood, we should ask for the grace to believe—to grow in the virtues of Faith, Hope, and Charity. With these gifts, we have the power to recognize the importance of the Resurrection, and how it can transform our lives. Alleluia, he is risen. He is risen indeed.

Featured study: Level 4 Evidence: The Resurrection

Reflection: There is so much to consider in this Gospel passage; even the first few words give us a whole world of things to ponder. "On the first day of the week," we are told, "Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning." As already noted, the first day of that week in that year was the feast of First Fruits. Again, St. Paul calls Jesus the first fruits of those who are to rise from the dead. That means that we are part of the full harvest, of which Jesus is the first fruits. According to the Jewish practice, that full harvest of which the feast of First Fruits was but a promise, came on the harvest feast of Pentecost, fifty days after. As we know from Acts 3, on Pentecost the Holy Spirit fell on the apostles and disciples, bringing a great harvest of souls (three thousand, in fact). The "first day" is also saturated with meaning on other levels. Jesus had rested in the tomb on the old Sabbath of Israel. Just as the Creator God had rested after his week's work of making the world on the seventh day, Jesus, who has re-created the world by his Passion week, rested in the sleep of death on that Sabbath. Now, he rises to new life on a new first day, as a sign of the first day of the first creation, the day when God had made light, and of the new creation he has worked in his Paschal Mystery. Just as the light dawns on the new creation, Mary's arrival early in the morning is a sign of the new light and life that this Easter brings life.

From the Pastor

May you and your family be blessed as you celebrate the true meaning of Easter, from the reflection of Good Friday to the joy of Easter Sunday and the promise of eternal life.

Vatican News

By Lisa Zengarini, Vatican City, March 25, 2023

'Pope to Catholics: Always walk together with fraternal love'

"The world doesn't end with ourselves, and we only really discover it by walking together, day by day." Pope Francis stressed this on Saturday when meeting in the Vatican with some 2,000 pilgrims from two parishes of the northern Italian city of Rho, in the Archdiocese of Milan. The group was accompanied by the parish priest, Fr. Michele Di Tolve, whom the Pope has known personally since his days as a cardinal.

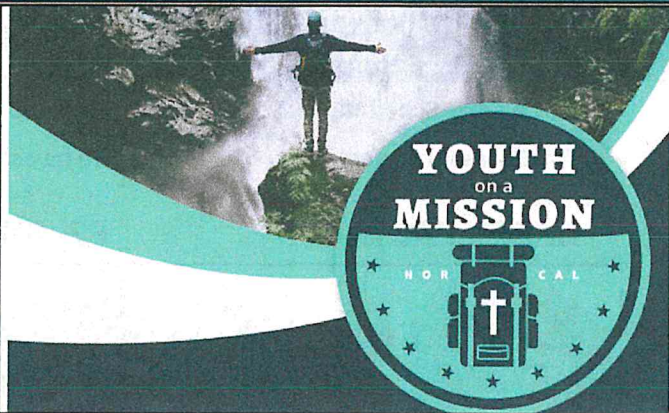

Noting that their parishes bring together "different and complementary generations, backgrounds, services and gifts," Pope Francis reminded the Italian parishioners that the "richness of this variety and communion" is the essence of the Church and "the most powerful means" by which the Gospel can be proclaimed, "even before uttering any word."

"The Church is a body made up of many members, all at the service of one another and all animated by the same love: that of Christ. And when the Church is not like that, it falls into worldliness, it falls into clericalism, which is a very bad thing." He emphasized the importance of walking together as brothers and sisters, "because fraternity makes people freer and happier." The parish is blessed place where we go to feel loved. This is why, said the Pope, the parish community is so important, "because it is the place where, in following Jesus, we meet, get to know each other, enrich one another, it's people of different generations and from different cultural and social backgrounds, all with something unique to give and to receive."

Wives, sisters and mothers, the Knights need you. Many of our Knights got their start with encouragement and support from their spouse or family member. Is there a Catholic man in your life who could benefit from the fraternity of the Knights? The Knights of Columbus are Catholic men who make each other better Catholics and we have fun doing it. We like to call it "iron sharpens iron." Get your man off the couch and have them join the Knights. You won't be disappointed.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS)

Today we are celebrating the big feast of Easter. Holy week is followed by Easter Sunday which is the big celebration of the resurrection of our Lord. All around the world, most families start this celebration by going to Mass in the morning, having a good family meal, inviting friends over, hunting for eggs, and eating sweet breads and candy. It's the biggest celebration after Christmas and the start of a new season of 50 days. Yes, this new season is marked by the color white and starts with Easter Sunday and ends with the coming of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost Sunday.

The CGS Catechists, Volunteers, CGS Families and children wish you all a happy and blessed Easter.

Youth & Young Adults Corner

Please Note: I will be stepping down from my roll as Youth Ministry leader at the end of April. Please join me for our last meeting that will be held at 11 am on April 23rd.
