NOV. 20, 2022 | OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST KING OF THE UNIVERSE

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." - Lk 23:35

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

November 20, 2022, Solemnity of Christ, the King – Formed.org.

Video overview : What is your image of a king? Among other things, you probably think of power and splendor when you think of royalty. The first-century Jews had some very specific expectations concerning the messiah, the anointed king, about whom the prophets spoke. And so when some gazed upon Jesus hanging on the cross, they laughed at the idea that this could be the longed-for messiah. Jesus was mocked by his fellow Jews, the thief who was crucified with him, and the Roman soldiers as well. His apparent weakness and disgrace on the cross were the very antithesis of the worldly idea of a king. But for Luke and the other early Christians, this crucifixion scene is the perfect image of Christ as King: The cross is the throne from which Jesus rules as the King of Love. His death is his loving gift to us. From the cross Christ invites us to share in his reign. We participate in his kingship by sacrificing ourselves in love—by caring for the weak and the sick, by helping those in need, by sharing our time and our very selves with those around us. In the end, love itself proves to be stronger than even death. In the end, Love itself reigns forever.

Featured study: A sign of contradiction: Priest, Prophet, King. 19 min video.

Reflection: This an odd king who hangs in public disgrace on a cross to receive the jeers and derision of crowds and criminals. The Romans hung a sign above his head to that effect, intended as cruel irony, but which speaks the honest truth. They meant to say to the Jews, “You’re slaves and so is this one, dying the death of a slave, is a fitting king for you.” They didn’t realize that we’re all slaves to sin and that only the death of this innocent king of slaves could free us. The centurion at the foot of the cross recognized Christ’s innocence, but it took a convicted criminal to pierce the heart of the mystery of Christ’s odd kingship, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.” There was never a more profound act of faith than that. Imagine the depth of faith needed to see in the man mocked, beaten, and dying as one who would rule as king. Yet this thief, and innumerable sinners since, has received the grace to see in this one dying the death of a slave as their Lord and king. Sinners often understand it best.

From the Pastor

A Thanksgiving Prayer

Generous and merciful God,
we thank you for your abundant gifts to us.
As we celebrate this Thanksgiving feast,
we ask you to send your Spirit,
to open our hearts to you and our neighbor,
that we may share the gifts you have given us as your Son Jesus taught us to.
Thank you for the many blessings of our lives:
our family and friends,
our home and the food we eat,
our health and employment.
We ask your blessing on all gathered here today,
and all your people throughout the world,
through Christ your Son.
Amen.

Wishing all SJV parish families and friends
a joyful wonderful Thanksgiving holiday, filled with God's choicest blessings of love, joy and peace.
Yours in Christ,

SJV School

As we approach the Thanksgiving holiday the school community is pausing for thanks and gratitude. Each student of St. John Vianney Catholic School is a gift. Each family of St. John Vianney Catholic School is a gift. Each staff member of St. John Vianney Catholic School is a gift. These gifts are not lost on us. Collectively, we are thankful for the many gifts we receive each day. To be in community together is perhaps the sweetest gift. SJV Tigers wish you and your family and friends the blessing of love and humility this Thanksgiving season. May His love reach you and provide opportunity to find your own grates. “Learn from Me, for I am meek and humble of heart” (Matthew 11:29). Catholic Campaign for Human Development

This weekend's collection is to support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). CCHD supports those living in poverty by funding programs that empower local communities to address the challenges they face. It identifies and addresses the unique obstacles people face as they work to lift themselves and their communities out of poverty. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. By supporting this collection, you are giving those on the margins a hand up, not a handout.

Youth & Young Adults Corner

Happy Solemnity of Christ, KING OF THE UNIVERSE!!!

Today is one of my favorite holy days. Coming on the last Sunday of Ordinary Time and the week before the start of Advent, we should ask ourselves a very important question: what do I mean when I say that Christ is “King of the Universe”? When we speak of Jesus as “King of the Universe”, this has both an objective and subjective dimension. Objectively, He truly is King of the Universe. He created the Heavens and the earth, and it is by His active will that everything which exists continues to exist. If it were not for His active willing you to be in existence here and now as you read this, then you would simply cease to exist. Not die, mind you – you and I would cease to exist altogether. Subjectively, however, His Kingship is a different story. God may or may not be king of our lives, and that ultimately comes down to whether we have enthroned Him in our hearts. If Jesus truly is the king of our lives – our “universes” – then do we live like it? Do we give ourselves to Him every moment of every day? Do we repent of our sins, living for Christ and Christ alone? Are we willing to forsake earthly goods, fame and fortune, family and friends, to do His will? In other words: Is Jesus truly the King of MY universe? YOUTH MINISTRY STARTS TODAY!

'Lazy, tepid, sad': Pope Francis explains how desolation can be turned to good

Pope Francis explained on Wednesday how times of spiritual desolation – described by St. Ignatius of Loyola as feelings of unquiet, temptation, sadness – can also help bring us closer to God.

"No one wants to be desolate, sad. We would all like a life that is always joyful, cheerful, and fulfilled. Yet this, besides not being possible – because it is not possible – would not be good for us either," the pope said during the general audience on Oct. 26.

In fact, he added, feelings of sadness or remorse can be the impetus for turning away from a life of vice.

Pope Francis continued his lessons on discernment with a reflection on spiritual desolation at his weekly gathering with the public in St. Peter's Square.

Quoting from St. Ignatius of Loyola's spiritual exercises, he said desolation is defined as "darkness of soul, disturbance in it, movement to things low and earthly, the unquiet of different agitations and temptations, moving to want of confidence, without hope, without love, when the soul finds itself all lazy, tepid, sad, and as if separated from its Creator and Lord."

He said one thing to know about desolation is that it is an invitation to self-reflection. "It is important to learn how to read sadness," Francis said. "We all know what sadness is – everyone. But do we know how to read it? Do we know what it means for me, this sadness of today?"

Pope Francis said we should also be aware of how the devil may try to use feelings of sadness or desolation to tempt us away from intentions to live with virtue.

"For those, on the other hand, who have the desire to do good, sadness is an obstacle with which the tempter tries to discourage us," he explained.

"It is important, for those who want to serve the Lord, not to be led astray by desolation," he warned, encouraging people to first pause and consider their state of mind before taking any drastic decisions.

"A wise rule says not to make changes when you are desolate," he said, without the help of a good spiritual guide.
