Fourth Sunday of ADVENT

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

December 18, 2022, Fourth Sunday of Advent — Formed.org.

Video overview: This week's Gospel tells us how the "birth of Jesus Christ came about." More specifically, it tells us how an angel appeared to Joseph, explaining to him that Mary's son would save the people from their sins. While Joseph might not have understood it at the time, we know that Jesus is the fulfillment of the great prophecy of Isaiah 7:14ff, that the Messiah would come from the line of David and be born of a Virgin. In our readings this week, we first read that prophecy and then see its fulfillment in the Gospel. While today's reading focuses on Joseph, Mary is also present. It is because of her, and her willingness to do God's will by accepting the responsibility of bearing his Son, that our sins can be forgiven. But we cannot overlook Joseph's role either. As the Gospel tells us, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded-taking Mary to be his wife and accepting his responsibility toward the child in her womb. As we examine both Mary's and Joseph's responses to the Lord, we are shown two examples of the way that we, as Christians, are to be open to the Lord's movement in our own lives. Mary, the spotless virgin, readied a place in her body for the coming of the Messiah. We, too, can prepare a place for him in our hearts. Joseph, the faithful husband, accepted what he did not understand and trusted that the Lord was at work. Inspired by his example, we who often can't understand what is happening to us can learn to trust more that the Lord is truly working in our lives. With only a few days left before we celebrate the coming of the Lord at Christmas, let us take this time to ask both Mary and Joseph to help us truly "prepare the way of the Lord" in our hearts, our minds, and our souls.

Featured study: The Good News: God has Sent His Son

Reflection: This Gospel passage features that mysterious name "Emmanuel," which we apply to our Savior, Jesus Christ. It literally means "with us is God." In that name is a capsule description of our Catholic faith. The single difference between Christianity and all other religions is that God has come to dwell among us as a man. While both Catholics and Protestants believe that Christ came in the flesh, we believe that he also left us his flesh, as promised in John 6 and Matthew 28:20, so that he could remain with us until the end of time. The whole of Catholic life centers on the belief that God has come into our midst and remains among us. The Sacraments make Christ present to us, particularly the Eucharist, which effects what we call His Real Presence among us: Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. We could say that "Emmanuel" is another word for Incarnation. It's only in coming, in the flesh, that God could dwell with us in that kind of intimacy that's at the very heart of Christian faith and the life of sanctity which expresses that faith.

God of every nation and people, from the very beginning of creation you have made known your love: when our need for a Savior was great you sent your Son to be born of the Virgin Mary.

To our lives he brings joy and peace, justice, mercy, and love.

Lord, bless all who look upon this manger; may it remind us of the humble birth of Jesus, and raise up our thoughts to him, who is God-with-us and Savior of all, and who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Amen.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)

Advent Season - Purple is for "Preparation".

This is the time of the year when we prepare our hearts for the most joyful celebration, the Nativity of our Lord Jesus. We, in the atrium, join the whole church and all the nations of the world in preparing our hearts to celebrate Jesus' Birthday. In the First week of Advent, we have a procession and change the Altar Cloth from Green to Purple in our Prayer Table. Now we are in Preparation.

The color purple reminds us of doing little sacrifices for Jesus and for others, for people in need. Our families do everything they can to make sure we have happy holidays and we, with other family members, friends and neighbors, can enjoy the season. Let's make sure we also prepare our hearts and offer it to The Holy Family as the INN where they can await for Jesus, our Divine Baby. One good way to prepare ourselves to receive Jesus in our homes is to help another person or family to enjoy the season too. Let's do something for another person, to live better the spirit of the season. Let's pray for Peace in the world.

Vatican Christmas tree lighting ceremony 2022

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas at the Vatican. A large hand-carved wooden nativity scene was unveiled in St. Peter Square on Saturday night at the Vatican's Christmas tree lighting ceremony.

Cardinal Fernando Vérgez Alzaga presided over the ceremony on Dec. 3. Due to heavy rain and thunderstorms, the celebration took place inside Vatican City's Paul VI Hall with a video live-stream from St. Peter's Square of the Christmas tree lighting.

The Christmas tree is a nearly 100-foot-tall white fir from Rosello, a mountain village with around 182 inhabitants in the central Italian region of Abruzzo.

The tree was adorned with ornaments made by children at a psychiatric rehabilitation center in Italy. Other decorations for the tree were crafted by residents at a nursing home and schoolchildren from Abruzzo.

The outdoor nativity scene is made of life-sized figures hand carved out of alpine cedar trees from Italy's northeasternmost region, Friuli-Venezia Giulia.

The scene includes a wooden grotto with an ox, donkey, angel, Mary, Joseph, and the baby Jesus. The wooden figures will also have tradesmen and tradeswomen typical of the area where the nativity was made, a shepherdess, and a family and children.

The Vatican has placed a nativity scene in front of St. Peter's Basilica for the Christmas season since the 1980s. For about a decade, the Vatican has asked different countries or Italian regions to lend the nativity to be displayed.
