AUGUST 20, 2023 | TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
 Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour. - Mt 15:28

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT
 Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

Aug 20 Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time — Formed.org.

Review: In this week's Gospel, Jesus goes into Gentile (non-Jew) territory and encounters there a Canaanite whose daughter is ill. She learns he is there and goes to him, begging for help. At first Jesus doesn't answer her, but she continues to beg for his help. Even when he tells her that it isn't right to give the food of the children to the dogs, she retorts by saying that even the dogs get crumbs. Jesus is so impressed by her boldness that he heals her daughter, saying, "Oh woman, great is your faith!" From this story, we learn two important points. The first is that persistent prayer backed by unwavering faith will receive an answer from the Lord. We don't always receive the answers in the way we want or expect to, but if we pray persistently, we will see our hearts open up to the good thing God wants for us. The second is that we who live 2,000 years after Christ can still receive his healing and blessing. He healed the woman's daughter from a distance and he can still heal us today. Time and space are no barriers to the Lord of all time and all space. Since many of us have had the experience of praying when it seems as if our prayers are battering against a brick wall, this Gospel story of the persistent woman serves to increase our faith in the love and mercy of the Lord for each one of us.

Featured study: Our weaknesses, sinfulness & attachments

Reflection: As already noted, God's plan for the human race has been from the beginning a universal plan, intended to include all. And so, it might seem rather odd that Jesus, who is the personification of that plan, should seem at first so standoffish toward this Gentile woman who appeals to him for help. The key to understanding this text lies in the fact that, as Jesus makes clear, at this stage in the fulfillment of that plan, his primary mission is for "the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Jesus gives clear indications that his saving work will find greater extension in episodes like this one with the Canaanite woman and in chapter 4 of John's Gospel, where he discloses his mission and identity to the Samaritan woman at the well .. These non-Jews receive remarkable favors from Jesus that are credited not to national origin but to faith. But Israel must be courted first, because, as he tells the Samaritan woman, "Salvation is from the Jews" (John 4:22). Jesus doesn't disclose the full extent of the divine plan at this early stage because it would have introduced an obstacle to his disclosure of that plan with regards to the Jews. They are the children who need to be attended to first so that they can lead others to him. Jesus calls the Canaanite woman a "dog" because the Jews used this term to indicate the barbaric practices of the Canaanite people. It is less an insult than an indicator of the outcast position of the woman. Note that she acknowledges the sins of her people in asking for his aid, which he then provides in full.

Vatican News

Pope at Audience: WYD in Portugal was 'an encounter with Christ'

World Youth Day is an occasion to encounter Christ, grow in faith, and experience God's tender love for all His children. This was how Pope Francis assessed his recent Apostolic Journey to Lisbon, Portugal, for the occasion of the 37th World Youth Day. The Holy Father's comments came on Wednesday, at his weekly General Audience, in the Vatican, marking the first since his traditional July break, which took place in the Vatican's Paul VI Hall, to provide some comfort amid the intense Roman sun. At the Audience, the Pope reflected on his Visit and the great fruits it provided. "World Youth Day in Lisbon, after the pandemic, was felt by all to be a gift of God." God, the Pope recalled, set in motion the young people's hearts and steps, to go and find Jesus.

World Youth Day, he stressed, is an encounter with the living Christ through the Church, "an encounter that makes one grow in faith and where many discover God's call," often "to marriage, to consecrated life, to the priesthood.

"For each and every person," he said, "it is the joy of discovering that they are called, by grace, to be part of the people of God, a different people ... sent to proclaim to all peoples the joyful Gospel of Christ: that God is Father and loves all His children.".... The Pope praised the great numbers, faith, and enthusiasm of the young people... "World Youth Day showed us another world is possible," he insisted, one without fear, isolationism, and weapons.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS)

Volunteers Are Needed In The SJV Atrium

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is seeking enthusiastic VOLUNTEERS, or SUPPORT ANGELS, who would like to help our youngest children in their journey to learn about Jesus, our Good Shepherd. We welcome generous and committed adults who can dedicate one or two hours a week to help in different ways with the religious formation of our children. If you hear the call in your heart, please give us a call at (415) 430-5275 or email us at CGS@sjvparish.com. Our program will start on September 7th from 3:30 pm to 5:30 pm on Thursdays. Please listen for His call!

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

COME JOIN US!

If you've been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic, we invite you to look deeper into the Catholic faith. Come meet some faithful Catholics who love the Lord and would consider it a privilege to get to know you. Our parish will soon begin a set of sessions to share with others the truths of the Catholic faith and the fellowship of our church family. We invite you to learn what Catholics believe in an open and welcoming environment. These sessions also are opportunities for you to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church. Sessions are always held on Sundays at 8:00 am. This first session is August 27, 2023 in the Fireside Room. Feel free to come any Sunday. For more information, contact: (415) 813-9500, OCIA-English@SJVParish.com. Or check out our website: <https://sjvparish.com/why-catholic/becoming-catholic>.
